RATE BILL AND NEWSPAPERS Instances of a misunderstanding of the results to be expected from the passage of the four and five per cent interest rate bill brought out by Mr.
 Gollehur at the Commercial club meeting yesterday show what widespread ignorance exists on the subject. To the person who is not acquainted with business affairs, the idea of such law appeals at once.
 Being told that interest rates are to be fixed by law at four and five per cent, he says, "That is good. It will be much better if interest rates are lowered," but in saying this he assumes that money will continue to be loaned as before, the only difference being in the interest rate. Here, of course, he is mistaken. If the measure should pass, loans made thereafter would have to be at the rates fixed. The point is that loans would not have to be made, and, with investment opportunities of every kind in other states where no such limit is placed on interest rates, there would be no loans in Oregon at all.
 From the newspaper viewpoint special interest attaches to one portion of Mr. Gollehur's remarks. After saying that the newspapers of the state had already taken up the fight against the interest measure, he pointed out that it was not fair to expect them to wage the battle alone, and this will appeal to all as absolutely correct. The newspaper is expected to take the lead in matters pertaining to the public welfare, but, at the same time, it has a right to expect that it will be supported and upheld in its work.
 Fortunately, the newspapers of Bend have always received hearty support, and they will undoubtedly continue to receive it.

MORE POTATOES TO BE SHIPPED to have been cut 40 per cent by frost, more scientific methods of cultivation, use of better seed, and more carefully prepared soil will result in an output greatly in excess of that in 1919, he states.

 "It is too early to draw any conclusions as to the market," Mr. Stadig said, "but I do not expect any such high prices as those prevailing last year. The government forecast for a large crop will be one determining factor in keeping quotations down, but there is always a healthy demand for the Central Oregon spud, both for table and seed purposes. I have little doubt that our entire crop would find a ready market for seed alone.
 "Our best potatoes will be shipped out in special sacks, branded 'Deschutes Gem'."
 The marketing of the Deschutes valley spud crop will probably not begin for another month, Mr. Stadig said.

FEAR BLOODSHED AT CUBA'S ELECTION

Miguel Gomez of the liberal party and Alfredo Zayas, candidate of the coalition league, while General Rafael Montalvo is trying to establish his candidacy as the selection of the conservative party.
 The conservative party in Cuba, on August 27, formed a coalition with followers of Zayas, who was the candidate of the liberal party for the presidency in 1916. By accepting Zayas, the conservative party threw over General Montalvo, who already had been proclaimed as the conservative candidate for president. General Montalvo now claims that he was ousted from the candidacy through fraud and intrigue and that he still considers himself the conservative candidate. He has taken

Feet Of Clay

At times some saintly writer has made a hit with me, some sane and forceful fighter against iniquity. Without too much of preaching, great truths his books expound, the truths that should be reaching this weary world around. And every time I read him, I think, "His life's a pome! The soul sick people need him, to bring their sunshine home!" And I assume he's living like those of whom he writes, no thought or longing giving to lurid days and nights. Then comes some sickly scandal, some drama rank and coarse, in which that saintly vandal is screeching for divorce. And thus some actress winning is shrined in all our hearts; she seems remote from sinning and all the sordid arts.
 The moving films unfold her in strictly moral shows; whenever we behold her, our admiration grows. We christen her "Our Lizzie," and praise her till we're hoarse—and then she knocks us dizzy by asking a divorce. A lot of us old wedges still look on wedding rings and solemn marriage pledges as being sacred things. And now we find them tiring, these gifted girls and men; they had us once admiring, but never will again.

his case before the central elections board and says that, if necessary, he will bring it before the supreme court of Cuba.
 The United States government is earnestly solicitous that there be no repetition after the impending election of the revolution following the election of 1916.
 The Cuban election laws, drafted by Major General Enoch H. Crowder, judge advocate general of the United States army, who mobilized America's great draft army in the World war, were brought into use in the elections of 1912 and 1916. In March of last year, at the invitation of the Cuban government, General Crowder again went to Cuba to make a final draft of the electoral law, with a view of preventing a recurrence of certain abuses which had been practiced in the previous elections. This work was completed and the completed electoral laws enacted by the Cuban congress in August, 1919. The November elections constitute the first real test of the American-written electoral law for Cuba.

Belgian Hares.
 The Belgian hare is of a mahogany color, with wide black tacking on the ears and wavy black tucking on the body; no sign of white should appear, even on the feet. There are several varieties of Flemish Giant, one being steel gray with the under part of the body nearly white, another more nearly white, another more nearly brown than gray, and another black.
 White Giants are pure white with pink eyes.

Grecian Girl Provides the Home.
 In some parts of Greece no girl ever hope to find a husband until she has a home of her own. Hence, providing his daughters with houses is an onerous duty which falls to the lot of every father.

Her Sad Farewell.
 A very dignified man, whom I had known only a short while, came one evening to say good-by, as he was leaving on a long trip. When I ushered him into the parlor I discovered that my young brother had hung crepe on all the furniture!—Chicago
