MacSwiney's Fast Triumph of Spirit Says Bend Priest, Boyhood Friend of Hunger Striking Lord Mayor of Cork

Recollections of Terence Mac- | scholarly man, interested in the Swiney, lord mayor of Cork, now on the alst day of his hunger strike in Brixton prison, London, are vivid in the memory of Father Gabriel Harrington, auccessor to Father O'Reardon, of the Catho-He clergy of this city. Father Harrington, who was born in Cork, and knew MacSwiney practically all his life, was chaplain of MacSwiney's battallon in the Irish republican army for a year before departing for America, and last knew the famous prisoner of Brixton jall when the latter was deputy lord mayor of Cork.

Father Harrington, who is a member of the Irish Capucin Franciscans, was ordained three years ago, remaining in Cork until the latter part of 1919, when he came to America. He has been in Pennsylvania until he was recently called to Bend to succeed Father O'Reardon, who is now in Ukiah, Cal.

Weston Said To Have Given Details of Hermit's Death, In Presence of Two-Faith of His Wife and Daughter Remains Unshaken.

Reasons underlying the arrest of A. J. Weston, charged with the murder of Robert H. Krug, hermit rancher of Sisters, in March, 1919, were disclosed last night when Sheriff S. E. Roberts and H. H. De Armond, who, with R. S. Hamilton, is acting as a special prosecutor in the case. stated that they have two witnesses who will testify that Weston boasted to them of torturing Krug in a vain endeavor to make him disclose the hiding place of his money, and of finally killing the aged man and firing the building. Krug's body was found on the morning after the crime is alleged to have been committed, charred almost beyond recognition.

The authorities are unwilling at present to disclose the identity of the two star witnesses. One of them, it is known, is now in Portland, and has received instructions to report here Tuesday for the preliminary WEST JEFFERSON, Ohio, Oct. 2. hearing.
