

GERMANS LOOK TO AMERICANS

By Carl D. Grant.

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
BERLIN, Oct. 13.—It can be said that Germany, as a whole, despite its dislike of the 14 points, looks with more favor on a working arrangement with America than with England. In the contest between England and America for supremacy on the seas, Germany's sympathy unquestionably is with America.

The German is convinced that, despite the fact that America has not concluded peace with Germany, there is a spirit in America favoring business relations and the rebuilding of German economic life. On the other hand, Germany feels that France, which has concluded peace, is working unsparingly for France's own ends. This feeling has been strengthened by Millerand's recent journey through the occupied Rhine territory, by evidence that General Lerond, in Upper Silesia, was operating favorably toward the Poles, and by the fact that France was opposing German participation in the Geneva conference.

Germany is anxious to participate in the Geneva conference in order to know how to regulate its affairs. Through Geneva, it expects clear decisions which permit of shaping definitely for the future rather than drifting along aimlessly without a clear understanding of what the outcome will impose on her.

Put it in The Bulletin.

Resurrect Melodies of Seventeenth Century

Temple Choir, to Be Heard Here Soon, Offers Both Oldest and Newest Songs—A Mixed Quartet of Talented Vocalists.

The Temple Choir is a mixed quartet of high-class vocalists who have had a successful career in lyceum work, because they give an artistic program which is just a little bit different from anything else. As a delightful feature of their program they present along with lighter and classic numbers of the day, several old religious chants and hymns, which were used centuries ago. These ancient melodies have seldom been heard in this country. They are of unusual beauty, however, and are rendered most artistically by the Temple Choir. The announcement of the approaching visit of this company is arousing much interest in local musical circles.

COMPARATIVELY FEW APPLY FOR MEDALS

Only About 10 Per Cent of Ex-Service Men Ask For Special Victory Awards From Government.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 13.—Victory medals are being applied for so slowly by ex-service men that Major General P. C. Harris, adjutant general of the army, has notified the officers in charge of the distribution to make the utmost effort to reach all who are entitled to medals. It is estimated that 3,757,624 men who served in the army are entitled to the medal, but to date only 379,215, or about 10 per cent of the number, have applied. Applications are coming in at the rate of only 6800 a day, which is far below the capacity for issue of the working crew in the Philadelphia general supply depot. The quartermaster has put on a large force and these men are being held at much expense to the government. The American Legion makes no distinction between members and non-members in the Victory medal distribution. There are also special blanks for the next of kin, in order that the relatives may obtain the decorations for those who were killed in action, or who died in line of duty.

INTEREST KEEN IN WAR RISK POLICIES

Many Ex-Service Men Reinstating, Says Government Insurance Man—Red Cross To Assist.

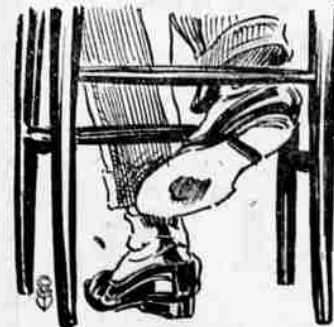

Service men everywhere are taking a keen interest in the reinstatement of their war risk insurance, was the declaration of Cliff Wood, representative of the bureau of war risk insurance, who spent yesterday in Bend adjusting claims and helping former soldiers, sailors and marines. The fact that reinstatement of policies which have lapsed more than 18 months has only recently been made possible has stimulated action on the part of many who hitherto had failed to realize the value of the government insurance, Mr. Wood said.

The new ruling provides that the service man must submit to a full medical examination, at his own expense. If the results are satisfactory, he will be reinstated by the bureau.

Necessary blanks to be used in applying for reinstatement have been left by Mr. Wood with Mrs. V. A. Forbes, home service secretary of the Bend Red Cross chapter.

The Temple Choir

Opening number furnished by the Ellison-White Company for the LYCEUM COURSE presented by the employes of The Shevlin-Hixon and Brooks-Scanlon mills.

The Temple Choir is primarily a first class mixed quartet, and will offer a program of wide variety, including difficult classical selections, and vocal numbers in a lighter vein. Delightful readings will be featured.

The Biggest Lyceum Crowd ever assembled in Bend, is the aim of the Shevlin-Hixon and Brooks-Scanlon mill men. Two dollars and a half buys an adult season ticket for five numbers; one dollar a child's season ticket, and 75 cents pays for a single admission.

A Free Concert will be given by the crack Shevlin-Hixon Band preceding the Lyceum number, so be on hand at 8 o'clock sharp.

Mrs. Archie Fortier. She arrived September 29.

E. A. Bussett had occasion to use a big log chain that he had left at Jake Brix's place while heading and, on going over after dark to get it, found an automobile standing in front of Mr. Brix's granary. At first thought he supposed it was Mr. Brix's own car, but discovered later that it was in the garage. He immediately notified Brix, but the car was then gone, also two sacks of wheat. The granary door was left open. Mr. Brix later discovered the loss of a box of apples from his cellar.

Mrs. Bert Rennolds and baby have been spending the week as guests of her mother in Prineville. Mr. Rennolds got homesick for them and went over after them Sunday.

A fine cow belonging to Mr. Monocle died from blood recently. George Kessler also lost one recently.

Mrs. E. A. Bussett received a fine box of fish Saturday, a gift from Mr.

and Mrs. Allen Wilcoxon of Bend. Grandma Oreweller is visiting with Joe Shearer and Ruth this week. She leaves for Portland the last of the week.

Quite a number of women of this community, members of Powell Butte Sorosis club, were guests of Mrs. Collins W. Elkins in Prineville recently. "Jack" O'Callahan recently purchased the finest Rambouillet buck in all the Northwest. He brought him from Salt Lake City. The purchase price of the animal was $850. He has won all the blue ribbons wherever exhibited.

Mrs. George C. Truesdale purchased the two blue-ribbon Barred Rock cockerels at the fair. These birds are from the cock that was the prize-winning bird in his class both at the Portland and Spokane shows. Mrs. Truesdale already had some fine barred rock chickens and, with this addition to her pens, she puts herself in the lead in this class of
