Gould on the Delaware avenue and Congress improvements, and passed resolutions of intention. A two inch bituminous Hill. pavement is specified, but the work will differ from that authorized in the business section of the city, in the fact that the asphalt will be laid directly on the soil, instead of having a cinder base. Mr. Gould, in giving his report, mentioned that he was unable to recommend this type of paving. Councilmen McPherson and Rhodes in voting yes on the resolutions, explained that they did not olutions, explained that they did not because of popular demand expressed through petitions, and not because of any faith in a two inch asphalt surface, laid without a foun-dation. The Delaware avenue work in estimated at $21,196, and that FOURTEEN SCORE MADE BY VISon Congress at $13,856,05.

CLUB CAMPAIGN MAJORS READY TO BEGIN WORK

No. 180.

ON MONDAY

APPEAL SENT CHINA TO LAST THREE DAYS

Three Hundred Members and Ser ice Fund of $7500 Will Be Goal -Reorganization to Come Immediately After.

Plans and arrangements are all completed for the city wide canvass for memberships and service funds civic-commercial organization that The Americans are mills, engineer will serve as a great clearing house drive will be launched promptly at continue through three days.

The field organization, which is Chinese soldiers are reported to one of the largest and most repre be looting Russian residences in sentative bodies that has ever band-Sunday, and making ready for the "zero hour" when the entire "army" will "go over the top."

As has been previously explained, the field army is to work in two divisions to be designated as the blue and the white and these divisions are in charge of Major H. A. Miller, and Major H. J. Overturf. Each major has six team captains, and each captain from four to five workers. The goal will be a membership of not less than 300 members and service fund of at least $7,500.

No More "Hat Passing" With the opening of the Bend Commercial club reorganization campaign the membership dues were increased from $18 to $25 a year. This action was taken after it was found that 85 per cent of the successful civic-commercial organizations of the United States have unnual dues of $25 a year or more.

The income from dues of the new organization will be used for salaries, office maintenance, routine activities and the keeping in operation of an efficient machine for the performance of civic-commercial organization service.

The annual service fund of $7,-500 to be raised in addition is required for the execution of a program of permanent work and the fiancing of matters which in times past have been paid for haphazard-ly by "passing the hat."

To Use Budget Plan So far as possible, all affairs that may come under the regular program of work of the club during the cipated in the budget and adequate funds provided for th will be unnecessary to keep circuside the city when the car plunged lating subscription lists for one purthe year. The budget plan of financing fixed affairs of this character has accomplished substantial savings of money in place where it has been adopted, in addition to its savings in time and energy for citizens.

The daily reports to be made by the different teams-twelve teams of men and two of women-are expected to develop considerable interest and an unusual degree of friendly rivalry. The teams will meet at 9 a.m., each day of the drive, and after receiving instructions will go out and work for two hours in enrolling memberships and service fund pledges for the new organization. After canvassing for two hours the teams will return to the Pilot Butte Inn for luncheon and reports. A large blackboard has been prepared for bulletining the daily returns. Each daily meeting will be featured by a speaker who will be provided for the occasion.

An installation director of the American City Bureau will arrive in Bend next week and after the membership enrollment has been completed, will immediately start in setting up the "machinery" of the new organization. The membership wiff be organized, new by-laws adopted, directors elected and officers chosen. A definite program of work will also be prepared by the membership. When finally com-
