EUROPE'S STARVING BABIES

(Oregon Journal.)

Think of it!
 Ten dollars buys the life of a child in war-ravaged Europe until next harvest.

Herbert Hoover says so.
 Three million five hundred thousand little children, a bread and soup line long enough to reach from Oregon to Chicago, will starve to death if America's heart is hard; will live if America gives money for food.

In Poland, Lithuania, Roumania, Austria, Czecho-Slovakia, Germany, the baby victims of war crowd round the soup kitchens America provides under direction of Hoover.

So scarce is the food that a child before being fed must be physically examined. If the little one can live another day, he or she is turned, sobbing, away.

Suppose your children, defenseless against entrenched famine, thus confronted death on the battlefields of the war.

The appeal of the American relief council through its Oregon division to the people of Oregon, is:

"Entertain at Christmas dinner as many children of Europe as you can afford as your little invisible guests."

Oregon's total quota of $250,000 equally divided between Portland and the state outside, for subscription during December 19-25, the dates of the drive, is startlingly little when one thinks of the appalling nature of the food emergency this moment afflicting Europe's innocent millions of tiny folk.

LIED TO SAVE HIS MOTHER

Boy "Perjured Himself Like a Gentleman" to Confessing Murder of His Stepfather.

Frankfort, Ky.—A parole will be given Willie Knuckles of Frankfort, Ky., who, when sixteen years old, "perjured himself like a gentleman," in the opinion of a jury, in confessing to the murder and exonerating his mother of complicity in the death of his stepfather.

Young Knuckles confessed slaying his stepfather, Graven Crews, and declared his mother had nothing to do with it. Notwithstanding his testimony, Mrs. Crews received a life sentence, but was pardoned a few years later. Willie, himself, is now to be released from jail.

Striking at Human Liberty.

Fort Wayne, Ind.—Girl high school students here are prohibited from using rouge and wearing skirts more than ten inches from the floor, wearing square necked dresses and puffs over the ears. The girls object.

Elegance.

Elegance is something more than ease—more than a freedom from awkwardness and restraint. It implies a precision, a polish and a sparkling which is spirited yet delicate.—Hazlitt.

BOARDMAN & LeBRUN

Rippling Rhymes
 by Walt Mason

December

December winds are blowing, and wearily I'm going down to the wailing place; the wintry clouds are flying, the old gray year is dying, it finishes its race. The old white year is failing and bitter winds are wailing its dirges as they pass; the fact they keep repeating amid the frenzied sleeting that years, like flesh, are grass. Each year, when a beginner, is sure to be a winner, that truth is understood; and all the bells are ringing and all the choirs are singing their prophecies of good. The new year seems a treasure, with promises of pleasure and happiness we've lost; but when with age it totters, we swat it with our swatters, and say it was a frost. And now in drab December but few of us remember how good the new year seemed; its guarantees were thrilling, it promised the fulfilling of all the dreams we dreamed. December always sees us so tired that naught will please us except a brand new year, wherein to try fresh measures for profits and for pleasures, to spend and profiteer. Old year, so sad and sickly, get out, and do it quickly—you've hung around too long! Old jaws are always creaking and musty maxims speaking; we like the young and strong!

MOOSE CHANGE DATE FOR CHRISTMAS TREE

Lodge Picks Night of December 23 So As Not To Interfere With Community Program.

In order not to interfere with the community Christmas tree program scheduled to be held at the gymnasium on the evening of December 24, the Bend Moose decided last night to give their own Christmas eve exercises a day ahead of time. It will be held on the evening of Thursday, December 23, at the Moose hall, it was announced this morning.

The Moose program, which is to start at 8 o'clock, will be chiefly musical, with excellent vocal numbers and drills by children attired in the lodge colors. A Christmas tree and treats for the children of members of the lodge will be features of the evening.

He Had Reformed.
 Charles was known as a scrapper by all his playmates and could whip any boy in his neighborhood. Finally a new family moved to town whose boy was about his own age. Charles tackled him and received a good whipping at his hands. He went home crying, and the next day announced to his playmates: "I want you all to understand that from this time on I'm an unscrapper."

THE MOOSE AND THEIR FRIENDS are invited to attend a DANCE to be given in SATHER'S HALL Saturday Night

"Is This the Mighty Ocean?"
 In his autobiography, James G. Huneker, the critic, says of his first view of the ocean: "When I saw the sea it was as flat as a temperance lecture. I was disappointed because of its wet monotony. I quoted Landor to help me out: 'Is this the mighty ocean?—Is this all? Like the girl in the Stendhal novel, who found love insipid, I felt like asking: 'Is that all?'—'Steeplejack,' by James Gibbons Huneker.

EASTERN STAR HAS ANNUAL ELECTIONS

Mrs. J. Edward Larson Chosen To Head Chapter—Installation To Be On Night of December 27th.

Mrs. J. Edward Larson was chosen as worthy matron to head the Bend chapter, Order of Eastern Star, during the coming year. Appointive officers will probably be named this week and installation will be held at the meeting on the evening of Monday, December 27.

Other elective officers elected last night are: Charles W. Hayes, worthy patron; Mrs. W. R. Speck, associate matron; Mrs. J. Alton Thompson, secretary; Mrs. D. G. McPherson, treasurer; Mrs. J. C. Vandeventer, conductress; Mrs. Charles W. Hayes, associate conductress.

Really Nothing New.
 In Java is the great temple of Borobudor, temple of the many Buddhas, which was unearthed some years ago, and is known to have been built in the fifth century, and right near it is the lesser temple of Mendoot. Further north, in the Caroline Islands, are the ruins of an ancient city whose streets were waterways just as those of Venice are today. So when visits are made to these virgin islands and one feels almost like a discoverer of new lands it is well to remember that there is nothing new, even under the tropical sun.—Exchange.

Motor Runs in Water.
 An Englishman has invented a centrifugal pump directly connected with an electric motor that runs equally well either in or out of water.
