Paradoxical.
 "There is a contradictory sort of advertisement in the paper of this big business firm." "What is it?" "It is a summary of their winter stock."

A small expense in repair work may save you the cost of a new battery. H. R. Riley, Electrical Service Station, 135 Greenwood.—Adv.

With Her Own Favorite.
 "Daughter, I hope you will go to church this evening. The pastor's subject, 'An Hour With Favorite Hymns,' should be very interesting." "I should like very much to go, father, but I have an engagement with my own favorite him tonight."

Penalty of Conceit.
 Lots of failures can be traced to the belief that other people are not quite so smart as we are.—New Haven Register.

Bastions Invented by Italians.
 Bastions were invented by the Italian engineers of the sixteenth century to prevent the enemy from collecting in the ditch round a fortified town.

Same in Everything.
 No matter how carefully you pick apples off a tree, there's a fine one away up there—at the top that you missed. In life, it's about the same way.

Taking Your Measure.
 The things that people say about you when you are not with them, make up what the community thinks of you. Ever stop to consider how you are sized up?

Great Peat Bog.
 Smolen Island near Kristiansund, Norway is a flat spot of land possessed of numerous areas of peat bog. It is doubtful whether there is anywhere a better location for the production of peat in large quantities.

Elephantine.
 "Didn't I see Mr. Ledfoot dancing with you at the park?" "That's what he called it."—Boston Evening Transcript.

Not as Bad as They Seem.
 One of the comforting things that time teaches us is, that mighty few things are as bad as they look to be, or are said to be.

Repair work is reasonable if the work is done in time. Weak batteries are sure to freeze in cold weather. Let Riley look at it and be on the safe side. Electrical Service Station, 135 Greenwood.—Adv.

FRANK MAYO

in a rousing outdoors romance laid in a land that knew not God nor Law

HONOR BOUND

In a land where nature mocks at civilized conventions, two men, both loved by noble women, found themselves face to face with primitive emotions to which only instincts of forgotten ancestors could respond. Yet there was a third woman—as beautiful as the tropic jungle that gave her birth—and as fatal to the two men of the North. See how she tangled five lives to the point of catastrophe and you'll see a marvelous picture-story.
