FARM BUREAU AIMS

Expert advice as to the best method of establishing a community of interest between city and country was given recently to the Bend Commercial club by F. L. Ballard, assistant state leader of county agents. In brief, he suggested that the club familiarize itself with the program adopted by the county farm bureau, then let it be known that the club is ready to assist at any time that such assistance is desired in carrying on this program.

Here is the line of action mapped out by the Deschutes County Farm bureau for the present year. It is a campaign broadly comprehensive, and at the same time strengthened by definite detailed aims. It is one which the Bend Commercial club, or any other civic organization, need have no hesitancy in endorsing:

- Poultry project—Culling demonstration.
- Potato project—1. Seed certification. 2. Fertilizer trials.
- Cooperative shipping of livestock.
- Cooperative marketing—Pooling orders for seed, sulphur, etc.
- Irrigation—1. Development of projects of Deschutes county. 2. Cooperation in laying out field irrigation systems.
- Rural finance—1. Crop reports. 2. Cost account systems.
- Rodent control—1. Sage-rat poisoning. 2. Rabbit poisoning.
- Dairying—1. Better and pure-bred stock. 2. Bull associations. 3. Cooperative purchase of pure-bred stock.

Mind And Muscle

Oh, forty learned professors toiled on, the long years through; they were not cheap-john guessers—they knew the things they knew; the midnight oil was burning that they might gather learning; all dissertations spurning, they delved where knowledge grew. They toiled while vain carousers assailed the vintner's vats, and they wore baggy trousers and prehistoric hats; for men of learning never get much for their endeavor; the coin's for fellows clever at punching others' slats. The fighter meets a fighter, exchanging foolish swats; and then the winning blighter with Colonel Croesus trots; who would not be a bruiser, when e'en the battered loser becomes a wealthy snoozer, and buys some city lots? A Dempsey calmly seizes two hundred thousand bones for whipping sundry cheeses or inefficient drones; but oh, the men of learning! They always are returning to pawnshops with a yearning to get some transient loans. They soak their books of knowledge, they soak their cows and cats; their sons must go to college, their wives must have new hats; their income is so slender each wears but one suspender; pugs get the legal tender for slugging domes and slats.

Livestock—1. Feeding demonstrations. 2. Cooperative purchase of pure-bred stock.
Silos and silage—1. New silos. 2. Silage crops.
Bees—1. Cooperative purchase of supplies. 2. Demonstrations.

SUPERINTENDENT FOR SQUAW CREEK CHOSEN

CLOVERDALE, March 9.—Owing to a meeting of the water users Saturday evening, the Council club meeting was postponed for one week. George H. Brewster has been employed as superintendent of the Squaw Creek Irrigation district for the coming year.
John Hilleary returned from Portland Tuesday morning. Mr. Hilleary's mother accompanied him home and will visit here several weeks.
Thomas Arnold was trading in Sisters Monday.
Freda Arnold spent Saturday afternoon with Louise Andrus.
Mr. Crawl and family have arrived from Washougal, Washington, to take possession of their new ranch here, the E. M. Peck place. At present they are living in the old school building. Owing to the illness of Mrs. Peck, the Peck family has been unable to give possession of the house.

CREDIT IS OUR GREATEST ASSET

The commercial world is standing on the foundation of credit. Every individual is a cog in the great wheel. When one neglects his credit and fails to pay his honest obligations, he makes it impossible for some one else to meet theirs, therefore it is extremely vital that each and every one see to it that we

KEEP OUR CREDIT GOOD

The Brooks-Scanlon Lumber Co.

The Penalty For Slow Payment of Bills!

There are two kinds of people living in this great big world today.

The positive man and the negative man.

One a SUCCESS—the other a failure.

The first is the man who not only makes good commercially—but makes good his PROMISES.

His success commercially is dependent upon his ability to make his promises STICK—in other words, he does as he agrees to do.

He is the type of man who would cut off his right hand rather than violate his "pledged obligations."

This man never fails to get CREDIT. The credit man knows that his promises are redeemed one hundred cents on the dollar.

Not much can be said of the negative fellow. He is always a failure.

He will contract any kind of a debt on a promise to pay—IF—he can get credit, and there is always this little word—IF.

BUT—credit being based upon integrity—honest and ability to pay PROMPTLY—Mr. Slow Pay, the negative man, finds it harder every day to secure credit for he is listed with every credit man either—SLOW PAY OR DEAD BEAT.

And it is a difficult thing to regain credit confidence after it has once been shattered by unredeemed promises.

Your credit is a wonderful thing—a real buying power—keep it so by the prompt payment of your bills.
