ONCE UPON A TIME

Once upon a time a man was dashing toward the sea to commit suicide. The wind blew off his hat and he turned back after it. By the time he'd recovered it he had changed his mind and decided to live.

A man hates to lose a hat like the Gordon—it has a likable personality.

CREDIT IS OUR GREATEST ASSET

The commercial world is standing on the foundation of credit. Every individual is a cog in the great wheel. When one neglects his credit and fails to pay his honest obligations, he makes it impossible for some one else to meet theirs, therefore it is extremely vital that each and every one see to it that we

An American Worker's Creed

"The Company for which I work is a mighty good employer and I think any employee who hasn't an interest in the success of his employer ought to quit or get fired. My idea is that when a man sells his services to an employer, he sells his loyalty at the same time. If he can't be loyal and give the best that is in him, he ought not to work for that particular employer. By being loyal I don't mean that one has to be a toady, or that he has to lose any of his independence. The most loyal may be the most independent, and usually is."
