M'NARY'S BILL WILL BENEFIT 20,000,000 ACRES

QUARTER BILLION OF RECLAMATION AIM

AID FOR WEST PLAN

Payment For Water Rights to Cover 20 Year Period, With Bonding Preceded Until Project Is Actually Under Operation

(Bulletin Washington Bureau.) WASHINGTON, D. C., April 15.—Twenty million acres of land in the arid and semi-arid states of the west will be reclaimed and made productive if United States Senator Charles L. McNary's bill advancing $250,000,000 to the reclamation fund is enacted.

The bill has been carefully drawn so as to avoid objections made in the past to similar legislation, and Senator McNary believes that it contains the solution of the reclamation problem of the west.

It is expected that the measure will be reported out favorably soon from the committee on reclamation and irrigation, of which the senator is the chairman.

"This bill," said Senator McNary today, "is designed to promote the agricultural development of the 16 arid and semi-arid states of the west. A preference is given to all ex-servicemen on all the public land in each of the projects contemplated, and also on excess land, which means that on acreage beyond which any one individual is permitted to own and which he is compelled to enter into a contract with the secretary of the interior to sell at an agreed value before work on the project is started. The maximum farm unit in the reclamation projects under this bill is 160 acres. The secretary of the interior is given authority to reduce this acreage to 80 acres.

Payments Cover 20 Years. "The payment of water rights extends over a period of 20 years, and the irrigation bonds, which are to be issued by the various districts, will carry interest rate at not to exceed five per cent.

"Under the bill the government of the United States is to advance to the federal reclamation fund $250,000,000. Twenty million dollars of this fund is to be paid the reclamation fund for 1922; $35,000,000 in 1923; $45,000,000 in 1924, and $50,000,000 thereafter each year until the full $250,000,000 has been paid into the reclamation fund.

"We have carefully avoided the objections in this bill that were made to former bills wherein the government was to accept from the various irrigation districts the bonds issued by these districts and in their place issue United States certificates of indebtedness for sale to the general public. This was objected to generally because it was felt under this plan the federal government was lending its credit in such a way as to

SAM CARDINELLI LAPSSES INTO UNCONSCIOUSNESS AS HE IS TAKEN TO GALLOW—PETTY CRIMINALS REMAIN CALM.

(By United Press to The Bend Bulletin.) CHICAGO, April 15.—Three men were hanged here today.

Sam Cardinelli, the "brains of Chicago's worst gang," according to the police, was carried to the scaffold unconscious. The gang leader lost his bravado as he was being brought from his cell and lapsed into unconsciousness from fear.

The other two to hang, Sam Ferrera and Joseph Costanzo, were taken to the scaffold previous to Cardinelli. Although only petty "stickup" men in the underworld, they held their heads high and maintained their composure until the trap was sprung.

Solitaire "Crap Shooter" Not to Appeal, Decides

A. L. Wilson, convicted of "shooting craps" with himself, according to his defense in police court several weeks ago, has decided not to appeal. Notwithstanding the doubt which was raised at that time as to the possibility of "solitaire" gambling, Wilson this morning appeared in the office of the city recorder and paid his fine of $25.

NEWTON WELLS, SURROUNDED BY HARNESS AND KITCHENWARE, TESTIFIES IN OWN DEFENSE.

Surrounded by one set of harness, a horse collar, a gray blanket, a coil of rope, a hand towel, a collection of chains and hobbles, a teapot, two kettles and a stewpan, Newton Wells this afternoon took the stand in his own defense in circuit court, charged with the theft of those articles from the homestead cabin of a neighbor, Christian Tinner, High Desert homesteader.

Wells testified that he had not taken the articles, which were found in his cabin and outbuildings, but that they had been brought there by a nephew, who was living with him at the time, given in the indictment as November. The nephew has since left for parts unknown. Wells had never asked him where the articles had been acquired, but had been told that some were purchased and others had been given him, he said. The state rested its case at noon today. Witnesses were: Tinner, Bert M. Meeks, Olvin Thompson, Sheriff S. E. Roberts, Deputy Samuel E. Lochrie and E. D. Gilson. W. O. Armstrong, Newton Wells and Burns Young testified for the defense early this afternoon.

SUBSTANTIAL GAINS PREDICTED

D. E. Hunter, Returning from South, Finds Conditions On Up-Grade—Spirit of Calm Assurance Prevalent In Bend Is Big Asset.

A steady increase in business and general prosperity is confidently expected in Bend from now on by D. E. Hunter, president of the Central Oregon bank and manager of the Bend company, just returned from spending four months in Los Angeles. Mr. Hunter does not consider that the good times of a year ago are coming back with a rush, but he does look for a steady, substantial strengthening in the basic industries of Bend and Central Oregon—the lumber business and stock raising.

Confidence Big Factor. Conditions in the lumber market have already improved slightly, he points out, and livestock, having reached the bottom level, cannot do otherwise than come up. "We are particularly fortunate in having representatives of two of the best and biggest lumber companies in the country located in Bend," he said. "It means operation at a time when plants in other sections may be entirely idle."

Not the least of Bend's assets is the general spirit of assurance which Mr. Hunter has noted since his return to Bend. It is not a blind optimism, but a calm feeling of confidence, which will aid materially in the progress of the city, he believes. "An external force which cannot but be of benefit to Bend is in the reputation enjoyed by this city throughout Oregon and in other states as well. "You always hear Bend highly spoken of; it is known as a live, prosperous town," Mr. Hunter said.

STATES EXCLUDING ALIENS TO ASK HELPFUL POLICY ON PART OF THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT

(Bulletin Washington Bureau.) WASHINGTON, D. C., April 15.—V. S. McClatchey of Sacramento, Cal., told the California delegation in congress Monday the inside of the California anti-Japanese land campaign, and as a result of the meeting it is expected that a joint conference of senators and congressmen from the states which plan or now have anti-alien land laws will be held within a few days to formulate a policy of cooperation and perhaps the placing of a memorial before the state department asking that no federal action be taken which will in any way diminish or neutralize the attitude of the various states as to alien land holdings.

From the information developed at the meeting yesterday it was learned that several states have now the same or similar anti-alien land laws as those recently passed by the state of California. These states, which now have alien land owning, are Washington, Nevada, Texas, Arizona, New Mexico, Utah, Colorado and Delaware. In Nebraska a similar bill has passed one house of the legislature and the same course has been followed in Oregon and Idaho. Oklahoma has for a number of years absolutely prohibited alien land owning.

Other States Rule. Illinois permits an alien to hold land for six years, but at the end of the period he must have become a naturalized citizen or the title to the land reverts to the state, and, as Japanese cannot be naturalized, this bars them. Indiana has a similar provision, where the limit is 320 acres and the alien must become a citizen within five years. Missouri permits only the holding of land by aliens whose country permits similar privilege to Americans by treaty provisions. Missouri laws also provide no corporation whose alien stockholders held more than 20 per cent of the capital may hold land. Pennsylvania has a law prohibiting more than a certain acreage and limiting the annual profits. Kansas reserves to its legislature the right to prescribe the property holding rights of aliens.

Joint Action Hoped for. Kentucky permits aliens to hold property for 25 years for business purposes only, and no real estate for any other purpose. Minnesota limits the land holdings of aliens to 90,000 square feet and also provides that no company having more than 20 per cent of the stock owned by aliens may hold real estate. In view of all this mass of alien land holding prohibition it is probable that concerted action will be taken within a few days for the closer union of all these states having similar laws and the agreement to take common action when necessary to secure federal policy in line with the state legislation. Information regarding Delaware only came in yesterday, when advices were received in Washington that the bill had become a law.

DICE OBEY CHILD, OFFICER BENEFITS

NEW YORK, April 15.—"Have you any children?" Harry Sherman, 12 years old, asked a policeman who had just arrested him on a charge of stealing from a 5 and 10-cent store. When the policeman said "yes," Harry handed him two $20 bills and said, with a generous gesture, "Here, buy them some presents." Upon being asked the source of his wealth, he explained it was craps. So now he has two charges instead of one to answer before the children's court.

British Organization Calls Off Walk-out Scheduled For Tonight When Mine Employes Refuse To Reopen Negotiations.

(By United Press to The Bend Bulletin.) LONDON, April 15.—The triple alliance strike set for tonight is called off, it is officially announced. The announcement followed Lloyd George's statement in the house of commons that the striking miners had renewed their original demands. This was taken to mean at first that efforts to effect a settlement had failed. The official announcement came a short time afterward. It was stated that cancellation of the general strike order is due to the fact that leaders of the triple alliance believed the miners were wrong in refusing to reopen negotiations for strike settlement.

TWO FREED ON THEFT CHARGE

KOOYMAN AND EVANS FOUND NOT GUILTY OF STEALING CALF—CATTLEMEN WERE MEMBERS OF JURY.

C. L. Evans and Jake Kooyman were last night declared not guilty by the jury's verdict in circuit court, where they have been on trial for two days, charged with stealing a calf from Seth Stookey. The jury was out a little less than three hours.

The presence of a number of cattlemen on the jury, and their consequent familiarity with conditions surrounding cases of the kind, was a feature of the trial. After the verdict was turned in, jurymen stated that they believed the calf was Stookey's, but that Evans and Kooyman acted in good faith in butchering it, under the supposition that it belonged to them.

According to the testimony brought out in the case, Evans and Kooyman took the calf, which was unbranded, from Stookey's corral in broad daylight. Later they turned it loose upon their range, then took it up again and butchered it. Stookey appeared on the scene of the butchering, it was testified, and took the hide and head.
