"We know nowadays that even a universal education . . . supplies only the basis for a healthy republican state. Next to education there must come abundant, prompt, and truthful information of what is going on in the state, and frank and free discussion of the issues of the times." H. G. Wells, "The Outline of History."

A CITY MANAGER

From time to time in the past few years The Bulletin has advocated a change in the form of the Bend city government from the present mayor and council form to the city manager plan. At one time we secured copies of the La Grande charter, providing for the commission-manager plan in that city, and offered them for the study of any interested. Last year the local Central Labor council discussed the advantages of this plan for Bend and at the same time The Bulletin urged the change. In short, we think we may say that we have consistently favored this change in our municipal government.

We call this especial attention to our stand in this matter because, in view of our differences with the present council on certain matters, we suppose what we have to say now will be maliciously misunderstood and misinterpreted. It will be said that our renewed interest in a change in government arises from a desire to get rid of the present council, when this is not the case. It simply happens that we have just had opened to us the opportunity of presenting a series of articles on the city manager plan that we think are interesting and important and that our readers should see.

The publication of these articles is to be begun in The Bulletin in the near future. We commend them to the attention of everyone interested in city affairs and especially to those who at any time have given thought to possible changes in our form of government. We believe that changes should be made. Our present charter is antiquated. It has been amended time and again. It has served its purpose and should be laid on the shelf.

The Central Labor council gave this subject the first serious consideration it has had in Bend. If the present council would take steps to bring the change about it would be rendering a real service.

All Must Stand Together.

Once we realize that we are all one, working together for the good of all; that each of us finds his prosperity and salvation in the advancement of all, then the whole business, as well as each individual, takes a distinct step forward.—Joseph H. Appel.

You can't afford to drive without it

The man who fails to take out Travelers Automobile Liability Insurance because he thinks he cannot afford it, certainly cannot afford to drive a car.
It takes infinitely more sacrifice to scrape together money enough to meet a $5,000 damage award, than it does to meet the reasonable sum we ask as premiums.
Take no chances on a heavy loss. Include your insurance as one of the necessary maintenance costs of your machine.

Lethe

Forget the symptoms of disease o'er which you're prone to cry a lack, those signs of stringhalt in your knees, and hints of cricks along your back; forgetting all such things as these, you'll be surprised how high you stack. For brooding over ailments dire may bring them to you, all in line; far better hear the woodland choir, or catch a fish where streamlets shine; far better buy a whalebone lyre, and turn out madrigals like mine. And talking of your divers ills is surely bound to make them worse; forget the doctor and his pills, the undertaker and his hearse, and walk along the sunlit hills, and chant a glad and grateful verse. He to the greatest age survives who doesn't let the briny pour, who romps and gambols with his wives, and shows his head is never sore; and if you talk of itch and hives, you only make yourself a bore. No dismal talkers are required in this, our mortal caravan; no lamentations are desired, no programs on the graveyard plan; forget the themes that make men tired, and be a sunbeam if you can. Forget the grief of yesterday, forget the ache you had last night; when people would be blithe and gay, the lonesome beeper is a fright; be joyful and when dusk is gray, the boys will cry, "Good scout! Sleep tight!"

PINE MEN HAVE NOT ASKED FOR TARIFF

(Bulletin Washington Bureau.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., June 14.—Lumber interests of the United States have not requested, and a majority do not desire, passage of the proposed 25 per cent ad valorem duty on finished lumber, adopted by the house ways and means committee, Donald D. Conn, representative of the northwestern pine interests, declared here.

Mr. Conn said the Southern Pine association, which produces 45 per cent of all lumber and 75 per cent of the pine cut in the United States; the Western Pine Manufacturers' association, the greatest pine producing association in the north, and the Northern Pine association, with its more than a score of mills in Wisconsin and Minnesota, have not asked the committee for a protective tariff on finished lumber.

An American Worker's Creed
"The Company for which I work is a mighty good employer and I think any employe who hasn't an interest in the success of his employer ought to quit or get fired. My idea is that when a man sells his services to an employer, he sells his loyalty at the same time. If he can't be loyal and give the best that is in him, he ought not to work for that particular employer. By being loyal I don't mean that one has to be a toady, or that he has to lose any of his independence. The most loyal may be the most independent, and usually is."
