

MERGE WORLD'S GOLD RESERVE, SAYS CROSEYER

HAS PLAN TO SOLVE BIG PROBLEM

U. S. NOW HOLDS HALF

International Authority On Finance and Law Says Disarmament Conference Will Develop Into a Permanent Association.

(By United Press to The Bend Bulletin.)

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—Merging the world's gold supply into a single reserve is the one solution of the international financial situation, according to Alfred Owen Croseyer.

Croseyer, an authority on money matters and international law, declared he thought the Washington conference will develop into a new and permanent association of nations.

Natural concentration of the world's gold will follow, he considers. Such a "super-reserve" would cause stabilization of international finance and commerce, prevent sudden inflations and deflations of domestic currency, would be self-financing, through interest and profits of the world bank, and would prevent future wars through curbing the nations' financing.

"The entire world's gold supply is $5,000,000,000," said Croseyer, "the United States holding about half."

(By United Press to The Bend Bulletin.)

ALBANY, Ore., Aug. 13.—Kuzman Ognjenovich isn't great shakes when it comes to speaking English, but when it comes to making whiskey—the universal tongue—he shines. He understands financial terms, however.

And he also gets caught. The Serbian was haled into court, charged with the illegal possession of intoxicating, very intoxicating, liquor.

"Guilty, or not guilty?" asked his zoner. "Koogly-bm-wuk-wigski," stammered the prisoner. "What's he saying?" the judge asked the sheriff. "I think he's trying to say he's guilty," suggested Sheriff Kendall, who discovered the still. District Attorney Lewelling, whose knowledge of Serbian is so little it's nothing, agreed with the sheriff.

PETITION ASKS DAILY SERVICE ON MAIL ROUTE

EXTENSION PROBABLE, SAYS HUDSON

TO ADD 65 FAMILIES

Movement Endorsed By Commercial Club and 50 Heads of Families Would Lengthen Grange Route 22 Miles To Include Alfalfa.

(By United Press to The Bend Bulletin.)

Daily mail service for the residents of the Alfalfa section, instead of three times a week office service now given, is contemplated in a petition prepared by W. H. Hudson, Bend postmaster, signed by half a hundred heads of families and endorsed by the Bend Commercial club. The petition is to be sent in to the postmaster-general at Washington, D. C., at once, Mr. Hudson says. He considers that there is virtually no chance of its being rejected, and believes that it should be granted and the new route in operation within two months at the most.

The daily route, which will mean delivery of mail at the very doors of every farm house in Alfalfa, is so planned as to take in eight families living within two miles of Bend, who at the present time must come all the way in to the Bend office for their mail. These farms are among the oldest in the country tributary to Bend, but for some reason have been left without adequate service, while others farther out were placed on rural routes.

Extend Grange Route.

Service for the Alfalfa section is not to be accomplished by an entirely new route, but rather by the extension of one already in existence, which now takes care of more than 100 families in the Grange section. The route at present is 28 miles in length, and in order to provide daily service for 65 more families, 22 miles will be added if the petition is granted.

The contemplated change means the elimination of the star route now existing between the Alfalfa postoffice and a point 10 miles from Bend, and may also result in the abandonment of the Alfalfa postoffice, although it is possible that this may be maintained as a convenience for the community.

WILL REPLACE BEND GARAGE

CONCRETE BUILDING CONTEMPLATED, SAYS ACTING HOTEL MANAGER—NO ANNOUNCEMENT OF PLANS RECEIVED.

The construction of a concrete garage building to replace the Bend garage building is contemplated, according to Acting Manager Wood of the Pilot Butte Inn. Nothing definite will be known, he stated, until the insurance is adjusted.

He denied the rumor that announcement of building plans was received from P. R. Brooks, owner of the property, yesterday, but thinks a concrete building will be erected. Insurance adjusters are expected to arrive from Seattle and Spokane Monday.

Feminine Frills Gave Thrill --Led to Brumfield's Arrest

(By United Press to The Bend Bulletin.)

PORTLAND, Aug. 13.—Dr. Samuel Kohs, expert criminal psychologist, declares Brumfield's desire to wear feminine underwear proved the alleged murderer's undoing. He declared desires for this sort of thing are a common characteristic of peculiar abnormal criminal tendencies.

Brumfield, a prominent Roseburg citizen, was unable to indulge such impulses there and attempted to do so when far away, among strangers. He sent a box to Seattle two days before the murder and, when he reached Calgary, sent to Seattle for the box, thus leading Roseburg authorities

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 13.—George W. Wickersham, former attorney general, will ask the United States supreme court to declare the Japanese a white race, entitling them to American citizenship. Wickersham will argue that the Japanese in the north are descendants from Ainus and in the south from the Yamato, both called Caucasian races.

SAVING MOTOR CARS BECOMES OLD STORY

Hugh Thompson Removed Father's Auto from Pioneer Garage Just In Time as Well as from The Bend

Saving cars from garage fires is getting to be an old story with Hugh Thompson, son of E. M. Thompson, of this city. Hugh prevented the destruction of his father's auto in the conflagration at the Bend garage Thursday night by requisitioning the machine to use in celebrating his birthday.

Less than a year ago he drove the car out of the Pioneer garage rather late one evening. An hour later the interior of the building was a raging furnace and firemen were risking their lives in the effort to prevent the spread of the flames.

The Thompson car was not returned in time for the general incineration.

AD MEN MUST MAKE CHOICE

WILL LOSE GAME DINNER IF THEY STAY AT KLAMATH FALLS UNTIL TUESDAY MORNING, SAYS CLARK.

Attempting to have the Portland Ad club party, which lunched at Grants Pass today on its tour of the state, to reverse its decision and plan to arrive in Bend early enough Tuesday so that they may be entertained, instead of remaining at Klamath Falls until that morning, A. G. Clark was this afternoon trying to get in touch with the party. He did not know whether they could be reached, as the phone line was out of order between here and The Dalles.

From Klamath Falls to Bend is a 10-hour drive for the stage, and the Ad club tourists, unfamiliar with the road, could never make it in that time, says Clark. "They must choose between Klamath Falls and Bend," he stated.

Sportsmen from this city are out after trout and sagehens for a game banquet, but this will be impossible if the Portlanders arrive after 9 o'clock Tuesday night. There are more than 50 in the party, in 12 or 14 cars.

STARMER WILL GO TO CALGARY FOR BRUMFIELD

Letter Ready For Mailing Describes Auto Accident Near Roseburg and Death of Companion—Roberts Would Learn of Route.

(By United Press to The Bend Bulletin.)

CALGARY, Aug. 13.—Dr. R. M. Brumfield broke down this afternoon and pleaded with Chief of Police Ritchie to rush him back to Roseburg to "face it all." He refuses to discuss the charge that he murdered Russell near Roseburg on July 12 in an attempt to collect insurance by posing as a dead man.

ROSEBURG, Aug. 13.—Sheriff Starmer of Roseburg is expected back from Reedsport today and probably will go to Calgary immediately to take Brumfield into custody. Officers of the Northwest Mounted police captured Brumfield without resistance when he came in from the fields where he had been working as a farm hand.

The man tried to insist that he was Norman Whitney, but under questioning broke down, admitting his identity as the man wanted in Roseburg for the Russell murder. He declined to make any statement.

He had a letter, evidently for mailing, describing an accident near Roseburg, when his companion was killed in a car wreck.

Mounted police effected the capture through tracing a box mailed from Lake Louise to Mrs. Norman Whitney of Roseburg.

Sheriff S. E. Roberts intends to find out from Sheriff Starmer, of Douglas county, whether or not Dr. R. M. Brumfield ever was in Central Oregon, he stated this morning on learning of the capture of the alleged Roseburg slayer in Calgary, Alberta. "I am going to ask Starmer to make a special attempt to ascertain just where Brumfield actually was after leaving Roseburg," Sheriff Roberts declared.

He pointed out that there would have been ample time for Brumfield to have passed through Deschutes county, as he was reported to have done, then double back north after reaching Lake county.

Chase of Long Duration. Sheriff Roberts was one of the most persistent hunters for Brumfield of the many Oregon officials who were on the lookout for the alleged killer. The chase was started in this section on July 18, when Deputy Sheriff Adams of Redmond reported that he had talked with Brumfield in that town on the preceding day.

Thereafter many reported catching fleeting glimpses of the fugitive, and interest was revived last week by the holdup near Crescent, which was generally blamed to Brumfield until the capture of a man and woman on Miller creek and another man at Fort Klamath disproved this theory.

For more than two weeks Douglas county deputies scoured the country between Fort Klamath and Crescent in the endeavor to locate Brumfield.

This, with 22 other contemplated improvements, is to be taken up at the commission's meeting in Portland, August 30.
