"We know nowadays that even a universal education supplies only the basis for a healthy republican state. Next to education there must come abundant, prompt, and truthful information of what is going on in the state, and frank and free discussion of the issues of the times." H. G. Wells, "The Outline of History."

ROAD PROGRESS

The announcement that the Highway commission has arranged with Klamath county for the grading of a 40 mile section of The Dalles-California highway south from the Deschutes county line ought to set definitely at rest the feeling that has been expressed from time to time that there was no intention to push forward with this work. Last year we called attention to the progress of this highway north from Klamath Falls at the time when a long section in Deschutes county was being improved. Now a further section in this county is under contract and we have the news of the link that will join it. At the same time the ground has been prepared for work in Wasco county to the north.

The Highway commission is composed of able and intelligent men who have the interests of the whole state at heart. Under the legislative act giving them their powers they have been directed to build a state system of highways and they are on the job. We believed that the commission, as formerly constituted, was inclined to delay on our eastern Oregon highways but there can surely be no complaint of the activities of the present board.

It may be that the present commission, if serving, say three years ago, would have proceeded just as the former did and finished the Pacific and Columbia highways before giving much attention to the roads this side of the mountains and that the construction we are now getting follows as a matter of course the completion of the first two. If this be the case we must admit we were wrong in criticising what seemed to be favoritism in the past. Whatever the fact is, however, we are now getting action and can look confidently forward to the completion of our main trunk highway. Completion, that is, up to the point of hard surface. In the desire for this final improvement The Bulletin is fully in accord but to secure it we must look to the people and the legislature to supply funds. The commission, we are satisfied will do all in its power when the funds are supplied.

Japanese "Trial by Ordeal."

Trial by ordeal still exists in some parts of Japan. If a theft takes place in a household, all the servants are required to write a certain word with the same brush. The conscience is supposed to betray its workings in the waves of the ideographs written.
 Tracing an ideograph involves such an effort to muscular directness and undivided attention that this device often leads to the discovery of the guilty person.

How It Sounded to Him.

When little Billy returned from Sunday school I asked him about what they had sung. Among numerous other things he mentioned that they had sung an automobile song. Answering my inquiries, he said: "Well, anyway, it was about going to our home on high."—Exchange.

Every Small Boy Knows It.

The man who first loved a dog—probably a puppy which he had taken from its mother's lap—placed mankind under a profound obligation for all time. We can imagine the sense of friendly security which the presence and the fidelity of that puppy, grown up to doghood, gave that primitive man.—Svetozar Tonjoroff in the Boston Herald.

 ters of Thomas Burke.

etic landscapes of any of the countries into which he has wandered.
 With the actors you seem to roam through the diamond dusk of strange old alleys, with their dirt and their perfumes and the odd life goes jangling through the shadows.

With the queer sardonic Chinaman you tread stealthy stairways that seem to creak with memories and confessions or, with Gypsy Fair, the adorable little dancer, you trip measures in the sunshine of broad walks and little courtyards.

There is always something interesting and distinctive about Griffith's "sets" but those of "Dream Street" have a charm that is beyond description. "Dream Street" will be the feature at the Liberty Theatre beginning Thursday, August 25.
