BE CHARITABLE.—Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such a one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted. —Gal. 6:1.

SUPPORT THE BOARD
 With all due respect to the several hundred people who gathered at the gymnasium last night "to discuss the school situation" The Bulletin maintains that there is nothing to discuss beyond the question of whether the disciplinary measures adopted by Miss Umbaugh in punishment for the high school revolt are sufficient. We agree that this takes for granted that there was no justification for the walk-out. That we think is not arguable. Whenever the pupils in our schools begin to think that they can run them, select their own teachers and dictate to the school board there can be no argument. There is just one thing to do and that is to disabuse them of the idea.

In some quarters there is dislike of and dissatisfaction with Superintendent Moore. The persons who have this feeling have seized the present occasion as an opportunity of forcing him out when, as a matter of fact, the question of his competence or incompetence has absolutely no bearing on the situation. Undoubtedly he was at odds with Mr. Paulson last spring. That fact, however, had nothing to do with the board's dismissal of Mr. Paulson. The present issue should be settled without dragging in Superintendent Moore.

So far as the question of the board's justification in discharging Mr. Paulson is concerned the only persons in position to question it are tax payers. They may reasonably inquire whether the board was right because of the liability in damages that will affect them, if it was wrong. To do so, however, they should come to the board and discuss the question around a table. They should not discuss it, as it was discussed last night, as a grievance of the pupils.

The school board, let us remember, is charged with the administration of a considerable investment and the responsibility of so administering that investment that it will produce the best educational results for the children of the district. We have had no complaint that it was failing in these duties. It is a thankless task, as we have said before, and the part of good citizenship at this time is to give the board the support to which it is entitled.

SINCE the war we all know where Cracow, Galicia, is but who knows that in A. D. 1377 this town was celebrated for making felt hats and shoes. The illustration shows the arms of the Cracow Hatters' Guild in 1377—it stood for good hats.

The Gordon crest stands for the best there is in hats today.

The Accident

Oh, jings, how sick a driver feels, when he looks down and sees a voter tangled in his wheels, with mangled hat and knees! He looks down through remorseful tears, and sheds magenta sweat, and though he live a hundred years, he never will forget. At most times he's a thoughtful cuss, who scans the road with care, as he propels his foaming bus adown the thoroughfare. But now a neighbor with him rides, and he would show her speed, and open wide the throttle slides, and she saws wood, indeed. She madly rips around a curve, and there the voter stands; it is too late, alas, to swerve, and on his frame she lands. The poor pedestrian lies flat upon the dusty lea; the ruins of his Sunday hat are pitiful to see. The crown is dented here and there, the brim is badly torn, and never, on a Sabbath fair, can it again be worn. The voter, borne upon a door, is taken to the town, and babbles of the hat he wore, when he was stricken down. Oh, never may you know the pain of such a scene, I pray, and never may your gilded wain run down some hapless jay. Leave black remorse to t'other chaps, nor know the pangs they feel, and never let your caution lapse when you are at the wheel.

PREMIUM LISTS FOR FAIR GIVEN

Premium lists for the Deschutes county fair and Redmond potato show which have been received in Bend show the usual list of prizes for live stock and agricultural products. The third day of the fair, Friday, October 14, is designated as Bend day. Anyone wishing a copy of the list may secure it by application at The Bulletin office.

RED CROSS SHOP PROVING SUCCESS

The report of the Red Cross shop activities since August 1, shows that $50 has been cleared in that time, above all expenses, including room rent and moving charges. A check for that amount has been turned over to the Home Service section.

A new plan to be begun now is the women's exchange, in which the Red Cross shop will handle canned goods on a 10 per cent commission, and all kinds of needlework. The shop is always ready to receive any contribution, and also welcomes offers of any who will assist in conducting the shop. They should telephone to Mrs. W. G. Newton. It now has a good stock on hand, and since moving into its new quarters is much better arranged than it was formerly.

MUST PAY TAXES BY WEDNESDAY EVENING

Tomorrow is the last day for the payment of taxes if the penalty is to be avoided, Chief Deputy Sheriff C. T. Terrell emphasized today. He urged the importance of avoiding penalization.

The sweetest day of the Year!

OPENING EXISTS IN THE FOREST SERVICE

Examination For Rangers To Be Held October 23—Only One Eligible Remains On List.

An examination for forest rangers will be held October 23 in the offices of the Deschutes National forest.

Only one man's name remains on the list of eligibles for this work in Oregon, which gives a good opportunity for young men of the proper qualifications to enter the forest service, announced Supervisor H. L. Plumb this morning.

Application blanks may be secured at the forest office or from the civil service commission.

Lucky? Why, man, I'm the Human Horseshoe!

I CERTAINLY was born.
 UNDER A lucky star.
 FOR INSTANCE the time,
 I HOCKED my bonds.
 TO PLAY the market.
 ON A sure thing tip.
 AND BOUGHT Slippery Ellum.
 AT SEVENTY-TWO,
 FOR A healthy rise.
 AND FOR seven days,
 I HUGGED the ticker.
 AND COULDN'T sleep.
 ONCE IT jumped two points.
 AND I walked on air.
 AND THAT very day,
 I SAW a sign.
 IN A clear stand.
 THAT SAID "Satisfy."
 IT GAVE me a hunch.
 TO BE satisfied.
 WITH WHAT I'd got.
 AND NOT hog the deal.
 SO I phoned my broker.
 TO SELL me out.
 AND THE very next day,
 SLIPPERY ELLUM slipped,
 TO FIFTY-FIVE.
 SO NOW I've gotten,
 BACK MY bonds.
 AND BABY'S got new shoes.
 AND NOW my regular smokes,
 ARE THE cigarettes.
 THAT "SATISFY."

WHENEVER you get that "Satisfy" hunch, play it. Steer straight for the nearest stand and invest in Chesterfields. This combination of fine Turkish tobaccos, blended with Burley and other Domestic leaf, will give you a new measure of cigarette enjoyment. You're in luck from that day on.

Hint To Campers---

When you leave that campfire, brother, Put it out!
 It is apt to breed another— Put it out!
 Forest fires start from little When the woods are dry and brittle, So when you remove the kittle Put it out!
 Do not leave one spark to smolder— Put it out!
 One small spark will soon grow bolder— Put it out!
 One small spark may prove a whale; There, when you hit the trail, Down it with a water pail— Put it out!
