OLD TWO MASTER FINE FILM STAGE

The schooner "Deborah" used for making the "at sea" scenes in Goldwyn's all-star picture "Godless Men," a Reginald Barker production, is an honest to goodness seafaring vessel. It will weather most any sea and has done duty for several years sailing all waters on the Pacific, including several trade trips to the South Sea Islands. It also has two sister ships now in trade duty, one in Alaska and the other in the South Pacific.

This schooner used for the "Godless Men" scenes carries two masts. It is under the command of Captain Andrew Olson, a mariner of forty years experience who is widely known on the west coast as one of the most reliable and trustworthy men to handle a ship. This was appreciated by the Goldwyn company of players when they were one day caught in a squall while working thirty miles away from mainland. The captain has a crew of seven men and a cook. "Godless Men" comes to Liberty theatre, Wednesday and Thursday.

LICENSE MARKET IS INFALLIBLE GUIDE

Superintendent of Motor Vehicle Department Always Knows Where His Men Are Operating.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Oct. 25.—The response which the fair maid accords to her wooing swain is not less spontaneous than that which meets and greets highway patrol officers in this state when they start probing into the little delicate matter of motor vehicle licenses.

R. Franklin Hart, superintendent of the department of licenses, motor vehicle division, declares he needs no report from his field men in order to learn their whereabouts. Their location is indicated with unswerving accuracy by the applications for licenses which pour in from the sections where they may be concentrating their effort.

CRUISE OF OREGON TO BE DESCRIBED

SALEM, Oct. 25.—Lewis Hopkins Bogars, a New York lawyer, has presented to the state of Oregon, through Sam A. Koser, secretary of state, manuscript consisting of between 80,000 and 100,000 words and more than 100 photographs descriptive of the eventful five-year cruise of the U. S. S. battleship Oregon around the world, upon condition that the state publish the same in book form.

Many "Treasure Islands." A large number of islands in various parts of the world have had the reputation of holding buried treasure. Stevenson's "Treasure Island" had no foundation in fact, but is stated to be the real result of his reading of stories by Defoe, Washington Irving and Poe, also Johnson's "Lives of Pirates and Highwaymen," supplemented by his own experience on sailing ships. Stevenson himself said that the germ of the story was the map drawn for the wall of his stepson's playroom.

It never rains but it pours!

IT WAS "company night"
BUT WHEN I got home,
I FOUND the Browns,
HAD A sick baby,
AND COULDN'T come,
SO I chortled "Oh, joy,
WON'T SUE and I have,
SWELL EATS for two!"
BUT NO, Sue said,
"YOU DON'T suppose,
I'D WASTE all this food,
JUST ON you!"
AND SO I said,
"LET'S PHONE the Smiths."
BUT THEY had headaches,
THEN WE tried the Joneses,
AND THEY fell for it,
AND WHEN grub for four,
WAS JUST about ready,
THE PHONE bell tinkled,
AND THE Brown baby was better,
AND A minute later,
THE SMITHS changed their mind,
AND THE Missus fainted,
"OH, WELL," I said,
"THE MORE the merrier,
WHAT'S THE difference?
IF THERE isn't enough food,
I'LL FEED the males,
ON THE cigarettes that satisfy,
AND YOU women can talk,
AND BETWEEN the two,
WE'LL ALL be Satisfied."

To Preserve Famous Trees.
The National Geographic society recently presented the United States government with the title to the last 640 acres of land which complete the "big tree" stands forming Sequoia national park. The park, established to preserve the most massive trees in the world from being converted into lumber, totals 1,916 acres. It was purchased in three sections, during 1916, 1920 and 1921, for a total of $146,330, only $50,000 of which was contributed by the government. The remainder was contributed by the members of the National Geographic society, their friends, and by a tax levy of Tulare county, California.—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

His Camping Trip.
"I suppose you enjoyed some wonderfully quiet nights while on your camping trip."
"Quiet nothing!" snorted the tired business man. "Between the chirping of the chickens and the tinlike solos of a party of college boys in the next camp I never closed an eye!"

Winter Months and Cold Nights Coming!

The old oil in the crank case is dirty and gritty. The summer grade of oil is worn out, and too heavy for winter use. This dirty and heavy oil causes the motor to start hard, puts an extra strain on the battery and starting motor, all of which tend to cause serious trouble later.

Oil should be changed and crank case cleaned at least every 500 miles to keep your motor at highest efficiency.

We clean and flush your crank case, put in the proper grade of oil for your motor, on the street, in your own garage or any place in the city at a cost to you of 50c and, the price of oil used.

You will be surprised at the renewed vigor of your car after we have cleaned it, and replaced the oil with the proper grade for winter driving.

Call 140-W and we are on the job.

Better'n an Ice Wagon.
When two little Irish boys asked a woman in an electric machine for a ride, she looked into the upturned dirty faces and couldn't resist. While driving to the street they had designated they sat perfectly still with eyes focused straight ahead, but when they got out she heard one say: "Gee, that's better'n ridin' a ice wagon, hain't it?"

Sensitive Instrument.
The instrument known as the radiometer is so sensitive that it will measure the heat from a hand held thirty feet away from it and will record the heat given off by a fixed star so remote that light from it, traveling at a speed of 186,000 miles a second, takes many years to reach us.
