Roy Mitchell works the year round in the forest. He is a ranger, in charge of the station at Fort Rock. When his annual vacation rolls round, Roy hikes for the bright lights of the city—not. Mitchell is expected to arrive in Bend tonight, bringing his wife, who will take the train for her family home at Milton. After seeing her on the train the ranger, according to plans previously announced, will hit the trail for Klamath Marsh, on a deer hunt.

CLEANUP SQUAD HEARS CLAIMS

NEW EXAMINING OFFICER JOINS SQUAD HERE—SERVICE MEN RECEIVING ADJUSTMENT OF MANY TROUBLES.

The Oregon cleanup squad, arriving on its second visit to Bend last night, is today hard at work disposing of the ex-service men's claims coming before it in the offices of Mrs. V. A. Forbes of the Home Service section, Red Cross. Many war veterans are taking advantage of the best opportunity to get their claims adjusted which has been offered since the war ended. They will be here tomorrow all day. Dr. O. Edwards, examining officer, joined the squad here last night, and is conducting examinations in the office of Dr. H. C. Dodds in the O'Donnell building. Other members of the squad are Cliff Wood, in charge of compensation and insurance, William P. Wise, formerly advance agent but now handling vocational training, and W. Snook, representing the American Legion. Dr. P. R. Brenton accompanied the squad as examining officer until they arrived here, but he was taken sick, and will not be able to continue, Edwards taking his place.

STATE AID MAY BE USED IN PURCHASE

Veterans' state aid may be borrowed on one piece of property and the money used to purchase or improve other property, according to advice received by Mrs. V. A. Forbes of the Home Service Section, Red Cross, for the information of ex-service men in this vicinity. This was one of the points not previously made plain by the commission. The announcement comes from Secretary H. C. Brumbaugh.

INCOMES MAKE BIG JUMP IN FIVE YEARS, BUT DOLLAR'S BUYING POWER IS REDUCED

(By United Press to The Bend Bulletin.) NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—The total national income of the United States in 1918 was 61 billion dollars, as compared with 34.4 billions in 1913. But this increase in dollars did not represent a like increase in production. Most of it was due to the rise in prices, for the dollar of 1918 and 1919 was a much less efficient dollar than that of 1913. The actual total of commodities produced increased very little, if at all, and a large part of those which were produced were war materials, not of a kind really benefiting consumers. Consequently, individual incomes, estimated on a per capita basis, rising from $340 in 1910 and $354 in 1913, to $584 in 1918, represented more dollars but little or no real increase because the $584 of 1918 is equivalent to only $372 in terms of the purchasing power of 1913.

HONOR IS PAID W. C. BIRDSALL BY ELKS LODGE

What Wallace C. Birdsall's place had been in the community was well attested this afternoon by the number who attended the impressive services provided by the Elks' ritual, held in the lodge hall. In addition to the friends of the man for whom the last tokens of respect were offered, many schoolmates of Warren Birdsall, the son, attended. Brief graveside services at Pilot Butte cemetery concluded the ceremony. Rev. J. Edgar Purdy, pastor of the Methodist church, delivered the funeral sermon, and a glowing tribute to the virtues of the "absent brother" was paid by H. H. De Armond, after Secretary C. T. Terrill had called the name of Wallace C. Birdsall. Exalted Ruler T. E. J. Duffy presided at the services, and each of the hundred lodge members in attendance, filing by the casket, murmured a "peace be with you," as he added the purple flower he had worn during the services to the mass of floral offerings.

The Elks entered the hall to the strains of "Auld Lang Syne," and in the march past the casket, "Nearer My God to Thee" was played. "Lead Kindly Light," by a mixed quartet composed of Louis Bennett, Mrs. Glen Goodman, Mrs. M. E. Bonnalie, and Charles G. Wilson, "Abide With Me," sung by Miss Virginia Stewart, and "The Vacant Chair," by a male quartet having as its members Dr. L. W. Galchell, Charles W. Erskine, Mr. Bennett, and Mr. Wilson, were other musical numbers given during the service. Pall bearers were H. K. Brooks, E. P. Mahaffey, H. E. Allen, C. A. Hayden, L. O. Taylor, A. M. Pringle, H. J. Overturf, S. E. Roberts, J. A. Easton, T. H. Foley, J. Edward Larson and A. Whisman.

LABOR LEADERS ARE PESSIMISTIC JAIL IS SUGGESTED

If Mail Is Tied Up, Union Chiefs May Be Prosecuted, Department of Justice Indicates—Basis of Agreement Difficult.

(United Press Staff Correspondent) CHICAGO, Oct. 27.—With indications today that the railroad labor board would hold the unions responsible for the threatened strike, Ben Hooper, vice chairman of the board, and a member of the board's public group, informed the union heads that the labor board would not consider any further petitions for wage cuts until its present business has been disposed of.

"All of the rules, and working conditions cases must have action before we will consider any further wage cuts," Hooper told the union chiefs. "The executives promise that they will not cut wages further without the board's sanction. If you strike, the strike will be based solely on last July's 12 per cent cut, a small percentage of the total increases granted during the war." Hooper also indicated that the government was prepared to take the strike case to the courts if the railroad men persisted in walking out. The union chiefs left Hooper's conference with stern faces.

(By United Press to The Bend Bulletin.) LEAD, S. D., Oct. 27.—Searchers with bloodhounds found no trace today of the murderer of Father Belknop, killed last night half an hour after he had been summoned to the bedside of a dying man. ### MAIN EVENT BOUT IN PORTLAND DRAW

(By United Press to The Bend Bulletin.) PORTLAND, Oct. 27.—The Heilig (istic) headliner here last night was a contest to see which would last the longer—Abe Mishkind's jaw or Frisco Frankie Farren's good right arm. Referee Gruman decided one was as good as the other. Joe Harrahan and Johnny Trambitas fought to a sickly finish in their semi-windup, when the referee threw Trambitas from the ring for stalling. Freddie Williams, of Boston, shaded Neil Zimmerman in six rounds, Mike Dopinto beat George Brandon, and Carl Martin trimmed Frankie Warren in the curtain raiser.

JAPANESE DECIDE TO LEAVE SIBERIA

(By United Press to The Bend Bulletin.) TOKIO, Oct. 27.—Tokio newspapers all carried stories today reporting the Japanese cabinet's decision to evacuate Siberia. They stated that arrangements for the evacuation have been completed.

MEETING IS SECRET

CHICAGO, Oct. 27.—Labor leaders are pessimistic as to the ability of the railroad labor board to avert the strike on a basis agreeable to both sides. Ben Hooper, the board's vice chairman, member of the public group, was in secret session with union chiefs today in a final effort to bring peace to the railroad situation. The result of the meeting yesterday was the labor chiefs' standing pat on their decision not to call off the strike, even though the board ordered it, unless the board could suggest a satisfactory settlement.

MAY SERVE INJUNCTION

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—The department of justice indicated today that it may jail the union chiefs if they cause a mail and interstate commerce tieup by refusing to rescind the strike call. Attorney General Daugherty has authority to obtain injunctions restraining the unions from tying up the country. Failure to observe such injunctions would mean contempt of court.
