Side Talk No. 6

Side Talk No. 5 was intended for a little fun. It was one on me all right, and if the next one hits you, don't get hot under the collar and want to fight—for I am like Bryan—believe in peace at almost any price.

THE BEND COMMERCIAL CLUB—Twelve months ago I came out with a card entitled, "Join the Commercial Club with Reservations." After the way in which they have bungled up that Benham Falls proposition, I am ready to quit without Reservations. Gentlemen, you are welcome to my $25 membership dues—but you must give me an itemized account to show me what good my money has done. Go straight ahead, if you know where you are going to.

Yours for the good of Bend,
C. J. LEVERETT.

P. S.—I handle farm lands as well as city property. Have $1,000 lot to trade for residence; will pay difference. Also have Hood River farm to trade for Bend property.

OFFICE, 1033 BOND STREET.

WEST UNIT WOULD BECOME DISTRICT

John H. Kollock, of Portland, attorney for the settlers of the West Unit, today filed with County Clerk J. H. Haner the petition for a district organization election. When formed the new organization is to be known as the West Side Irrigation district. The unit includes lands in Deschutes and Jefferson counties.

Kollock went to Prineville later in the day to attend to business in connection with the suit filed against Twohy Bros. by the Ochoco project land holders.

BEND WINNER
OVER MADRAS

MCNEELEY MAKES TWO TOUCH-DOWN OF 13-0 SCORE PILED UP AGAINST HARD FIGHTING UNCOACHED VISITORS.

Before some 200 fans, the Bend high school team this afternoon defeated the Madras eleven on the local gridiron by a score of 13-0. McNeely took the ball over in the first quarter after it had been pushed steadily to within striking distance of the Madras line, and Kohfield kicked goal. In the third quarter McNeely again scored with a cross buck after two sensational end runs.

Bend took the offensive for the better part of the game, but contended against a hard fighting, although virtually uncoached eleven.

"The People Won't Buy"

That's what the stone-age merchant whines all the time.

Great Scott!! Of course they won't if they don't have the right clothes at the Right Price.

These are differet times and it takes live methods to get there.

That's why we are selling more suits, overcoats and mackinaws, by thrice the amount than last year.

That's why business keeps bumping ahead every day.

Bigger assortment-lower prices keep things on the hum here right along.

We haven't the time to whine. We're kept busy.

Maintaining Community Credit

In the protection of their depositors banks perform a service that is of great value to the whole community. They are instinctively sensitive about maintaining the reputation and credit of the community at a high level.

The bonds issued by state, county and local subdivisions bring a higher price and are maintained at par by good banking.

A community without banks finds it hard sometimes to market bonds even for a perfectly feasible and meritorious project.

Banks are not interested in the sale of securities at heavy discounts and if freely consulted about issues would often prevent losses to the taxpayers.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF BEND maintains a department to consult with its customers or intending investors in securities that are backed by the community credit.
