Would You Care?

To defend a damage suit?
To see your name in the paper as the "defendant"?
To pay out your good dol-lars to lawyers?
To dig down into your jeans for $10,000 or $20,000 to set-tle the damage award?
Of course you wouldn't!

Yet if you are driving your automobile without Travelers Automobile Insurance there's nothing to prevent these mis-fortunes from happening to you at any time.

It only takes one little ac-cident to start a lot of trouble.

But one of our good Trav-ers Policies will protect you.

CAR STALLS, OWNER TAKES LONG WALK

J. D. Donovan Trudges Six Miles Through Heavy Mud To Get Aid After Unsuccessful Duck Hunt.

His car stalled six miles above Pringle Falls, J. D. Donovan trudged through heavy mud carrying pitch torch on a piece of bark last night, making his way through inky dark-ness to the home of William Brown at the falls, and securing aid. Dono-van lays his trouble to the fact that he had neglected to provide his car with chains.

The trip had been started early in the morning with Ronald Sellars and James Bond, a duck hunt on the upper Deschutes being the objective. Not a single bird was bagged, Dono-van stated.
