AWNINGS

Why is it necessary to wait until someone has hurt himself severely before changing a condition that threatens danger so long as it exists?
The awnings that hang over the sidewalks in the business section are almost every one too low to permit a person of ordinary height to pass without bending to save his hat from being knocked off and of late even the iron frames on which the awnings are hung have been allowed, in some cases, to drop and make a real obstruction over the walk.

More than one pedestrian has run into these awning frames and at least one man was severely injured Saturday night on Wall street. The owners of the buildings, apparently, are not interested to improve such conditions of their own volition and the only thing left to do is for the council to enforce the ordinance that will bring about a removal of these dangerous obstructions.

Surely a person walking along the street ought not to be called on to guard himself against such dangers.
As things are today, however, he must do so. Will the council make this unnecessary?

A BOY'S THANKSGIVING DINNER

An eight-year old lad was asked to write what he considered a good dinner bill-of-fare for Thanksgiving, and here it is:

- First course—Mince pie.
 - Second course—Pumkin pie and ter-key.
 - Third course—Lemon pie, terkey, cranberries.
 - Fourth course—Custard pie, apple pie, mince pie, chocolate cake, ice cream, plum pudding.
 - * Desert—"pie."
- Oklahoma Farmer Stockman.

Every time we have one of these rail tie-ups it becomes clearer that we cannot be sure of uninterrupted communication with Columbia valley points until there is a boat line running on the Deschutes. Who will start it?

The county valuation is creeping up, going over $9,000,000 this year.
It will have to keep on going too if we are to have enough bonding capacity to hard surface our roads.

Old Friends

As down the slope a pilgrim wends, where every bramble scores him, he rather dreads to meet old friends—their conversation bores him. Few gaze upon him and exclaim: "You're looking hunkydory!
You have the same old stalwart frame, your locks are far from hoary! Your step is bold, your back uncurved, you still are spry and handy; you certainly are well preserved, you surely are a dandy!" Few talk in such a pleasant strain when on the pike they meet you; your aspect seems to cause them pain, and with a sign they greet you. "And so you're bald," they grimly say, "who once had raven tresses; and your complexion, sallow-gray, your breaking up confesses. And you are bent, oh Gaffer Jones, you're doped with pills and lotion; we hear the creaking of your bones when they are set in motion. When last we saw you, years ago, you were the living wonder, and you could lay the fighters low, and pin the wrestlers under. You hobble o'er the paving stones, your face is most forbidding; your knees are spavined, Gaffer Jones, your feet are always skidding." The pilgrim, in his weary walk, would have no old friends present, for that's the way old comrades talk, and it's a way unpleasant.

ant consisting of songs, recitations and miscellaneous numbers will be given at 1:30 o'clock.
The Central school program, which will be given in the high school auditorium at 3:15 o'clock, consists of a "Welcome" number by the first grade, "The Day after Thanksgiving," by the first grade, a dramatized song by Miss Dutt's room, the Pilgrims' story in pantomime by the 4A and 5B classes, with a Dutch dance by the 3rd grade and an Indian dance by the 4th grade and announcements and recitation by Minnie Hoover. In closing, a concert recitation will be given by the 5th and 6th grades.

In Another Sense.
She—"Before we were married you said you couldn't do enough for me." He—"Well, I guess time has proved that I was right."

The Vast Difference

In the methods of banking in the year 1620 and those of nowadays is one of the many things to be thankful for this Thanksgiving Day.

Without the splendid conveniences and assistance of the modern bank, our forefathers were compelled to utilize any hiding place that would secrete their savings.

Now you can come to this bank and place your savings in its care with perfect assurance of safety. The convenience of a checking account is at your command.
Money placed in savings earns 4 per cent interest.

A safety deposit box may be had, at a very small expense, where your valuables will be safe from theft or fire.

May we suggest that on Thanksgiving Day each one of us think only of the things we have to be thankful for.
If this is done we feel certain most of us will find many bright spots in life that have been hidden by unnecessary shadows.
