O. A. C. MEN TAKE TUMALO RANCHES

Ranches on the Tumalo project have been purchased by George F. Thompson, C. L. Clark and Oscar Berglund, ex-service men who have been taking vocational training in the agricultural department at O. A. C., from J. B. Miner, who is in charge of final instruction for this district. These men came to Bend from Corvallis on the last train before the tie-up, and have been looking over the land on the Tumalo project, deciding yesterday to purchase. More men are coming soon to settle near here under the same arrangement, Miner announces.

JAILBREAKER IS STILL AT LARGE

Fred Stevens, alleged moonshiner, who escaped from the Redmond jail Sunday night, continues at large, Sheriff S. E. Roberts reports. Tracks which the man left were followed yesterday, and where last seen indicated that the man was still running, Roberts said.
