GETTING AN EDUCATION

We have received from Eugene a news story concerning the number of students that are working their way through college there. We might take this and enlarge upon the point it makes, write a lot about self help, about getting a college education if you want one, and so on. Instead of doing that, however, we reprint the article here as it came and let our readers find all these lessons for themselves. The lessons are there.

The article follows:
 "There are 531 students at the University of Oregon who get no money from home, who make every cent their education is costing them, who are proving that it is possible for any young man or woman with energy and determination to get a college education. Undeterred by empty pockets, these students through summer labor and spare time jobs at Eugene are buying their clothes and books and paying for their laundry and their board. No job is too humble or too difficult. They support themselves doing a multitude of homely tasks. Study and toil are linked in close companionship.

"Of these, 127 are freshmen, 110 sophomores, 111 juniors, 85 seniors, 44 specials, and 42 graduate students. Four hundred and four are men, and 127 are women. In addition, there are 429 men and 203 women who are partly self-supporting.

"There is an enrollment this year of 2010 in the University. These statistics show, therefore, that there are 25 per cent partly self-supporting. This, too, in a year of unusual economic depression.

"The old adage that where there's a will there's a way, seems not to have lost its truth."

In the six hour distribution of nearly two weeks' mail successfully undertaken yesterday, the Bend post-office has established a truly enviable record.

HEAVY RAINS BURST SQUAW CREEK DAM

CLOVERDALE, Dec. 2.—S. F. Cyrus, E. Krall, A. Settre are working on the old dam on Squaw creek this week fixing it up so we can get water into the canal for winter use.

The new concrete dam went out during the heavy rains last week. This is a big loss to the Squaw Creek Irrigation district, it having only been built about two years.

Mrs. G. Reiling entertained a few of her friends Saturday evening. The evening was pleasantly spent in playing games, singing etc.

Black Bros. were business visitors in Bend Saturday.

Harold Kline of Bend spent Thanksgiving day here with his parents Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Kline.

The arrival of mail from the outside has been eagerly watched for these days. We still have our daily mail stage service from Redmond but owing to the snow blockade at Frieda no outside mail can come in.

Thomas Arnold was transacting business in Bend Thursday.

F. M. Lantz of Redmond spent Sunday at his home here.

George F. Cyrus was a business visitor in Redmond Monday.

H. C. Miller is in Bend this week visiting his daughter Mrs. Dean Van Matre.

Mrs. I. Parberry came in from the

Rippling Rhymes

On Foot

Pedestrians are often sinners, against the laws; they're much to blame, when choo-choo wagons, made by tippers, collide with them and knock them lame. The motorists get roasts a-plenty, and they are fined and placed in hock, when they've run down some eight or twenty cheap sports who don't know how to walk; who dodge around among the buses, and laugh all traffic rules to scorn, until the moral driver cusses and wonders why they e'er were born. Just now we are exhorting drivers to end the present reign of fear, so there may be a few survivors when next the census men appear. And I exhort the walking voters to bear in mind the rules of Hoyle, and not run down defenseless motors, and make the blood of chauffeurs boil. When someone's hurt the crowds assemble, attracted by the sick'ning thud, and straightway make the welkin tremble, demanding some poor driver's blood. But it may be the hapless driver is innocent of breaking laws; yet he is pinched and fined a stiver—perhaps a stretch in jail he draws. And it may be the fellow stricken has broken all the rules in sight, has jay-walked till his course would sicken all true defenders of the right. And so, while we are loudly preaching to those who drive along the street, methinks we shouldn't fail in teaching the walkers how to wield their feet.

Silica mines Monday and will spend several days here on the ranch.
 Mrs. J. L. Parberry and daughter Miss Gladys are moving this week back onto their ranch recently vacated by Ralston's.
 Ellis Edgington of Sisters was a business visitor in our community Tuesday afternoon.
 B. C. Kline, E. M. Peck, and R. O. Andrus were Bend visitors Tuesday.
 Alan Harrington of Sisters was a Sunday visitor at W. Harrison's.
 E. M. Peck and wife spent Sunday evening at R. O. Andrus'.
 Alvin Cyrus spent the Thanksgiving holidays at his home here.
 Mr. Chorus purchased Mr. Lantz's team, wagon and harness last week. Thomas Arnold delivered a fat hog into Bend Saturday.
 Miss Thelma Eilers spent her Thanksgiving holidays in Bend.
 W. F. Arnold and Mr. and Mrs. Van Landint went to Hampton Butte on business Tuesday.
 In spite of the disagreeable weather the E. M. Ralston sale on Monday was quite well attended. Mr. Ralston has a position at the Silica mines, where he will work this winter.
 We regret their going but wish Mr. and Mrs. Ralston success in their new venture.
 The ladies of the community will meet with Mrs. E. M. Peck on Wednesday December 7 at 10 a. m.
 Miss Comegys, home demonstrator is expected to be with us and give instructions in the cutting of patterns and finishings in dressmaking.
 Mrs. F. M. Lantz and children moved to Redmond this week where Mr. Lantz has been employed for some time at carpenter work.
 S. E. Kline returned from Portland Wednesday on the relief train sent down from Bend.

Bits of Splendor

Plain wide satin ribbon and narrow fancy ribbons, with handsome metal-lic mounts, are used to make these elegant shopping bags. Ribbons in the richest qualities and most brilliant patterns are chosen for them and they are lined with gay and equally good silks. Besides being bits of the splendor dear to women these bags have the additional value that belongs to a gift made by its donor.

Efficiency in the Kitchen.
 "This thing of being efficient is all right," observes an expert, "but it can be carried to extremes. I know a young couple who landed in divorce court—all because they were trying to plan an efficiency kitchen and couldn't agree on whether the stove or the sink was the center of activity."—Fred Kelly in the Nation's Business.

It pays to make your meaning clear

AWAY BACK in
 "THEM GOOD old days,"
 THE STORY goes,
 THAT AN elderly female,
 WHO WAS violently
 OPPOSED TO the hootch,
 ENTERED A street-car,
 IN WHICH there sat
 A MAN evidently ossified,
 SHE CALLED the conductor,
 AND CRIED indignantly,
 "DO YOU allow DRUNKARDS IN this car?"
 AND HE replied,
 "JUST MOVE over, ma'am,
 NEXT TO that other one.
 AND NOBODY
 WILL EVER notice you."
 NOW I suppose,
 THERE ARE cigarettes,
 THAT KINDA get
 LOST IN the shuffle,
 AND NOBODY gives 'em
 ANY SPECIAL notices,
 BUT NOT my brand,
 NO, SIR,
 FOR TASTE and aroma,
 YOU CAN'T beat 'em,
 AND THEY'RE mild—yes,
 AND YOU'LL never
 MISTAKE THEM,
 BECAUSE THE "Satisfy-blend,"
 CAN'T BE copied.

LET'S make this perfectly clear. Chesterfield cigarettes "Satisfy," because they contain exceptionally fine Turkish tobaccos, blended with Burley and other high-grade Domestic tobaccos. They're like no other cigarettes, because that blend can't be copied. Chesterfields do what no others can—and no cigarette could do more.
