

SOCIETY

(By Laura Gatchell, Phone 147-M.)

Notes for publication in the social column in the Saturday issue of The Bulletin must be in not later than 5:30 o'clock on the afternoon of the day preceding.

The charity ball given by the Elks at their club rooms Tuesday evening proved to be a most delightful social function, over 500 guests being present.

Owing to lack of train service, the committee in charge were forced to dispense with the elaborate decorations and a number of special features planned for the occasion but an orchestra of five pieces with Wilson George at the piano furnished splendid music during the evening and beautiful lighting effects added to the charm of special dances. Following the impressive Elks' service at 11 o'clock a ladies quartette composed of the Misses Marie Brosterhouse, Virginia Stewart, Dolores Catlow, and Mrs. Glen Goodman sang "Auld Lang Syne" and graciously responded to an encore. At the usual hour a delicious buffet luncheon was served.

The Bend Study club held their regular meeting Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Hayden on Congress street. "Mark Twain" was the subject for the afternoon study. Mrs. L. W. Gatchell presented the life history of the great humorist and gave a number of short readings illustrative of the author's style both as a humorist and as a writer of serious prose. Mrs. J. H. Haner followed with a most able review of the book "Joan of Arc" which ranks first for literary style among the author's many contributions to literature. During the general discussion which followed dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mrs. Ralph Wickham of Troy, Mont. the house guest of Mrs. A. R. Leary was an invited guest for the afternoon.

On Tuesday afternoon a group of friends met at the home of Mrs. C. J. Monahan on Louisiana avenue, for the purpose of organizing Bend's first art club. Mrs. K. B. Weil was elected president, Mrs. Monahan, vice president, and Mrs. Charles Bloom secretary and treasurer. It was decided to take up a regular course of study and Mrs. Bloom was commissioned to present suggestive study outlines at the next regular meeting.

In keeping with the purpose for which the club was organized, that of fostering and developing any artistic talent the individual members may possess, a ruling was passed requiring each member to bring to the second bi-monthly meeting some finished article of her handiwork and at the end of the club year it is planned to hold an afternoon tea at some private home at which the articles thus collected will be exhibited for the pleasure of the friends of the club membership.

The charter members of the organization are Mrs. K. B. Weil, Mrs. C. J. Monahan, Mrs. Charles Bloom, Mrs. Charles Silvis, Mrs. Ralph Hope, Mrs. E. C. Brick, and daughter Hilah and Mrs. J. D. Donovan.

The Sunshine club was pleasantly entertained on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Louis Bennett. The afternoon was spent with sewing.

Today marks the second week the G. A. Horstkotte family have been detained in Fallbridge on account of traffic conditions incident to the recent storm period. On November 26 Mrs. Horstkotte and little son arrived in Portland upon their return from a three months visit with eastern relatives and started on the homeward journey to Bend.

The Baptist Missionary society was entertained on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. H. Foley where Mrs. Ella Fairbanks acted as hostess. Following a short devotional service, the hours were spent in preparing articles for use in mission hospitals. Refreshments were served at the usual hour.

The Aid society of the Christian church were entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. W. Barcus where the time was spent in sewing for the annual bazaar to be held sometime during this month. On Tuesday the organization will hold an all day session at the home of Mrs. L. L. Robinson for the purpose of completing plans for the sale.

The musical tea given by the Episcopal guild yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. P. Keyes drew an assemblage of one hundred women who followed with close interest the splendid musical program presented. The program which was in charge of Mrs. J. C. Rhodes was opened by Mrs. R. S. Hamilton who played from memory the difficult "Rondo Capriccioso" by Mendelssohn and was enthusiastically encored as were each of the musicians who followed her. Mrs. Clarence Mannheim was heard for the first time as a violin soloist and delighted the audience as did Mrs. C. E. Trotter whose rendition of a group of piano solos evidenced real musical talent. Mrs. Glen Goodman, Mrs. Robert Gould, and Mrs. C. V. Silvis were each heard in vocal solos with Jeanette Keyes as accompanist, and Mrs. K. B. Weil and Jeanette Keyes in the duet "Poet and Peasant" by Suppe.

Following the program, light refreshments were served from prettily appointed tables in the dining room at which Mrs. C. S. Hudson and Mrs. Frank Prince presided.

Elaborate preparations are being laid for the international dinner to be served at Epworth hall Tuesday evening by the missionary society of the Methodist church. Booths representing the United States, Egypt, Turkey, Brazil, Japan, Persia, Mexico, will be presided over by attendants in the native costumes of the countries represented, who will serve food typical of the countries. The following girls and women will have charge of the booths: the Misses Emily Miller, Mable Yensen, Mary Ellen Yensen, Eloise Spencer, Dora Weyrauch, Velma House, Mildred Hoover, Clitus Sherwood, and Mrs. Carolyn Horner and Mrs. George Conklin.

For the pleasure of Mrs. Herbert Howell of Grants Pass, formerly Margaret Weist, of Bend, and Mrs. W. D. Barnes, who leaves soon to make her home in Medford, a group of the former members of the Priscilla club gathered at the home of Mrs. V. A. Forbes. A cafeteria dinner was served at 6:30 o'clock and the evening spent in recalling incidents in the life of Bend 10 or more years ago, illustrated with kodak views from old albums. The club members present were Mrs. Howell, Mrs. Montelle G. Coe, Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. T. E. J. Duffy, Mrs. J. C. Vandever, Mrs. H. J. Overturn, and Mrs. Forbes. Invited guests were Mrs. E. D. Wilson, Mrs. H. E. Allen, Mrs. W. R. Speck, Mrs. Joseph Innes, Mrs. George Brosterhouse, Mrs. Ashley Forrest, Mrs. L. D. Weist, and Mrs. George Jones.

CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Christian Science Society
Services Sunday 11 a. m., Wednesday 8 p. m. 418 Bond St.
Reading room, room 9 Deschutes Investment Co. Bldg.

First Baptist Church
After being confined to his home for two weeks with an attack of the quinsy, the pastor is glad to announce that he will be in all services Sunday, December 4, which are as follows:

Unified plan—Sunday school at 9:45. Don't miss this live session of Bible study.

There is a class for you. Will you join it?

There will be a story and sermon, theme, "Living Epistles" at 11 a. m. Communion service will be observed at close of morning sermon B. Y. P. U. group 1 in charge, with Amanda Anderson, leader at 6:30.

An interesting and helpful meeting is promised. All the young people are urged to be present.

Evening evangelistic message, "Friends of Jesus" at 7:30. Prayer meeting, Wednesday evening, at 7:30.

You will find a cordial welcome at this homelike church.

Come, worship with us, if not a member or an attendant elsewhere.

According to announcements previously made, twenty-two persons banded themselves together in a new church organization at the services held in the old Methodist-Episcopal church last Sunday. A detailed account of the organization and its name will appear later.

This new church organization will hold services in the old Methodist church on Sisemore street next Sunday as follows: The Bible school which has been organized and fully manned, and which has a place for all grades and ages, will meet at 9:45 a. m. The evening service will be held at 7:30, at which time Dr. Hartranft will preach from the subject, "The Unavoidable Jesus." This sermon will be the second in the series, of which last Sunday evening's was the first, and all of which will be preached from the same text. The initial sermon of this series was a masterpiece. Those that follow are said to be even more powerful, more heart-searching. If you are not obligated we invite you to avail yourself of the privilege of hearing these most helpful discourses.

J. W. COLLETTE, Moderator.

Methodist-Episcopal
The male quartet will sing at the eleven o'clock service in the morning. The pastor will preach on the subject "Doth Job Fear God For Nought?"

Two questions will be discussed at the evening service beginning at 7:30 o'clock.

1. What advantages would an association of nations have over the league of nations?

2. What did Job mean when he says in the 6th verse of chapter 7, "My days are spent without hope?"

What questions would you like to hear discussed? Present them to the pastor, he will be glad to give them consideration at the service next Sunday evening, December 11.

With an attendance of 202 last Sunday the average for the four Sundays of November was 213 in the Sunday school. Be on hand at 9:45 in the morning.

Professor Forrester of the high school has consented to teach the older boy's class in the Sunday school beginning tomorrow. There are already ten boys in this class and there is room for twenty. Boys thirteen, fourteen and fifteen years old are invited to report for duty in the morning.

The ladies of the W. F. M. S. will serve an international dinner, cafeteria style, Tuesday evening, December 6, in Epworth hall. Don't forget.

Miss Naomi Snyder will lead Epworth league Sunday evening at 6:30. Choir practice Tuesday evening at the parsonage. Mid-week service Thursday at 7:30.

The heating arrangement has been greatly improved during the past week and we shall hereafter be able to keep Epworth hall comfortably warm in the coldest weather.

J. EDGAR PURDY, pastor.

Emeralds in Aztec Treasures.
Among the Aztec treasures of Mexico exquisitely cut emeralds were found and it is from this source that the magnificent emeralds now forming a part of the royal collection of Spain were supposed to have come.

Don't fail to see the calendars made for you to slip your Kodak prints in. They sell for 25c. Symons Bros., Jewelers. 1521fc

"Gibraltar of America."
The city of Quebec is sometimes called the "Gibraltar of America," because of its well-nigh impregnable position and strong means of defense, both natural and artificial.

Through the holiday season your Kodak work will receive that painstaking care and quick service you have been receiving at Symons Bros., Jewelers. 1521fc
