

SOCIETY

(By Laura Gatchell, Telephone 147-M.)

Notes for publication in the social column in the Saturday issue of The Bulletin must be in not later than 5:30 o'clock on the afternoon of the day preceding.

A New Year's eve party with five hundred and dancing as the chief diversions, was enjoyed at the home of W. H. Fehrenbacher, now living on the 10 Bar ranch, recently from Walla Walla, Wash. A midnight lunch was served by Mrs. Fehrenbacher, the hostess, assisted by the Misses Frost, Renno, and Fox. Prizes for five hundred were awarded to Miss Rosengarth and Miss Frost, and to Mr. Hoeh and Mr. Colver. The large crowd which enjoyed the hospitality of the 10 Bar ranch, left for home shortly after 3 o'clock on New Year's morning.

Quiet reigns in Bend social circles following the festivities of the holiday season. Many young people have returned to college and university and but few of those who came to spend the holidays with relatives and friends in Bend yet remain.

Miss Helen Philbrook who has been a guest at the Claude Metz home for the past three weeks leaves tomorrow evening for her home in Portland.

Mrs. Edward Werlein will depart tomorrow evening for her home in Portland after spending the holiday season at the home of her mother, Mrs. Charles Stansbrough.

Delightful informality marked the dancing party given Thursday evening at the Masonic hall by the Central Oregon Shrine club as one of the most enjoyable of the season. Decorations were in the holiday greenery with the scarlet Shrine emblem everywhere in evidence adding a touch of effective coloring. The Wilson George orchestra furnished the music and dancing was enjoyed until a late hour when a delicious luncheon was served. Among the out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Miller, and Mr. and Mrs. William Wilson of Redmond and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Turner of Madras.

The Emera club entertained this afternoon with a card party at the Masonic club rooms. Mrs. Byron Royce and Mrs. Horace Richards received as hostesses.

The Baptist Aid society held an all day meeting at the home of Mrs. J. M. Lawrence on Thursday. The time was passed in sewing on the White Cross supplies which go to furnish mission hospitals. At the noon hour a covered dish dinner was enjoyed by the 18 members of the organization present.

The annual installation of officers in the order of Eastern Star will be the occasion of a pleasant social evening at the Masonic club rooms on Monday evening.

The guild of the Presbyterian church held an interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. Peter Valley on Wednesday afternoon. During the business meeting, plans were laid for an entertainment, "The Tom Thumb Wedding" to be put on at the Presbyterian church on the evening of January 20, the cast for which will require 75 children between the ages of two and nine years. Following the business meeting, refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed.

The Aid society of the Christian church was pleasantly entertained on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Gove.

Mrs. N. B. Gerking has returned to Bend after a short visit with relatives and friends in Tumalo and will continue to remain a guest in the W. P. Myers home on Portland avenue.

On Thursday of last week Mrs. Charles Stansbrough entertained with a 1 o'clock luncheon in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Edward Werlein of Portland and Miss Helen Philbrook, also of Portland, who is the house guest of Mrs. Claude Metz. Covers were laid for nine about a well appointed table attractive in decorations in keeping with the season.

Mrs. Alexander Thompson returned to her home in Portland Thursday evening after spending the holiday season at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Erskine.

Miss Margaret Thompson has returned from a week's visit with Portland friends.

Mrs. Claude Metz entertained on Tuesday with a 1 o'clock luncheon in honor of her niece, Miss Helen Philbrook of Portland. Miss Philbrook was also the recipient of another social courtesy on Thursday when Mrs. R. S. McClure entertained with a 1 o'clock luncheon at the Elks' club in her honor. On this occasion Miss Philbrook, Mrs. Charles Stansbrough, Mrs. Edward Werlein of Portland, Mrs. J. J. Clapp, Mrs. J. M. Lawrence, Mrs. Claude Metz, Mrs. T. M. Foley, and Mrs. McClure circled the table.

Mrs. G. Paine of Cashmere, Wash., and Mrs. A. A. Symons entertained a small group of friends yesterday with an afternoon tea. Those present were: Mrs. Paine, Mrs. John Runge, Mrs. B. G. Huse, Mrs. William Schlichting and Mrs. A. A. Symons.

Those who enjoy the best in music will await with interest the Pipes-Campbell concert to be held on Friday evening of the coming week at the American Legion building under the auspices of the Woman's Civic league. Mrs. Susie Fennell Pipes is a violinist who is becoming nationally known as an artist of ability. She laid the foundation for her musical study in Berlin where she studied for three years under Theodore Spiering. She has played with Max Heinrich and has toured the northwest with David Bispham and Myrtle Elvyn.

David Campbell also studied under the music masters of Europe. He was just beginning a concert career on that continent when the war broke out. He returned to this country to enlist in the United States military service. Since 1919 his concert work has won the highest commendation from musical critics.

The program to be played by these artists which will appear in the daily papers within a few days, has been arranged to please an audience of varied musical tastes and cannot fail to interest all those who embrace the opportunity of hearing it.

Mrs. E. O. Stadter entertained on Monday with a dinner party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Stone of Los Angeles and Miss Dolores Catlow. The dinner hour was arranged for 3 o'clock to accommodate the honor guests who were leaving on the evening train. Mr. and Mrs. Stone for their southern home and Miss Catlow for the University of Oregon.

The table was attractively centered with white carnations, and place cards named Mr. and Mrs. Stone, Miss Catlow, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Foss, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Catlow, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. De Armond, Judge and Mrs. T. E. J. Duffy, and Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Vandeventer as the guests.

In courtesy to her house guests, Mrs. Lou Gray and Miss Bertha Peeper of Portland, Mrs. A. F. Larson entertained with a bridge party on New Year's eve. Four tables were in play until near the midnight hour when a delicious luncheon was served and the passing of the old year and the coming of the New Year celebrated.

Mrs. C. K. Norcott entertained on Monday with a small dinner party in celebration of the birthday anniversary of her son Edward and his friend Philip Philbrook.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Stone departed Monday evening for their home in Los Angeles after spending the Christmas season at the home of their daughter, Mrs. L. M. Foss.

Mrs. E. P. Mahaffey entertained with a card party on Monday evening.

The Episcopal guild was entertained yesterday afternoon at the home of Mr. L. M. Foss. The afternoon was passed with needlework and conversation and at 4:30 o'clock a dainty luncheon was served. Invited guests for the afternoon were Mrs. H. H. De Armond and Mrs. H. M. Horton.

The Sunshine club entertained yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. J. Fissell in honor of Mrs. V. A. Buckingham. The afternoon was spent with sewing and in the enjoyment of social pleasures. A pleasant remembrance of the occasion for Mrs. Buckingham will be the presentation of a gift of silver by the club membership for the services of Mrs. Buckingham in organizing the club which only recently passed its first anniversary.

The Pythian Sisters held their annual election of officers on Wednesday evening which was followed by a most enjoyable social hour during which an expression of appreciation was presented to Mrs. W. H. Hudson for her service as most excellent chief of the order during the past two years. The following officers will serve for the coming year; most excellent chief, Mrs. Louis Orrell; past excellent chief, Mrs. Hudson; excellent senior, Mrs. Paul Loree; excellent junior, Mrs. Harry Fissell; manager, Mrs. Marie Smith; mistress of finance, Mrs. John Newby; protector, Alice McReynolds; guard, Mrs. Edward Gould; challengers, Mrs. Harry Hamilton and Mrs. Harvey De Armond; installing officer, Mrs. V. R. Buckingham; pianist, Mrs. Louis Bennett. Mrs. Bennett was also elected a trustee of the organization.

No Assistance Needed.
Bessett and Robinson went to Tacoma the other day to see their girl. While battling and whiling away the hours in a very secluded corner of the veranda, her brother happened along, and, not being able to distinguish their uniforms in the semi-darkness, he asked: "What is it this time, Sis, the army or the navy?" Whereupon Bessett piped, "The marines have landed and have the situation well in hand."—Tennessee Tar.

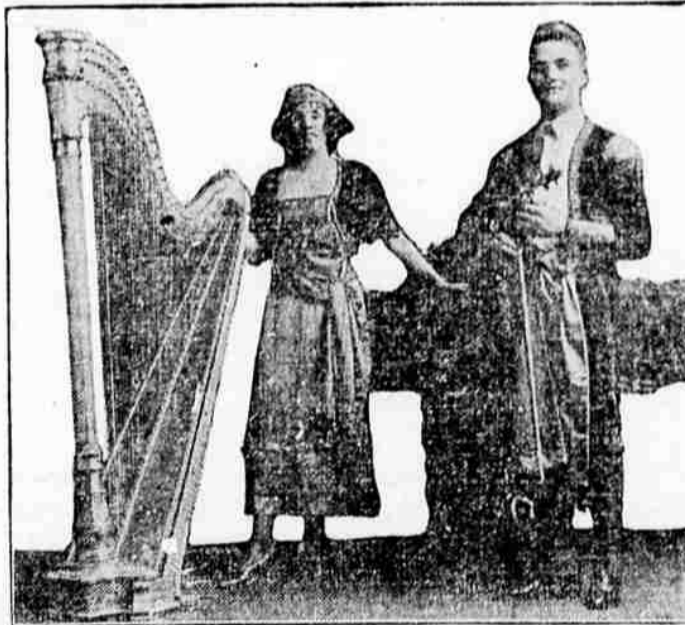

DeMARCO-AISTRUP ENTERTAINERS

Famous Symphony Harpist and Pianist

The Third Number of the
SHEVLIN-HIXON BAND
LYCEUM COURSE

Monday, January 9, at the Grand
Program Starts Promptly at 8:00 O'clock

ENTERTAINERS OF EXCEPTIONAL MERIT

All through the DeMarco-Aistrup program is woven a charming Italian atmosphere—subdued and dignified—and yet most fascinating at all times. In Miss DeMarco's harp and piano numbers it is there. In Lowell Aistrup's renditions of the Italian masters, in the popular costumed numbers of the company, and in Miss DeMarco's clever little lecturette, "Italy and Its Customs"—in all these is visualized the land of sunny skies—the charm of Venetian life.

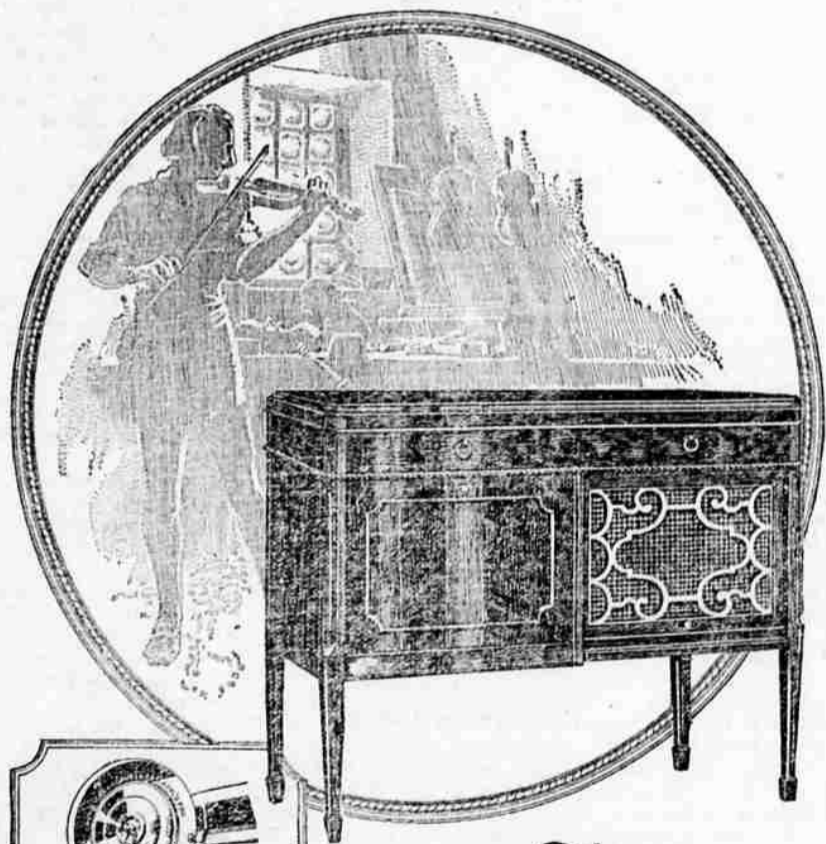

The DeMarco-Aistrup Entertainers are artists first—and then entertainers. This is why they have been such a success. They give a program of irresistible charm—a distinctive entertainment, crowded with pleasant surprises.

Miss DeMarco is one of Lyceum's best known artists. Prior to heading this company she was a well known concert and symphony star—on both piano and harp—under the baton of Van der Stucken, and other noted conductors.

Lowell Aistrup is a young American artist who is rapidly coming into his own. He is a composer of considerable note, and has both studied and taught in important American conservatories.

The harp, the piano, the violin, the readings, the impersonations, the costumed numbers—all these round out a program of exceptional merit.

Admission--Adults, 50c; Children, 25c

The CHENEY

Tone, Quality—and Technique

Cheney Tone Adjuster
The Cheney will play a lullaby as soft as a whisper—or fill a large hall with a rollicking dance.

Twelve distinct gradations of tone, logically controlled at the source. Tones always crystal clear, sweet and pure.

"THE LONGER YOU PLAY IT, THE SWEETER IT GROWS."

A virtuoso could scarcely display his art with an ordinary violin or piano. Perfect technique alone does not make a master.

So with phonograph records. It is easy to play them—but the Cheney, like a Stradivarius violin, gives renditions new beauty. Its rich, majestic tones are unrivalled.

Acoustic principles, never applied before to phonographs, have set The Cheney unquestionably in a class apart.
