LILLIAN RICH STARS IN "MILLIONAIRE" AT LIBERTY

Herbert Rawlinson will be seen at the Liberty theatre Tuesday in "The Millionaire," a Universal special attraction. It was directed by Jack Conway from a story by Hulbert Footner. Rawlinson has heretofore appeared principally in roles supporting the best known stars of the screen and has achieved a reputation for histrionic ability. Lillian Rich will shine as the central feminine light of the story. Frederick Vroom and E. A. Warren are the principal character actors while William Courtwright, Verne Winter, Margaret Mann, Doris Pawn and Mary Hupress are the other members of the cast.

You must understand the clearance idea to appreciate this sale.

The Clearance Idea is to turn this Winter's merchandise into cash so that we can use this money to buy new merchandise for the Spring season.

We reduce prices and offer bargains so as to induce rapid buying. We will make no profit on this Clearance Sale. Our advantage comes in getting cash out of these Winter goods to invest in Spring merchandise. The more goods we sell NOW, the greater variety will we be able to offer you in Spring merchandise. The Big Idea then is to clear out every dollar's worth of Winter goods so that by February we will have large Spring stocks to show you.

You judge a sale's greatness by the values it offers you—by the chances it gives you to save in the buying of the merchandise you need.

We've called this "A sale that's greater than ever before." It's a big statement and we mean exactly what we say. This sale IS greater; greater because the savings to you are greater than you have experienced for years.
