(By Laura Gatchell, Telephone 147-M.)

Notes for publication in the social column in the Saturday issue of The Bulletin must be in not later than 5:30 o'clock on the afternoon of the day preceding.

In courtesy to Mrs. Bradley Ewers of Portland who is the house guest of her sister, Mrs. C. H. Knowles a group of friends were dinner guests at the Elks' club on Thursday evening. Following the dinner service, the party spent the evening in the enjoyment of dancing and music. Among the musical numbers especially enjoyed was a group of songs by Mrs. Ewers who sang with pleasing effect "Stille Wie Die Nacht," by Bohn, "Something Sweet to Tell You" by Tate, "Somewhere a Voice is Calling," by Fanning and "The Asra" by Rubenstein. These present were Mrs. Ewers, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Knowles and son John, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Arnold and son Robert and daughter Marie, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Payne and son Claire, Judge and Mrs. T. E. J. Duffy, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. DeArmond, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Foss, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh O'Kane, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hogan, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Strasburger, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Catlow, and Mrs. Anne Forbes.

The Emblem club entertained on Monday evening with a dancing party at which a revival of the cotillion formed a delightful innovation. The leaders in the French quadrille were Mrs. J. C. Rhodes and Mr. C. A. Hayden who introduced the figures by leading a grand march following which ladies and gentlemen alternately chose partners for each of the fanciful dances that made up the remaining figures in the cotillion, at the same time presenting small favors provided by the leaders. Luncheon was served at 11 o'clock and the dancing again resumed. As the final figure a serpentine march was carried out and at the final position an unusual surprise feature was staged in the bursting of a huge snowball suspended in the middle of the ceiling and the subsequent showering of myriads of tiny snowballs.

The Emera club entertained this afternoon with another of its popular card parties. Mrs. George Conklin and Mrs. J. M. Childers received as hostesses.

The home of Miss Nell Markell was the scene of a 6 o'clock dinner on Tuesday evening when a circle of friends entertained for the pleasure of one of their number, Mrs. W. R. Speck who with her family leaves soon to make her home in Medford, Oregon. Those present were Mrs. W. R. Speck, Mrs. T. E. J. Duffy, Mrs. George Brosterhous, Miss Marie Brosterhous, Mrs. Ashley Forrest, Mrs. Joseph Innis, Mrs. Ross Farnham, Mrs. E. J. Catlow, Mrs. Chester Catlow, Mrs. J. C. Vandeventer, Mrs. Montelle Coe, Mrs. L. D. Weist, Mrs. Anne Forbes, Mrs. E. O. Stadter, Mrs. H. H. DeArmond, Miss Mildred Trembley, and Miss Nell Markell.

The Bend Study club was entertained at the home of Mrs. Carl Johnson on Monday afternoon at which time silver offerings were received from the club membership to be sent to the scholarship loan fund which is maintained by the federated clubs of the state. The afternoon was spent in playing bridge and with needlework, and at the usual hour a dainty luncheon was served. Invited guests for the occasion were Mrs. K. B. Well and her house guest, Mrs. N. S. Simpkins, Mrs. Annie Greer, who is the house guest of Mrs. L. W. Gatchell and Mrs. E. R. Ryan.

Mrs. E. J. Catlow entertained a small group of friends on Wednesday afternoon in courtesy to Mrs. W. R. Speck. Bridge was enjoyed.

In celebration of the seventh birthday anniversary of her daughter Mable, Mrs. Walter Bradley entertained 30 of the little girl's friends at an afternoon party on Wednesday of last week. A decorative scheme of red and white was carried out throughout the home and following the enjoyment of the usual children's games, a delicious luncheon including a large birthday cake, was served.

Honoring Mrs. George Paine of Cashmere, Wash., who is the guest of Mrs. A. A. Symons and Mrs. N. S. Simpkins, the guest of Mrs. K. B. Well, Mrs. John Runge entertained on Wednesday with a 1 o'clock luncheon. Place cards named Mrs. George Simpkins, Mrs. N. S. Simpkins, Mrs. A. A. Symons, Mrs. R. A. Hope, Mrs. William Schlichting, Mrs. K. B. Well, and Mrs. O. A. Schilling as the guests.

An enjoyable dancing party was held by the high school students last night at the American Legion building following the basketball game. The Madras players and rooters were the guests of the students, and faculty members, parents and a number of high school alumni were present. Music was furnished by the high school orchestra.

Mrs. Claude Metz entertained with a 1 o'clock luncheon Tuesday in celebration of the birthday anniversary of Mrs. R. S. McClure. Covers were laid for six.

The Order of Eastern Star entertained on Wednesday with a most enjoyable card and dancing party in honor of four of its active and valued members, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Barnes, Mrs. E. D. Wilson, and Mrs. W. R. Speck, the present worthy matron of the order, who leave soon to make their homes in other parts of the state. A memorable feature of the occasion was the presentation of gifts to the honor guests and the clever speeches of acceptance that followed.

The Baptist Aid society was entertained on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. H. Horton.

The Woman's Civic league will hold its regular monthly open meeting at Epworth hall on Tuesday evening at eight o'clock instead of 3 o'clock in the afternoon as heretofore. The change is made for the reason that the topic to be presented in the general course of "Active Citizenship" being studied by the club will be of interest to the men of the community who may appreciate an opportunity to attend. Mr. Ross Farnham will discuss the topic, "Community Finance" and there will be several excellent musical numbers including a banjo solo by Mr. E. R. Ryan.

The Aid society of the Christian church was pleasantly entertained at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Fred E. Harriman on Wednesday afternoon. The usual program was carried out and a social hour enjoyed.

The official visit of the two officers of the Grand Lodge of Pythias Mr. Walter Gleason, Grand Keeper of Records and Seals and Mr. Lief Finseth, Grand Chancellor, to the local lodge of the order was the occasion of a pleasant social evening at Sather's hall on Wednesday evening. The Pythian Sisters were also guests of the order and the evening was passed in the enjoyment of a program, music and dancing followed by the serving of a delicious luncheon.

Mrs. Robert Gould was hostess to the guild of the Episcopal church at her home on Drake Road yesterday afternoon. There was a very good attendance and following the short business meeting the hours were passed with needlework and conversation.

ESSEX

The Car Owners Praise Like This==

Repair Costs $1.50 in 2 1/2 Years

In two and one-half years repairs on my Essex have been 75 cents for a new fan belt and 75 cents for a starter spring. Original plugs and battery still in use. Gasoline consumption 19 miles per gallon. The machine is as quiet and powerful as when new.

JOHN MILLER,
27 Manchester Place, Buffalo, N. Y.

$10 Repair Costs in Two Years

Have run my Essex 16,000 miles in 2 years. It has not cost me one cent for garage or repair service. Repair parts, including 3 door catches have cost less than $10. Have easily made the replacements myself.

N. S. BETTS,
Home Insurance Co., New York.

--Official Champion of All Cars Its Motor Size--

In 4 trips across America Essex 4 times breaks the transcontinental record.

FIRST ESSEX—	SECOND ESSEX—	THIRD ESSEX—	FOURTH ESSEX—
San Francisco to New York —4 Days, 14 hrs., 48 min.	New York to San Francisco —4 Days, 19 hrs., 17 min.	San Francisco to New York —4 Days, 21 hrs., 50 min.	New York to San Francisco —5 Days, 6 hrs., 13 min.
Lowers Record 12 hrs., 48 min.	Lowers Record 22 hrs., 13 min.	Lowers Record 5 hrs., 35 min.	Lowers Record 11 hrs., 19 min.

The average time for each of the four Essex cars over 3347 miles Ocean to Ocean route was 4 days, 21 hours, 32 minutes.

Essex set the official 50-hour record, traveling 3037 miles at better than a mile a minute. For cars of its motor size it holds all official stock records for speed and endurance from 1 to 50 hours.

It set the world's 24-hour road mark of 1061 miles, and the official 24-hour dirt track record of 1261 miles. Essex also set the New York-Chicago record—24 hours, 43 minutes, and the San Bernardino hill climb record.

--at $1095 F.O.B. Detroit for the Touring and $1345 F.O.B. Detroit for the Coach--

This is a price market. But it is also a quality market. Well-informed buyers will get both.

The Essex touring car at $1095 and the Coach—the new type closed car—at $1345 are tempting prices. They are considerably lower than many cars, which have neither by official proof, nor the testimony of owners earned recognition like Essex.

Compare the substantial, well-proved qualities and distinction of the Essex with what like-priced cars can give. The Essex Coach is particularly interesting. Never before was a fine quality closed car priced so low. It gives the luxury, comfort and reliability that formerly was out of reach for most car buyers.

It seats five amply. It has the liveliness of performance you like. It is beautiful and reliable.

Operating cost is low. Like all Essex cars, little attention is needed to keep the Coach prime. It is built to endure and stay free from annoyance. You will find it meets every business and family need.

In any car you consider you should ask owners what their experience has been. You cannot overlook the worth of such unbiased advice. It may save you later regret.

We are quite sure you will find the letters printed here typical views no matter how many Essex owners you ask.
