ADVERTISE NOW
(Grant County Journal)

There is nothing on earth so mysteriously funny as a newspaper advertisement. The prime, first, last and all the time, object of an advertisement is to draw up custom. It is not, was not, and never will be designed for other human purpose. So the merchant waits till the busy season and his store is so full of customers that he can't get his hat off, and then he rushes to the newspaper and puts in his advertisement. When the dull season gets along and there is no trade and he wants to sell goods so bad he can't pay his rent, he takes out his advertisement. That is, some of them do, but occasionally a level headed merchant puts in a bigger one scoops in all the business while his neighbors are making mortgages to pay their light bills.
There are times when you could not stop people from buying everything in the store if you planted a cannon behind the door and that's the time the advertisement is sent out on its holy mission. It makes light work for the advertisement, for a chalk sign on the sidewalk could do all that was needed and have a half holiday six days in the week, but who wants to favor an advertisement? They are built to do hard work and should be sent out in dull days when a customer has to be knocked down with hard facts and kicked insensible with bankruptcy reductions and urged in with irresistible slaughter of prices before he will spend a cent.
Write this down where you'll fall over it every day. The time to draw business is when you want business, and not when you have more business than you can attend to already.

COLLISION DISABLES MAIL CARRIERS' CARS

GRANGE HALL, Feb. 1.—The cars of the R. F. D. carrier on the Grange Hall route and the R. F. D. on the Alfalfa route collided Saturday. They meet every day and transfer mail but neither expected the other at the sharp curve where their accident occurred. Both cars were disabled. J. K. Condon hauled Jay B. Noble's car within a mile of Bend when it was necessary to get assistance from a garage in town.
Helene Selde, the 12 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Selde, had a birthday party Sunday afternoon. The invited friends were Martin Pavick, Mary McClain, Mable Boardman, Johnny Pavick, Thelma Kutzman, Melvin McClain, Lawrence Boardman, Francis Pavick. Mrs. Selde served ice cream with the birthday cake. Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McClain joined the party later in the afternoon.

Spring Is Coming

Soon the winter will be gone from the haunts of freezing men, and the grass upon the lawn will be turning green again; and verdure soon will run amuck, and we'll hear the quacking duck, and the earnest, thoughtful cluck of the busy setting hen. Oh, the wintry tempest blows, and it howls along the street; there is ice upon my nose and my ears are full of sleet; bleak the sky that o'er us bends, but the worst uprising ends, and we'll soon be telling friends that we're weary of the heat. Oh, the winter isn't nice, when it blusters to and fro, and my shoes are full of ice and my hat is full of snow; but I try to dance and sing and be happy as a king, for I have a hunch that spring pretty soon her goods will show. And she has the finest line that a man could wish to see, singing birds on every vine, and a homing bumble bee; sweetest fragrance in the air, and a rosebud here and there, golden sunshine everywhere, and a flower bestudded lea. Rough-house Winter stays a while, filling us with discontent, heaping in a crazy pile snow that isn't worth a cent; but he soon is out of sight; then comes Spring, a bride in white, bringing comfort and delight to the breast of every gent.
