THE FELLOWSHIP OF PRAYER

A daily Lenten Bible reading and meditation prepared by the Commission on Evangelism of the Federal Council of Churches for the use of the churches and individuals.

TUESDAY—FOLLOWING CHRIST IN SERVICE

The Harvest indeed is plenteous, but the laborers are few. St. Luke 10:2.

READ ST. LUKE 9:51-19:16: "One door which no man and no circumstance can shut is the opportunity to serve."

MEDITATION: Have I been unconscious of my opportunity to develop relations with God by serving my fellows? Have I thought men nothing to God, and that therefore my thought of them was nothing to God? I now see that in service to men my redemptive faith is working itself out.

PRAYER (For all church officers and workers): O God our Father, we yearn to follow Christ our Redeemer in true self-denial; in compelling love of men; in unflinching service and in love of neighbor not less than of self. To this end unite our hearts with thy life, O God, in heart-felt prayer. Make our lives fruitful, and grant that thy justice and mercy may abide with all thy children; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Hymn

O Master, let me walk with thee
In lowly paths of service free,
Tell me thy secret, help me hear
The strain of toil, the fret of care.

The Bend emblem cast in aluminum, will be the chief exhibit in the report of L. O. Taylor, chairman of the committee named to recommend a distinctive advertising display for Bend autos to carry, at the Commercial club weekly forum luncheon Wednesday noon.

The emblem, cast at the Bend Iron Works, is four and one-quarter inches in diameter, and the letters are in silvery relief against a black ground.

TAUSCHER ISSUES TRACK CALL TODAY

A formal call for track candidates of both the high school and grade classes was issued today by Coach A. P. Tauscher for a general turnout tonight at O'Donnell field. Preliminary work in starting and running was done by a few aspirants on the field near the American Legion building last night, but the training season starts officially today.

More than the usual amount of interest in track work is expected to result from the announcement that a series of cross country runs will be held, beginning next week, so that the track men may have real competition early in the season. The first runs will be over a mile and a half course, the distance being lengthened as the athletes get in better condition. Dates for these runs have not yet been announced.

The high school baseball practice last night was well attended. Coach Springer did not take charge of the squad last night, on account of illness.

MISSION SESSIONS IN PROGRESS HERE

Convention At Peoples' Church Open To All In Bend—Rev. Feldges Chief Speaker.

The missionary convention now in session at the People's church has as its chief speaker, Rev. H. W. Feldges, who has spent 18 years in South America in missionary work. Rev. Feldges opened the convention Sunday night.

Other speakers on the program are Mrs. Feldges, Rev. John E. Fee of Portland, and Rev. W. W. Newberry, district superintendent of the Christian and Missionary alliance, with headquarters at Seattle. With the exception of Saturday, there will be a sermon and a missionary address each evening of the week. It is particularly emphasized by members of the church that the convention is for all the people of Bend, and especially for those who are interested in missions and the latest information from the missionary field.
