

SOCIETY

(By Laura Gatchell, Telephone 147-M.)

Notes for publication in the social column in the Saturday issue of The Bulletin must be in not later than 3:30 o'clock on the afternoon of the day preceding.

Over two hundred persons attended the dinner given by the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church at Epworth hall Tuesday night, the largest crowd that has ever attended one of these dinners. Satisfactory profits were made by the society with the dinner and the bazaar which was conducted in the afternoon, and also by two Sunday school classes which conducted booths, about $160 in all being realized during the afternoon and evening. The hall was attractively decorated.

An Easter dinner will be given next Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock at the home of Rev. F. H. Beard and family, 406 Wall street, by the Baptist ladies.

The Woman's foreign missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church met Thursday afternoon as guests of Miss Alice Spalding at The Altamont. Fifteen ladies were present, among them Mrs. W. M. Erskine of Portland, who is visiting in the city.

The Ladies' Aid of the Christian church held its regular meeting Wednesday at the home of Mrs. George Stokoe. Twenty ladies were present. It was decided to postpone indefinitely the proposed oyster supper.

The Sunshine club will meet next Wednesday evening for a card party at the home of Mrs. Paul Loree.

Mrs. S. W. Moore and Mrs. F. O. Minor will be hostesses to the Emerald club Saturday afternoon at 2:35 o'clock at the Masonic hall. Bridge will be played.

Voiture 147, La Societe des 40 Hommes et 8 Chevaux, will hold a supper and dance at the American Legion building on the evening of Thursday, April 27. Each member of the voiture is asked to invite a gentleman friend, legionnaire if possible. Members of the voiture will wear their chapeaux.

Spring flowers in abundance determined the color scheme of decorations for the bridge party Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. B. Gould. Jonquils were the predominant bloom. Refreshments were arranged to harmonize with the color scheme of the decorations. Prizes were won by Mrs. R. D. Miles, Mrs. N. W. Boles and Mrs. Glenn Goodman. Mrs. L. B. Baird and Mrs. C. W. Hayes poured.

Honoring A. J. Woolsey on his 40th birthday, a group of friends met at the Woolsey home Monday night, to spend the evening in dancing and games. Refreshments were served. Those present were Dr. R. D. Stowell and wife, Mrs. George Baker, Mr. and Mrs. George Sellers, and their families.

Members of "The Players," local dramatic club, met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Craig Coyner on Tuesday evening for a pleasant card party. Fudge was made and a luncheon served late in the evening. Those

SAYS FLAPPER IS ALL RIGHT

Y. W. C. A. Secretary Tells of Good Traits Revealed By Misnamed Modern Girl

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., April 15.—"Today the public calls the active young American maid a flapper, but upon close observation we find that the flapper is not different from her older sister, her mother, grandmother or great grandmother."

Miss Annie Ryland Smith, general secretary of the Connecticut Y. W. C. A., made this statement to the United Press in upholding the modern girl.

"Unfortunately, as is often the case in America, the world has been misled and its misuse has stimulated license. Today the word flapper is a careless and flippant expression of the reaction of war, economic conditions and modern inventions, upon the young maiden," Miss Smith said.

"Flapper, originating in England was a charming manner of describing a decidedly proper young lady who amused one by thinking she knew lots more than she did, but flapped her wings before she knew how to fly.

"The American flapper of today is original, creative and courageous and also independent—but are not these all qualities which her ancestors at least desired to attain?"

"Health and vitality are personified by the young maid of today. She has a great stock of energy which will be a great contribution to prosperity.

"Opportunities have been granted our present day youths which have made them grown-ups—before they had an opportunity to realize the joys of youth. The young people of today have been robbed of their girlhood and boyhood."
