GROUP ANTAGONISM

(Salem Capital Journal)

Most senseless of all the group antagonism existing in free America is the religious—and yet in Portland there was a class of 1200 initiated into the Ku Klux Klan, whose purpose is the spread of racial and religious prejudices and antagonism. This is in itself a sorry commentary on conditions in the metropolis.

It was to escape the religious persecutions and intolerance of the old world that the first settlers came to America. The Pilgrims and Puritans came to New England, the Quakers to Pennsylvania, the Catholics to Maryland, the Huguenots to the Carolinas and the Cavaliers to Virginia, yet we see in free and tolerant America 300 years later an attempt at organized intolerance similar to that which drove our ancestors from Europe.

The feeling against religious intolerance has always been strong in America—indeed religious freedom is Americanism. So strong was the feeling against religious meddling that the first amendment adopted to the constitution read, "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion or prohibiting the free exercise thereof." Since its adoption, there have been sporadic attempts to revive bigotry, but sooner or later the native good sense of the American people prevailed.

This group antagonism, cleverly capitalized by organizers seeking profit and politicians seeking office, if not allayed in the future, spells trouble for the nation. If there ever was a time when unity and common sense should prevail, it is in this era of reconstruction. The problems faced are so serious as to demand the best efforts of all—yet with bigotry an issue, all the important problems are forgotten, discord created, and people vote their prejudices instead of their reason.

In Oregon, the issues of economy, taxation, income tax, personal qualification and all other vital questions are being passed up, to vote blindly in accordance with the edicts of the self-appointed "emperor" of an "invisible empire" of fanaticism, whose oath-bound followers have surrendered their Americanism to swear allegiance to, obeying the commands of one in whose choice they had no more voice than they have in the selection of the candidate they are voting for. And they call this 100 per cent Americanism!

RADIO BRINGS JOY TO UNFORTUNATES

Woman's Bequest Makes Possible Concerts And Lectures For Institution Inmates.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 29.—The radiophone is bringing joy to the bleak lives of the inmates of the relief home here.

Vernon E. Jeans, himself crippled with an incurable spinal affliction installed the set himself in both the men's and women's quarters. He was aided by Harold Wollenberg, son of the superintendent.

The equipment was made possible by a gift several years ago of Mrs. Barbara Suter. In her will Mrs. Suter left a sum of money to be used for the entertainment of the inmates of the home.

Superintendent C. M. Wollenberg puzzled his head for a means of spending the money profitably, as the home is already provided with nearly all means of recreation and amusement.

Then the radiophone came into being. And it occurred to Wollenberg to spend the money in that way. Jeans and the superintendent's son volunteered to do the work.

Now the inmates of the home are able to gather in the social halls and hear the latest news of the day, concerts and lectures.

The Careful Wife

How doubly fortunate the man whose wife on thrifty plans is set! She guards his roll and ties the can to every scheme that hints of debt. The country's full of working men who carry home the chickenfeed, and fain would blow in every yen for silly things they do not need. Too often wives encourage men to throw their kopecks to the cows; such females swarm, but now and then we see the other kind of fraus. When Hiram brings his weekly pay, he says, "Matilda Judith Jane, let's go and blow ourselves today; this saving graft gives me a pain. Oh, here be bucks that bravely shine, and here be bones that glow like tin; they are too fair to put in brine, so come with me and blow them in. We'll buy a flivver, new and nice, and all that to your heart appeals, and if I cannot pay the price, my stand-off's good for many wheels." Then says the wife, of Spartan mold, "J. Hiram Jinks, hand me your pay! I think I see you wasting gold that we will need when we are gray! Here is a nickel you may spend, take it along and paint the town, but let your foolish twaddle end—your wages will be salted down. And when we both are old and bald, we'll have our little bunch of kale, and neighbors will not see us hauled to yonder poorhouse in the vale."

Barber Declares Everything Goes When Patron Orders "Fix Me Up."

SAN FRANCISCO, April 29.—It is going to take a court to decide just what a man means when he says "Fix me up," to a barber. President James T. Maguire, head of the Kern Mutual Telephone company and Bakersfield Gold club, nicknamed by his friends—until a few days ago "Walrus Jim," Maguire's facial adornment was described legally as follows: "That for years past the plaintiff was owner of a heavy black mustache, not less than three inches in width and six inches from tip to tip, in which said plaintiff had reasonable cause to have, and did have, extreme pride."

Maguire went into a San Francisco barber shop and said "Fix me up." While being fixed up, he took a little snooze. When he woke up his mustache was gone.

Now Maguire complains that his friends and acquaintances do not recognize him on the golf links, and even the one-time friendly dogs of Bakersfield now bark at him as a stranger.

Hence he has entered suit in the justice court for $299.09 damages. The barber claims that an order to "Fix me up," means to remove all hair on the face unless otherwise instructed.

When Loafer Becomes a Pest. "A loafer," said Uncle Eben, "don't do no special harm, 'ceptin' when he tries to be mistook for a worker an' insisses on gettin' in de way."
