A Lakeview buye and taxes collectable. At present, certain payments must be made in cash, throwing an undue burden on the county administration. By a change such as is favored by Anderson, the county would have only its own share of delinquencies to figure on, lessening its debt, and the state would not be able to present a false appearance of prosperity at the expense of the counties.

The only additional state administrative machinery which would be necessary under the proposed plan would be an auditor with a few deputies to check on county books, Anderson believes.

Responsibility of Citizenship Told Students By State Chamber Official.

"The wonderful privilege of education that Oregon provides for you, is merely a loan; and like any other loan, you accept it, agreeing to pay back with interest," was in substance the message of M. J. Duryea, secretary of the organization and service bureau of the Oregon State Chamber of Commerce, to the Bend high school students this morning.

"You are indebted to the people of Bend and of the state of Oregon," said Duryea. "In accepting the edu cation which they so willingly provide, you assume the responsibility of paying back in service to your city and to your state. You may do so by standing for the best in your school life and in citizenship."

Introduced by Miss Harriett Umbaugh, principal, as a speaker who could bring to them an inspiration, Duryea told the students that the that no inspiration he could bring would equal that of the service flag which is before them daily, with its two gold stars and many blue ones.
