Methodist-Episcopal
Mother's day will be appropriately observed at the morning service of the Methodist-Episcopal church today. The pastor will deliver a fitting sermon and the choir will sing the old songs that mother loved. Let us all join in this service of tribute to our mothers.

In the evening the pastor will preach again from the "Life of Moses." This upstanding character of the Old Testament has many practical and inspiring lessons for men and women of today. Join the increasing numbers who attend the evening service at Epworth hall.

Take your place in Sunday school at 9:45. If you have not yet found your place in any Sunday school in Bend, come and see how quickly we will make one for you. Splendid classes for all ages from the kindergarten up.

Epworth league—still growing. You'll like it! Come at 7:00 and bring your chums with you. Hours of services as follow: Sunday school at 9:45; preaching service at 11:00; Epworth League at 7:00; evening service at 8:00. Services begin and close on time.

J. EDGAR PURDY, pastor.

Explaining Color of Races.
Almost every little girl knows that if she is very, very good her hair will curl, but who suspected that, if we stopped salting our food, we should become black and have flat noses? A European savant has it all worked out! Originally all men were black and remained so as long as they were content to live on fruit and roots. But the Americans began to eat meat and became red, the Asiatics began to mix use milk and became yellow, and the Caucasians ate too much salt and so turned white.—Youth's Companion.

Nice Mirrors.
A well-placed mirror often adds charm to a room. It should reflect some beautiful object, such as a cabinet surmounted by a vase of flowers. Mirrors are being used more and more in house furnishing, with excellent results.

New Organ of Balance.
Dr. G. Vitall, the Italian naturalist, has discovered that birds and bats have a small sense organ or vesicle situated on the middle wall of the tympanic (drum) cavity of their ears. When this is removed they seem to have no sense of balance. Vitall concludes that this organ, which reacts to variations of pressure within the middle-ear, thus enables the bird to determine the density of the air through which it is moving, and regulates its muscular movements accordingly.

Lincoln Ancestor Owned Slaves.
An account for 1735 shows that Merced Lincoln paid for slaves for his "negro man." From this we may infer that the great-grandfather of Abraham Lincoln probably owned a negro slave in Pennsylvania 138 years before the Emancipation proclamation.—Chesman A. Herrick, in North American Review.

Cleans Sponge.
A sponge which has become too hard to use can be softened if put in clear cold water to which a little borax has been added. Let the water boil, remove the sponge, rub some borax into it and rinse in cold water.

THE JEWETT IS HERE!

The New Jewett is now on exhibition in our show room. To you and everyone who is interested in motor cars, we extend a cordial invitation to see this car and arrange for demonstration.

And we don't hesitate to say in advance that you are going to be surprised, delighted and not a little mystified. You are going to be surprised because the Jewett is all that you have imagined—and a great deal more. You are going to be delighted because it is the very car that you have hoped for, the car that meets the requirements you have wished for these many years. You are going to be mystified because you will view for the first time a fine quality six at the price of a four.

The Jewett has a fifty horsepower, six cylinder motor; 112 inches of wheel base and comfortable accommodation for five full-grown passengers. It is a six because a six is a mechanism of inherent balance. It is fifty horsepower because ample power is the prime essential of perfect performing ability under all conditions.

It was designed by Paige engineers, built by Paige mechanics and in the Paige shops. THE JEWETT IS THE LITTLE BROTHER OF THE RELIABLE PAIGE.

It is a motor car of amazing spirit—real beauty—unlimited stamina. The wealthiest man in the land might well be proud to own and drive one. Yet, it is in the class of the medium priced car.

It is new in name but as sound and trustworthy as it's sponsors, The Paige-Detroit Motor Car Company.

Come in and see it for yourself. Come prepared to ride in one. Then you will readily realize what a fifty horsepower motor means to the economical, dependable performance of a motor car.
