BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

GLADNESS IN SERVICE:—
Serve the Lord with gladness. Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name. For the Lord is good.—Psalm 100: 2, 4.

ERADICATING TUBERCULOSIS

Tuberculosis is on the decline in this country, according to Dr. Ralph C. Matson, of Portland, who will be remembered as having visited friends in Bend last winter. Dr. Matson is one of the Oregon authorities on the treatment of this disease and with his brother maintains a successful sanatorium in Portland.

Since the disease is on the decline, Dr. Matson concludes, it is under control and will be eradicated eventually. In order to speed the day he urges that communities take an active interest in the tuberculosis situation and determine if all is being done that should be done to stamp out the Great White Plague. His opinion should be given special weight here in Bend which has its share of these cases plus many that come here from elsewhere to obtain the benefit of the desirable local conditions.

Dr. Matson says:
"If you are interested in safeguarding the people from this pestilential disease, you can render valuable service in the following way:
"1. By joining the local tuberculosis organizations and other public health societies in carrying out a general educational campaign in regard to the cause and prevention of tuberculosis.

"2. By creating interest in the establishment of city or county tuberculosis sanatoria.

"3. By supporting the public officials in the enforcement of the law requiring the reporting of all tuberculosis cases by physicians; in enforcing anti-spitting ordinances and all other laws and ordinances having to do with the public health.

"4. By urging upon boards of education the employment of school nurses, the establishment of medical inspection and medical examination of school children, and the creation of open air schools for tuberculosis and sickly children.

"5. By stimulating interest in the development of the public health department, and the employment by such department of public health nurses and sanitary inspectors; and by encouraging the local health department in the supervision and inspection of dairies and in the fumigation and disinfection of infected premises, etc.

"Innumerable ways are open for the intelligent citizen to render aid to the community, along these and similar lines, for the improvement of the public health."

Besides these general instructions it is time that we here in Bend consider seriously whether an effort is to be made to secure a state tuberculosis hospital. The present hospital in Salem is overcrowded; more room must be provided. Bend is a most desirable location. The sufferers from the disease are here now, sent in by their home physicians, in many cases living under wholly improper conditions and thereby endangering not only themselves but the rest of the community. A hospital is needed for their care. If any effort is to be made to secure it now is the time to begin.

Squirrels Store Nuts.

Not a few mammals are in the habit of hiding surplus food, and it is easy to imagine how this might lead on to a more definite storing instinct such as squirrels show. In a number of different boards the squirrel hides hazelnuts, beechnuts and acorns, and these may be a standby in the hard times of winter when the beautiful creature, which is not a true winter sleeper, is unable to sleep away its hunger, or when the young ones, which remain for a long time in the company of the parents, plead for food. In some mild climates the squirrel's storing instinct seem to remain undeveloped.

Imaginary Ills

I often weep for Pink McGill, who lives next door but two; he thinks he is extremely ill, that shortly he'll be through, and sleeping idly on the hill, beneath the sod and dew. He talks for hours about his aches, in wearisome despair; and yet I think his pains are fakes, a pipe dream and a snare, and he could whip his weight in snakes and never sweat a hair. If he would cease to grieve and whine about imagined pains, and say, "Today I'm feeling fine, from bootheels up to brains," his face with ruddy health would shine, brisk blood would warm his veins. Old Pink McGill would be a peach if he'd forget his ills, and cease to murmur and to reach for Dr. Fantod's pills, and fire the druggist and the leech who fill him up with squills. For he's a man of many gifts, well versed in ancient lore, and wise to all the noble shifts of bards and seers of yore; but as he is he merely lifts a bottle from the floor. Oh, he could tell us splendid tales of lonely ships and seas, of pawing steeds and armored males whose banners rode the breeze, but as he is he only wails of spasms in his knees. He shows a most indecent haste when there's new dope to try; and he is taking pills that taste like hens' nests in July; and so a good man goes to waste—and this is why I cry.

HARD SLUGGING WINS FOR BEND

Madras Defeated On Rough Field—Team Entertained At Fish Fry.

In what would have been a close contest except for the fact that almost every ball hit beyond the infield was a safe hit on account of the rough outfield, Bend's baseball team won yesterday at Madras from the Madras team by a score of 21 to 7. Up to the fourth inning the game was scoreless; but a combination of six successive hits off D. Young in that inning, and another period of swatting in the sixth during which Bend men batted 15 times, ended the closeness of the contest. A return game will be played here next Sunday.

The game was played on a new field just completed near the fish hatchery where yesterday the people of Madras and Jefferson county generally held a picnic and fish fry, at which the members of the Bend team and other visitors from Bend were entertained with a sumptuous lunch, including all the fried trout they could find room for. The picnic was held in an apple orchard next to the Deschutes, 12 miles northwest of Madras.

Three Circuit Clouts Made

Two home runs by Russell and one by Watts of Madras, and timely three base hits by Springer and Kennedy, were among the features of the game. Bend's team played unusually good ball in the field, considering the handicaps of the rough ground. Simpson pitched good ball for six innings, allowing only 5 hits. Leverett pitched two innings and Springer, one.

D. Young, pitching for Madras, was hit freely after the third inning.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON FOR THE COUNTY OF MULTNOMAH

First National Bank of Redmond, a corporation, Plaintiff, vs.

J. C. Cockerham, Defendant.

No. H-2827.

Notice of Sale Upon Attachment Execution

By virtue of an attachment execution issued by the County Clerk of Multnomah County, State of Oregon, on the 5th day of May, 1922, to me directed upon a judgment rendered and entered in the above entitled Court and cause on the 12th day of July, 1921, in favor of plaintiff and against defendant for the principal sum of $2,350.00, with interest thereon at the rate of 10 per cent per annum from January 12, 1920, until paid; and the further principal sum of $650.00, with interest thereon at the rate of 10 per cent per annum, from January 12, 1920, until paid; and the further sum of $200.00, with interest thereon at the rate of 6 per cent per annum, from July 12, 1921, as attorney's fees, and for the further sum of $46.35, with interest thereon at the rate of 6 per cent per annum from July 12, 1921, taxed as costs and disbursements and for accruing costs, and the following described premises having been duly attached in the above entitled action on the 7th day of January, 1921, as the property of said defendant, J. C. Cockerham, to-wit:
The Southeast Quarter (¼) of the Southwest Quarter (¼) of Section Nine (9), Township Fifteen (15) South, of Range Thirteen (13) East of the Willamette Meridian, situated in Deschutes County, State of Oregon.

Now, Therefore, by virtue of said attachment execution and the judgment order in said action and in compliance with the commands of said Writ, I will, on the 17th day of June, 1922, at 10 o'clock A. M., at the front door of the Court House in Bend, Deschutes County, Oregon, sell at public auction, subject to redemption to the highest bidder for cash in hand, all the right, title, claim and interest which the said defendant, J. C. Cockerham has in said premises or had thereon on the 7th day of January, 1921, the date of the attachment of said premises in this action, or has since acquired, to satisfy said execution and judgment, interest, costs and accruing costs.

Dated at Bend, Oregon, this 15th day of May, 1922.
