

DENIES MAKING TRACKS WHICH LEAD TO HOME

La Pine Man Permits Search

CONTINUE FIRE PROBE

Pomeroy Predicts Rate Advance If Conflagration Hazard Here Is Removed—Fire Chief Complimented.

Denial that he had made tracks found leading to his home from the La Pine school building, destroyed by fire Monday morning, was made by Fred Shintaffer when interviewed in the course of investigations conducted yesterday. Deputy State Fire Marshal H. H. Pomeroy stated today, following his trip to La Pine last night with Deputy Marshal L. H. Davis and Deputy Sheriff George Stokoe. Part of the sole of a rubber shoe was found in the house by Stokoe earlier in the day, closely approximating in size the tracks about which investigations centered. Pomeroy said. He was unable to give further information this afternoon, but stated that the investigation is still under way.

Bearing a search warrant issued by Justice of the Peace E. D. Gilson, the officers entered the Shintaffer home last night. Use of the warrant was not necessary, however, no objection being made to the search.

Rate May Advance

Pomeroy commented on the failure to remove the Aune barn, classified as a conflagration hazard, declaring that in his opinion owners of property in the business section might expect an increase in insurance rates because of the continued menace of the building which more than a year ago was condemned by the city council. He spoke highly of the work which has been done here by Fire Chief Tom Carlson in the elimination of fire risks.

After conducting a thorough probe in the effort to fix responsibility for the Prineville conflagration of last week, Pomeroy stated that no definite results had been attained.

NO WORD FROM REED ON PAVEMENT REPAIR

"Dignified Silence" Maintained, Says Benson—Plant Remains In Bend.

Many weeks ago, C. S. Reed, Los Angeles contractor who laid the patent hard surface pavement now in use on a number of Bend streets, promised to come to Central Oregon this summer and repair cracks which have opened since the pavement was laid last summer. Since then, however, according to C. S. Benson, city attorney, who carried on the correspondence with Reed, "he has maintained a dignified silence."

J. S. Innes, chairman of the streets committee of the council, states that he has had no word from Reed to indicate when the promised repairs will be made.

The paving plant used by the contractor last year is still in Bend.

OREGON SHOOT ARRANGEMENTS ARE COMPLETE

Final Traps Set At Pilot Butte Field

NO ADMISSION CHARGE

Attendance of Local People Desired—Annual Meeting Second Night—Local Team To Make Strong Bid For Honors.

Complete arrangements have been made at the Pilot Butte traps for the state tournament commencing Sunday, the final traps having been placed yesterday. Space for spectators' cars, and seats in the clubhouse for spectators who wish to use them, have been provided. No charge will be made for spectators, and local people are asked to turn out and show that they are interested in the affair.

The 50,000 clay pigeons which will be used in the tournament are already stored at the grounds.

Plan Entertainment

A meeting of the state officers and officers of the local trapshooting club will be held Wednesday evening, to make definite plans for the entertainment of the visitors. A banquet will probably be held on Monday evening, and on Tuesday evening the annual meeting of the Oregon State Trapshooters' association, at which time officers will be elected to serve during the coming year, and the place of the next annual tournament decided upon. Present officers are Dr. J. C. Vandever, president; R. N. Buchwalter, vice president; H. D. Innes, secretary and treasurer, all of Bend. Members of the board of directors are J. W. Searcy, J. C. Morris, M. A. Rickard, L. P. Casselberry, P. B. Dodelle and L. D. Drake.

No definite trips for the entertainment of the visiting sportsmen have been arranged, but all have been advised to come prepared to camp out, and local sportsmen are all planning to take the visitors on trips to the lakes where trout are plentiful, to acquaint them with the advantages of Central Oregon along sporting lines. Many of them will go to East lake.

Locals Show Form

In an effort to bring the marksmanship of the Bend team up to a par with the best in the state, so that the local experts may be in the running in the tournament, practice shoots are being held every evening this week.

Last night Dr. W. G. Manning made his second perfect score of 25 for the season, other scores over the 25 bird course being: Dr. J. C. Vandever, 23; E. L. Douthitt, 21; Clay Miller, 21; R. S. Hamilton, 20; S. T. Fox, 22. Fox also made a good showing in practice at the difficult art of shooting "doubles," two targets being sprung at the same instant.
