

SOCIETY

Notes for publication in the social column in the Saturday issue of The Bulletin must be in not later than 5:30 o'clock on the afternoon of the day preceding.

With the advent of the summer motoring, outing and vacation season, and the end of the school year, the number of social events took a decided drop this week. Time which has been devoted to evening and afternoon card parties and other indoor gatherings is now being saved up for the week-end auto trip to the mountains and lakes, while the inclination to entertain is lessened by the fact that many of those who would ordinarily be guests are away for a vacation. The reaction from the busy commencement season has also had its effect in producing a lull in social activities.

A novel meeting of Percy A. Stevens Post No. 4, American Legion, will be that of next Thursday evening when the members of the Ladies' auxiliary have been invited to attend their first post business meeting. Joint meetings have been held before, but the ladies have not been present during the business session. Feeling that they should be given an insight into the inner workings of the men's organization, the auxiliary members have been asked to attend this meeting. A dance and luncheon will follow.

Mrs. C. H. Knowles and Mrs. Caroline Horner were elected to represent the Bend auxiliary at the department convention to be held July 27, 28 and 29 at The Dalles, at the same time as the Legion convention. Mrs. Charles F. Bloom and Mrs. Roy Van Vleet were chosen as alternates. Plans for continuing the work of making garments for the Red Cross to be used in government hospitals of the northwest were discussed.

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hayden, who will leave for their new home in The Dalles, a picnic breakfast was held last Sunday morning at the Shanburrough ranch, attended by the members of the Bend Study club and their husbands. Twenty-nine persons attended. Following the breakfast, a large number of those who attended motored to Prineville, where they enjoyed a picnic lunch.

A farewell party for Miss Edna Rapp, who left Sunday morning to make her home at Baker, was held last Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. P. D. McDougal, 412 East Kearney street. Dancing and card playing were the evening's diversions. Refreshments were served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Gage, Mr. and Mrs. C. Burns, Mrs. Floyd Turner, the guest of honor and the hostess.

A very pleasant afternoon was spent last Saturday at the home of Miss Hallie Marie Dudrey, the occasion being her sixth birthday. Games were played, and a dainty luncheon served. Those present were Phyllis Rasmussen, Elaine Rasmussen, Doris Coombs, Frieda Jaeger, Lallie Hope, Audrey Gibson, Lissie Spencer, Marian Staats, Maxine Verback, Jackie Dudrey, Jack Ferguson, and Bobbie Fellos.

Seventeen members of the Presbyterian guild braved the storm of Wednesday afternoon to attend the meeting at the church. Mrs. Carrie D. Manny and Mrs. John Dubuis were hostesses.

An enjoyable party was given at the home of W. H. Fehrenbacher, at the "10 Bar" ranch, Saturday night, May 27, the evening being spent playing five hundred and dancing. Prizes for five hundred were given to Mrs. Johnson, Mr. Frost, Miss Nichols and Mr. Johnson. Musical selections were offered by Mrs. Johnson, and music for the dance was furnished by the Fehrenbacher brothers, assisted by H. Colver. Dainty refreshments were served at midnight by the hostess, Mrs. Fehrenbacher, assisted by Mrs. Reynolds, Mrs. Graham and Mrs. Renno.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frost, Mr. and Mrs. Colver, Mr. and Mrs. G. Erickson, Mr. and Mrs. E. Obernalte, Mr. and Mrs. F. Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. E. Stookey, Mrs. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Fehrenbacher, the Misses Nicholson, Elizabeth Reynolds, Esther Erickson, Cecile Marschan, Thelma Puett, Dorothy Puett, Jeanette Stookey, Evelyn Fehrenbacher, Mildred Frost and Margaret Colver, Mesdames Howard Frost, Henry Colver, Raymond Marchand, Ernest Davis, D. Renno, R. Colver, J. Stookey and Jerome Fehrenbacher.

One of the most enjoyable events of commencement week was that with which it closed, the annual alumni reception on Saturday night at the Elks' club. The graduating seniors, just entering the ranks of the alumni, were given a good natured initiation, which included the introduction of each member of the class to those present, by himself or herself.

All of the ladies present were attired in attractive gingham dresses, while the men wore overalls or other working attire. Punch was served. Members of the committee in charge were Mr. and Mrs. Craig Coyner, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan McGillivray and Robert K. Innes.

Election of officers for the coming year was held, Ivan McGillivray being chosen president to succeed Craig Coyner, Miss Louise Inabnit, vice-president, and Miss Fern Aellen, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. James Elliott returned Friday morning from Portland, accompanied by Miss Carolyn Mohr of Portland and Georgie and Katherine Wilson of Vancouver, who will spend the summer with Mrs. Elliott.

An attractive dinner party was given on Tuesday by Mr. and Mrs. L. A. W. Nixon at their home on Delaware avenue. Covers were laid for sixteen. After the dinner cards were enjoyed. Honors were won by Mrs. Horace Richards and A. R. Leary.

CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Presbyterian Church

Sunday will be a great day at the Presbyterian church. In addition to the regular morning service, Children's Day will be celebrated and a congregational meeting will transact important church business.

Sunday school will meet as usual at 9:45, but shortly after 10 o'clock will adjourn to enjoy the special program of recitations and songs arranged by Mrs. John Dubuis. The children will remain for the early part of the morning service which will be given over to them. The pastor will speak briefly to the children and will baptize Jeffrey Coleman Kitchen, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kitchen, of 204 Delaware; Phyllis Elizabeth Sumner, baby daughter of Mrs. Viola Sumner of the Leverett apartments; Chester Arthur Horn, eight year old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Horn, of West First street; Lawrence Cottrell Nielsen and Mildred Lou Nielsen, children of Mr. and Mrs. Max Nielsen, 1532 Awbrey road, and some others.

At the close of the morning service a congregational meeting will be called to act upon the proposed budget and to elect several new officers. The pastor will preach at both morning and evening services and in the afternoon at Tumalo.

The Christian Endeavor society will meet at 7 p. m., the subject being "Teamwork: Helps and Hindrances."

It is hoped that Rev. D. A. Thompson, of Portland, new superintendent of Presbyterian home missions in Oregon, will be in Bend on Sunday, June 18, to speak at both morning and evening services.

On the last Sunday of the month, June 25, the Lord's Supper will be celebrated and new members will be received.

The work of the church is getting under way in splendid shape. Old members who have drifted away are coming back and new friends are being made at every service. All who seek the fellowship of simple and dignified worship and a live Christian organization are invited to join with us.

Jackson L. Webster, pastor.

What Do You Want In a New Motor Car?

- 1.—Correct design.
- 2.—Economy of price and upkeep.
- 3.—Proper construction.
- 4.—Long life.
- 5.—Accessibility.

The embodiment of these five qualities makes the best in motor cars.

Nothing can take their places.

With these you have VALUE—

With VALUE you have "TRADE-IN PRICE." Investigate new cars offered you—compare each one. Look for these five points.

Be sure you are shown the best value in the car you buy—the "trade-in value" will then take care of itself.

Ask for demonstration on any model of Buick. A ride in one will convince you of its superiority.
