

SEEK TO AVERT DROP IN TRADE

Japan Facing Serious Depression—Government Aid Asked.

By Clarence Dubose
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

TOKIO, June 21. — The biggest brains in Japanese business are seeking ways to avert the threatening wave of commercial and industrial depression.

Conferences and discussions were continuing, and financial leaders were still hopeful of averting a Japanese business crisis. For weeks some have feared the precipitation of such a crisis at any time. Others, while facing the fact of a present serious stagnancy and seemingly certain period of severe depression, believe that an actual crisis will be averted.

Money has become abnormally tight. The listings on every exchange have slumped—some violently. Speculation and inflation, heritages of the war boom, are still unliquidated. If these boom readjustments are forced now, many big concerns may close and many thousands of workmen be thrown out.

In a business and economic sense, Japan is just realizing the war is over. The slump that came to Europe over two years ago and to the United States and most South American countries well over a year ago is just threatening Japan in 1922. War prices and war profits are still being maintained here—artificially. But buying is getting slackier every day. People are refusing to pay, and most are unable to pay the exorbitant prices. Japan is losing her foreign trade because her prices are in most cases much higher than any other country.

With the banks refusing loans, the buyers striking, labor getting uglier and more discontented, the exchanges demoralized and all the business world fearful, the situation is filled with exceeding uncertainty.

Depression and readjustment are inevitable, every authority agrees. The question is whether the financial storm will be sudden and calamitous, leaving business wreckage and bankruptcies in its wake, or whether the readjustment can be conducted slowly and without such disaster.

Japanese newspapers are filled with demands that the "government do something." But there isn't much the government can do.

SHORTHORNS TO BE SEEN ON SATURDAY

Tumalo Association Will Hold Excursion—Starts From Bend In Morning.

Saturday's excursion of the Tumalo Shorthorn association will start from Bend at 9 o'clock, visiting the A. E. Griffin, Olaf Anderson, Hobson, and Percy & Son ranches during the morning, according to County Agriculturist D. L. Jamison. The members of the association will be accompanied by H. A. Lundgren of O. A. C., and A. E. Lawson, northwest representative of the national shorthorn association.

After leaving the Percy & Son ranch, the party will go to Tumalo for dinner, said Jamison, visiting the A. J. Harter, F. G. Powers and Live-ay Bros. ranches. About 80 head of purebred shorthorns will be seen.

On Sunday a picnic will be held at the island below the Becker ranch, with a business meeting in the forenoon, and speeches by the visiting experts later, as well as other features.

RAIN BADLY NEEDED ON ROAD TO SOUTH

The Klamath Falls road is good as far as Sand Creek, according to G. A. Johnson, driver of the stage; but from that point south a rain is sorely needed, as the road is badly cut up, following work which has been done on it.

SAFES ARE CRACKED BY PORTLAND YEGGS

(By United Press to The Bend Bulletin.)
PORTLAND, June 21.—Yeggmen cracked two safes in downtown stores last night, escaping with nearly a thousand dollars in cash. They beat off the safe doors with hammers and chisels. Police believe the same gang did both jobs.

Not even USCO ever touched this value before
30 x 3 1/2 - $10.90

WHEN you look at a 30 x 3 1/2 USCO at $10.90 think back for a minute as far as you can remember USCO.

Since last fall when USCO established the $10.90 price range they have recognized it as a value beyond any possible comparison.

The truth is that men always found USCO an outstanding money's worth no matter what its price.

A still greater money's worth than even USCO itself had reached before.

Today at $10.90 USCO maintains its established standard of quality.

30 x 3 1/2 USCO $10.90

And because of the new price, it sets a new index of tire value.

Men who have used USCO have never been inclined to measure its value by the general run of tires.
