Meets Railroad Association Head

JEWELL IN CAPITAL

Is Summoned Into Conference By President—Commerce Commission May Extend Territory To Rockies.

(By United Press to The Bend Bulletin.)
WASHINGTON, July 27.—President Harding continued his rail strike conferences today, first holding a lengthy conference with Dewitt Cuyler, president of the American Association of Railway Executives, representing all of the railroads involved.

He then summoned Bert Jewell, shopcrafts leader. From those conferences the president hopes to evolve a concrete plan for restoration of peace and normal conditions.

Cuyler expressed his opinion, following the conference, that Harding might be successful in his attempt very soon.

The interstate commerce commission may extend its emergency control to include the territory between the Mississippi river and the Rocky mountains, according to authoritative information here.

Have you met Cicero Sapp?

Maybe you think you haven't, but you have, just the same.

Stop and think

There's a Cicero Sapp in every town. He may be your next door neighbor. If he is, you'll recognize him once you've seen Cicero in The Bulletin.

Now you remember, Don't You?

Cicero Sapp is a type from real life. Sometimes he's a little overdrawn, and sometimes a little underdrawn, just according to who you think the original is. But he's real. That's what makes Fred Locher's colored comics so truly enjoyable to the youngsters who see the uproarious fun of it all, and to their dads and mothers who recognize the clever touches of satire.

BURNS MAY GET RAILROAD LINE

Road Necessary To Open Up Big Timber Body, Is Agreed.

PORTLAND, July 27.—Construction of a 70 mile railroad spur, opening up vast tracts of standing timber and connecting Burns with Seneca, in the Bear river valley district, is deemed likely, following a conference held here between Harney county representatives, Chief United States Forester Greeley, Governor Ben Olcott and W. D. B. Dodson of the Portland chamber of commerce.

In the section which would be served by such a line, covering a part of the Malheur national forest in Grant and Harney counties, lie approximately seven billion board feet of pine, six billion of which is government owned. The other billion is in the hands of private interests. This region, according to District Forester H. Cecil, has never been tapped.

The existing railroads, according to those at the conference, have felt that the expenditure necessary in building a spur line into this territory would be entirely out of proportion to the small returns. Until some development was launched in the region, the attitude of such lines toward the proposed road would continue to be unfavorable, it was said.

After several appeals from the residents of the Bear river valley district the forest service saw the possibility of offering the huge stands of pine timber to logging interests, the conference being the outcome.

Survey and appraisal of the timber have been completed, according to the forest service, and shortly a block of some 800,000,000 feet will be placed on the market.

It is planned to advertise the timber throughout the country, particularly in the southern states, to interest concerns contemplating operations in more productive territory. Prices will be $2.75 a thousand board feet for the pine timber and 50 cents a thousand for all other species of wood contained in the block.

The contract for the timber will call for the building of a standard gauge common carrier road from Burns to Seneca, the building of a sawmill with capacity of between 50 and 50 million feet of timber a year near Burns. The total expenditure will probably be about $2,000,000, according to Cecil.

Judge William Farr and I. S. Geer of Burns, in Bend this morning on their way home after the Portland conference, stated that they, as well as other Burns people, are anxious for direct rail connection with Bend. They expressed themselves as well satisfied with the result of the conference in Portland.

CONVENTION OPENED

Wrecking Party Held On Island—State Officers Relected—Banquet Elaborate—500 Register for Meetings

(Special to The Bulletin.)
THE DALLES, July 27.—The picturesque rites of La Society des 49 Hommes et 8 Chevaux were administered to 45 candidates by the Bend vulture wrecking crew here last night in the first grand promenade of the Oregon department. All of the national officers of the boxcar order were present.

At the 10 et 8 banquet last night, M. Connolly of Bend, captain of the wrecking crew which conducted the initiation on the island near The Dalles, was elected grand conductor, or master of ceremonies, for the state. All other state officers were reelected.

The next state promenade will be held at the same place as the state Legion convention, it was decided. The elaborate banquet was opened at 11 o'clock and broke up at 2 o'clock this morning.

Make Impressive Entry

Organizing at Sherar, the special wrecking crew train made an impressive entry into The Dalles at 1 o'clock Wednesday. At that time over 500 visitors for the three conventions had registered. There was plenty of excitement previous to their arrival, but the latest visitors showed at once that they were not to be overlooked.

This morning at 8:30 o'clock the fourth annual Oregon department American Legion convention was called to order by Commander G. Lane Goodell of Portland. The Ladies' auxiliary convention will get under way later in the day.

City Elaborately Decorated

Every resident of The Dalles is behind the local legionnaires who are putting on the convention. It is clearly shown by the decorations on buildings, homes and streets. No previous convention has been held amid such a riot of color. Pat Foley, commander of The Dalles Post No. 19, and his committee, have been working more than a month in preparation for the four day festivities.

National Campaigns By Radiophone Planned By Parties; Broadcasting Station Would Assist Congressmen

(By United Press to The Bend Bulletin.)
WASHINGTON, July 27.—Two big political radiophone broadcasting stations probably will be set up by the republican and democratic national committees for campaigning purposes. Political publicity would be circulated throughout the country by these stations, which would facilitate campaigning. Tentative proposals have been submitted to Chairman John T. Adams of the republican national committee for setting up a $25,000 station on the roof of the Munsey building, where republican headquarters are located.

Work will not be begun on the station until congress places its sanction on the suggestions of Secretary of Commerce Hoover for government supervision of radio telephony.

Judge Cordell, chairman of the democratic national committee, also has signified his intention of setting up a station if the republicans carry out their plans.

Prospects of a long summer session of congress has lent impetus to the new suggestions. Many political leaders will be retained here and the radiophones would enable them to get in some campaigning while remaining in the capital.

MINE WALKOUT WON, DECLARES HEAD OF UNION

CONFERENCE IS SOON

Employers of Four States Signify Willingness—Early Settlement of Trouble Is Now Deemed Probable.

(By United Press to The Bend Bulletin.)
PHILADELPHIA, July 27.—"The miners have won their strike," President Lewis of the union declared this afternoon. "Joint conferences will be held within the next few days. The men will eventually return to the pits at the same wages received when they walked out April 1," he said.

AGREE ON CONFERENCE

INDIANAPOLIS, July 27.—The end of the national coal strike appeared nearer today than it has for weeks. Governor Warren McCray of Indiana declared that Indiana coal mine operators are ready to enter an interstate wage conference, and groups from Ohio and western Pennsylvania today signified their desire for negotiations covering Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and western Pennsylvania.

Illinois operators have been willing to enter a four state conference since the strike began on March 31.

The operators' refusal to enter an interstate wage conference to effect new wage scales was one of the chief causes for the miners' walkout.

MINERS OPTIMISTIC

PHILADELPHIA, July 27.—Miners' leaders, assembled here today, predicted that the miners will be back in the pits in 30 days.

John Ressler, one of the leaders, declared "the strike is won for the miners," and voiced his expectation of a joint conference soon to adjust the difficulties with the operators.
