Roast Wife--

No man wants to brag about having roast wife at his house. Still it is a fact in many homes in Bend, as she stands over a hot stove these days.

Doing the family baking, week in and week out, is more or less a point of pride in many homes. Development in the baking business, however, now insures better cakes and pies from the bakeshop—much cheaper than they can be had at home—with quality as good or better.

Insist upon the wife taking it easy during the hot months. Let us supply the home with bread, cakes, pies, rolls, and other tempting baked goods.
