Scientific Bill Making Plan Is Proposed By Inventive Genius

By Kenneth W. Clark
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—Thomas A. Edison, inventive genius of the century, has offered a "scientific bill making plan" to congress.

This was learned by the publication of Edison's testimony on the Muscle Shoals, Alabama, power and nitrate projects, before the senate agricultural committee.

"I worked in Washington during the war," the aged inventor told the committee. "I found out after a while that a lot of these fellows that were running the details of this government were false; they were not the real thing; they were counterfeits."

"I am surprised that you don't draw your bills differently," he continued. "Draw up a skeleton of your bill and specify the initial thing you have to do, and when that is done you will find out what the first step costs."

"Now, go ahead and continue it on by supplement, so you will know the progress of all your legislation and make them show up between each supplement. You would have saved five or six billion dollars here and you would not have got a lot of these inefficient people."

"It comes in sections and each time they come for more money you make an amendment to the act. Let them have it, but they have to show up."

"Under the war administration nobody had to show up. You will have it showed up by and by."

"You should always pass a bill that contains just the rudiments of the entire bill," Edison urged. "then you have the first start, the instrumentalities you start with to make that thing function; and spend several million dollars."

"When you have got through the first stage, let them come to congress and get the additional legislation to go ahead a little further, and when you have got through an examination of what has been done, you will know if there is anything rotten in that, because you will see how all the money has been spent."

"But the way you do it now you make the bill and quit and never hear anything, and you try to get some information and you don't get any and all. They double-cross you all the time."

HERDER ADMITS HE CAUSED FIRE; FINED

Five Acres Of Jack Pine Burned Over At Crescent—Bowman's Crew Is Active.

M. C. Berry, shepherd, pleaded guilty yesterday in justice court at Crescent, to a charge of causing a fire which occurred near there Sunday. It was reported by J. D. Bowman, fire warden, on his return. Bowman and his crew extinguished the fire. Five acres of jack pine were burned over. Berry paid a fine of $25 and costs.

A fire reported yesterday in the vicinity of Paulina creek was gotten under control last night with damage to less than an acre of timber, Bowman reported. Lightning was believed to be the cause.

FINE LEVIED JUST ELIMINATES PROFIT

A fine which neatly subtracted the profit which H. O. Piery had expected from running with a touring car and a truck under the same license, was levied by Recorder Ross Farnham Monday, following Piery's arrest by State Traffic Officer Earl B. Houston. A license for the year would have cost $35. A license from now until the end of the year will cost $17.50. So at Houston's suggestion the fine was made $17.50.

To Holders of Victory Bonds

The United States Treasury has issued a call for the redemption on December 15th, 1922, of about One Billion Dollars of the 4 1/2 per cent Victory Notes outstanding.

The notes called for redemption bear the distinguishing letters A, B, C, D, E, or F prefixed to the serial number.

In order to provide for the gradual retirement of these notes, the Secretary of the Treasury has announced that until further notice 4 1/2 per cent Victory Notes will be redeemed upon presentation with all unpaid coupons attached at par and accrued interest to date of delivery.

We offer our facilities to our depositors and to the public for the redemption of their outstanding Victory Notes.
