In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.—John 1:1, 3.

ENOUGH

Study of the lines which the Oregon Trunk proposes to follow in running south to Klamath Falls from Bend develops various interesting ideas, chief among them being the thought that the lines have been selected as much with the plan of impressing the Southern Pacific with the desirability of granting common use of its rails from Odell or Skookum to Klamath Falls as of anything.

Roughly, a map of the proposed lines and of the Southern Pacific from Skookum south suggests a three-lined fork. The handle of the fork, or the Oregon Trunk extension, begins at Bend and extends south to Skookum. From that point the middle line would represent the Southern Pacific and the two side lines the Oregon Trunk. Between the two outer lines there would be little business to be developed. Outside them there would be a larger amount and while the three would have to share what was between, there would come to the two outside ones alone all business from the east and west. In other words there would be nothing for the Southern to build feeder lines for. The feeders would all run to the outer lines.

One would suppose that rather than permit such a condition the Southern would permit common use, particularly if in doing so it was able to set up certain conditions in respect to Klamath business. However, all this remains to be seen. One can be certain of the fact that the Oregon Trunk, representing the Northern lines, is going to build and that is about all for the present.

It is enough though.

The Central Oregon Country (No. 238)

THE MOST ELABORATE AND BEST REMEMBERED ENTERTAINMENT WHICH HAS BEEN GIVEN IN BEND WAS THE "PARIS TOURS" CARNIVAL STAGED BY THE AMERICAN LEGION POST IN 1921, WHEN IT TOOK OVER THE ATHLETIC CLUB BUILDING, NOW THE SCHOOL GYMNASIUM.

THIS BUILDING HAD HAD A VARIED CAREER AND WAS COMMONLY REFERRED TO AS A "WHITE ELEPHANT." THE ATHLETIC CLUB PLAN HAD FAILED, AND THE INDUSTRIAL Y. M. C. A. HAD TRIED TWICE TO PUE THE BUILDING ON A PAYING BASIS WITHOUT SUCCESS. EACH TIME THE HOLDING COMPANY HAD FOUND IT NECESSARY TO TAKE A HAND AND LIQUIDATE THE DEBTS BY POPULAR SUBSCRIPTION.

IN JUNE, 1921, THE LEGION POST TOOK OVER THE BUILDING. THE HOLDING COMPANY CLEARED UP THE DEBTS, BUT THE BUILDING WAS BADLY IN NEED OF REPAIR, SO FOR THREE EVENINGS—JULY 14, 15 AND 16—THE LEGION HELD ITS PARISIAN CARNIVAL IN THE BUILDING WHICH HAD JUST BEEN REOPENED. ON THE MAIN FLOOR DANCING WAS CARRIED ON, WITH REFRESHMENT AND OTHER BOOTHS AROUND THE WALLS. IN THE CLUB ROOMS ON THE SECOND FLOOR WAS MONTE CARLO, WHERE TOURISTS WERE SEPARATED PAINLESSLY FROM THEIR "MONEY"—FRANCK FRANK. IN THE BASEMENT WAS A REALISTIC CABARET, WITH VAUDEVILLE ENTERTAINERS.

BUT MOST INTERESTING OF ALL WAS THE MYSTERIOUS ROOM IN THE ATTIC WHERE "FL-FL" FROM PARIS, HELD FORTH AND ENTERTAINED. FL-FL'S APPEARANCE IN BEND, STRENUOUSLY OPPOSED BY THE POLICE, WAS THE OCCASION FOR A NEAR RIOT FOR THE REASON THAT SOME OF THE POLICE AND SOME OF THE LEGION MEN WERE NOT IN ON THE JOKE.

HUGE CROWDS FILLED THE GYMNASIUM EACH EVENING, AND THE LEGION SECURED FUNDS SUFFICIENT TO PAY THE NECESSARY REPAIRS ON THE BUILDING AND TO START ITS ATHLETIC CLUB PROGRAM. BUT THE NEW CLUB RECEIVED NO BETTER SUPPORT THAN HAD THE PREVIOUS ONES, AND AFTER OPERATING THE BUILDING FOR A YEAR, THE POST TURNED IT OVER TO THE SCHOOL DISTRICT—SINCE WHEN THE TERM "WHITE ELEPHANT" HAS CEASED TO BE APPLICABLE.

Rippling Rhymes by Walt Mason

HONEST CRITICISM Charles Chigsmith studies art with ardor, to paint a masterpiece he tries, and makes my hard existence harder by asking me to criticize. "Just speak right out, your true opinion," he says to me, "don't curb your tongue, if I'm a frost in art's dominion, I want to know it while I'm young. Fair criticism of my pictures is what I need, to set me right; so hand me out your sternest strictures, and I'll receive them with delight." I know full well he doesn't mean it, a hollow thing is every phrase; how often have I heard and seen it, this subterfuge for gaining praise! But since he asks a true expression of what I feel about his work, I gird my loins and make confession—no dare of that sort do I shrink. "These pictures are but total losses," I say, in sorrow, not in ire; "your cows resemble albatrosses, your skies look like a prairie fire. This portrait of King Henry's joker won't jar a Van Dyke from his bed; you use too much of yellow ochre, and not enough Venetian red. No doubt, friend Chigsmith, if you study for forty years or forty-three, you'll turn out paintings large and ruddy that men will travel miles to see." This I have done as he requested, and sprung the truth about his art, a sort of job I have detested—I hate to wound a comrade's heart. And now his nerves with anger quiver, his troubled breast is full of hate; he scatters tacks before my flivver, and kicks my dachshund through the gate.
