Executive For Scouts Changed, Announced

John H. Piper, formerly scout executive of region No. 8 of the Boy Scouts of America, with headquarters in Omaha, is to be the new executive of the northwest scout region, according to information received locally.

The new scout executive will succeed G. H. Oberhauser, who is known in Bend, having been here on several occasions. Oberhauser, who resigned about one month ago to take charge of the Portland scout council, will be acting executive of the district until June 1.

Piper was executive of the Seattle troops before going to district No. 8. His transfer to this district, comprising the states of Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana, is in accordance with his wishes, his interest being in the coast states.

Dies In Dentist's Chair, Accidental, Verdict Given

(U. P. Licensed Wire to The Bend Bulletin)
LONG BEACH, Cal., May 15.—An informal verdict of accidental death was returned by authorities today in the case of Mrs. Theodore Hansen, 53, who died in a dentist's chair. Mrs. Hansen collapsed shortly after receiving an anesthetic at the office of Dr. G. C. Burbank. Two hours' work by the inhalator crew of the fire department failed to revive her.

DOMESTIC CLASSES TO SHOW TUESDAY

Style Displays to Feature B. H. S. Student Work

Several plays will feature the exhibits of the high school domestic science and domestic art classes, to be held in the school gymnasium Tuesday night at 8 o'clock. The work of the various classes in preparing for the exhibits, which will include a style show, is being directed by Miss Ellen Dahl and Miss Anna Arnoldus, instructors.

"The Budget Ghost" is the name of one of the shows to be staged by the high school cooking class. Students taking part in this show will be Evelyn Roberts, Rae Palmer, Stella Claypool, Wilma Cummings, Hope Shepherd, Marjorie Smith, Bertha Cundell, Josephine Maraden, Minnie Hoover, Bernice Shaw, Alice Gates and Ella Massey. A second show, "Mother's Cure," will be staged by Bernice Shaw, Clarice Swick, Edna Ogile, Mae Palmer and Elizabeth Maraden.

Preceding the plays of the cooking classes, taught by Miss Dahl, the style show will be held, with the girls

Sofia, the capital of Bulgaria, at present one of the centers of interest in Europe, is for the most part quite a modern town. Since 1880 it has been almost entirely rebuilt and laid out in "European" style, the narrow, winding lanes of the old Turkish town having been replaced by broad streets bordered with fine buildings and houses of the most modern construction.
