Strong Closing Made
By Futures In Grain

(U. P. Leased Wire to The Bend Bulletin)
CHICAGO, May 16.—Grain futures had a strong finish on the Chicago board of trade today.

Wheat rallied sharply from an early dip on spirited buying inspired by fears of crop deterioration in the northwest with the return of cooler weather.

No export business was reported from the seaboard.

Short covering by yesterday's sellers and new outside investment buying sent corn upward.

Oats acted heavy. Buying by cash interests boosted May a fraction. July was unchanged and September made a good gain on unfavorable growing weather.

Provisions held steady. Cash wheat—No. 2 hard $1.71; No. 3 hard $1.70½.
