Redmond Wins Opening Game By Margin Of One Point

THIRTEEN HITS EARN 3 SCORES

Hidden Ball Retires Mill Men, Near Tie

With a team strengthened both in the field and at bat since its last appearance here, the Redmond ball tossers won Sunday afternoon on O'Donnell field from Shevlin-Hixon in a 3 to 2 game which was full of thrills in spite of the low score.

Redmond amassed 13 hits, but they were well spread out, and reckless base running and spectacular fielding held the score down. Shevlin-Hixon's eight hits likewise should have meant more runs, but the same factors served to prevent the local players from circling the diamond.

Pitching both on the part of Tetherow, Redmond's veteran thrower, and R. Russell of Shevlin-Hixon, was as effective as usual, as shown by the fact that neither issued more than one free pass. The number of hits Redmond got is attributable solely to the strengthening of its batting order and the improvement shown as the season gets under way. Notable along this line was the performance of Weigand, who has heretofore this season been a "hitless wonder," Sunday he poled out safely three times, one of his hits being a two bagger.

Pitchers Hit, Too

It was "pitchers' day" at bat. Tetherow and Russell each got three hits, Tetherow's string including a three bagger and Russell's a double. The best demonstration of the "fight" with which each team held down the score was that Tetherow's triple came when there were none out, but he was held on third base until the inning ended.

Spectacular catches were made by R. Russell and Taylor of Shevlin-Hixon and by Allen of Redmond.

Redmond scored two runs in the first inning on hits by Allen, Neil, Bruns and Weigand, before Russell had settled down to steady pitching. The third run came in the third inning, when Oliver, Bruns and Weigand singled in succession.

Shevlin-Hixon got a run in the third inning, F. Russell getting a single, and scoring on Stapleton's single and a poor throw from the outfield to third base.

Last Threat Fails

In the ninth inning Shevlin-Hixon threatened to tie the score. R. Russell doubled and Hodgson singled, scoring him. Hodgson stole second when Stow fouled out to Berning, Redmond catcher. Berning threw to second and during an argument over the play, Oliver, Redmond shortstop, hid the ball and tagged Hodgson out when he stepped off the base.

WILL RESUME PLAY IN TENNIS TOURNEY

Bend High Leading In All Divisions of Game

Victorious in all of its first round matches, the Bend high school tennis team will compete Tuesday afternoon at Redmond in the final matches of the girls' singles and doubles, and in the semi finals at least of the boys' singles and doubles. These matches were postponed from Saturday afternoon because of the rain.

In the boys' singles, Ballantyne of Bend will play Rodman of Culver in the semi finals, and the winner of that match will oppose Burdick of Redmond in the finals.

In boys' doubles, the Bend team, Loomis and McKay, will play Redmond and the winner will play Culver.

In girls' singles, the Prineville and Culver high school entrants will play the semi finals and the winner will play Beth Ager of Bend in the finals.

There is no semi final round in girls' doubles. The finals will be played between Katherine Redfield and Marian Smith of Bend, and Louise Pearce and Rebecca Johnson of Madras.

RACERS ON WAY HOME

(U. P. Leased Wire to The Bend Bulletin)

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 18.—Many of the eastern thoroughbreds which ran in the Kentucky derby Saturday were on their way back to the metropolitan tracks today. Gifford Cochran's Flying Ebony, winner of the $50,000 classic, traveled in royal style, alone in a special car, but the other stars had to share their quarters. Official figures show that $661,856 was bet on the derby, $165,000 of it going down on the favorite, Quatrain, which failed to show.

A tire made for the West—in the West!

IN A FEW MATTERS we Westerners gladly hand the palm to our Eastern friends. Building subways and skyscrapers—yes! Football—possibly. Climate—improbably. Pleasure auto driving—no!

We drive more months of the year . . . . . have greater scenic attractions. The "great open spaces" draw us farther from home. We know roads—and autos—and tires!

Which, in a way, accounts for the success of C-T-C tires. They are built in the West to meet Western conditions.

Eastern engineers came West to build them—but they make them for the West as well as in the West!

Today they are ranked as one of the three or four really fine tires in America. They are the largest-selling tires made in a Western-owned factory.

Motorists in the nine western states know what a tire should do. Their purchases show that C-T-C does it!

Come in and let us show you this remarkable tire.

Yanks, Tigers Fighting For Low League Rating

Most Modern Methods of Losing Games Are Revealed to Fans By Persistent Losses of Week

(By United Press Leased Wire to The Bend Bulletin)

NEW YORK, May 18.—Losing ball games with a perfection that has been equalled by few other good clubs, the New York Yankees and the Detroit Tigers are fighting to take away from Boston last place in the American league.

The two teams, picked as sure pennant contenders, are going so badly that the annual rumors of a change in management are heard. There probably is little to the rumors.

While the Yankees and the Tigers are giving an exhibition of the most modern methods of losing games, the Athletics are giving lessons to the other teams in the most approved fashion of winning. Connie Mack's speeding youngsters went through the week without losing a game and have chalked up nine victories in a row. Gray, Rommel and Harris are pitching the best ball in the major leagues.

The champion Washington Senators won five of their seven games last week and are holding a commanding position.

The Cleveland Indians copped four out of their six games and they look good for the season. The White Sox in dropping only two of their six starts also look like a first division certainty.

The National league pennant race continues to hold the prospect of a runaway victory for the New York Giants. The Cincinnati Reds, which seem to be the best team in the league outside of New York, had a disastrous smash in losing the entire series to the champions and they dropped from second to fifth place. The Cubs also hit the bumps last week and fell to seventh position.

After a miserable start the Pittsburgh Pirates finally got together and they are now in fourth place and almost certain to go higher, as the Phillies have no business in the first division and cannot hope to remain where they are.

Walker Takes Battle, To Continue Training

(U. P. Leased Wire to The Bend Bulletin)

LOS ANGELES, May 18.—Mickey Walker, world welterweight champion, and his manager, Jack Kearns, are back in Los Angeles today, beginning their preparations for the Walker-Harry Greb fight in New York.

Walker, who scored at first round knockout over Lefty Cooper in San Francisco Saturday, is anxious to start training for his big bout of the summer.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18.—Promoters of the Mickey Walker-Lefty Cooper fight here Saturday went into the hole $10,000 or more, according to reports today. The gate was $26,000. Walker was paid $15,000 and $1,000 expenses. Cooper got $5,000 and other expenses more than ate up the balance.

"MASHING" CHARGED

Charged with "mashing" by four local women, Pat Murphy was arraigned before Mayor R. H. Fox, acting recorder, this morning. Murphy pleaded not guilty. His trial was set for Tuesday afternoon.

Truth is sometimes stranger than fiction, and always stronger.

American Woman Golfer Keeps "Good Luck" Dime

(U. P. Leased Wire to The Bend Bulletin)

TROON, Scotland, May 18.—Still carrying a dime given her "for luck" by John D. Rockefeller, Miss Glenna Collett is America's hope in the 28th British women's golf championship in which play started over the historic but rain soaked course at Troon today.

A heavy downpour during the night had made the going slow as the first of nearly 100 participants set out this morning. Miss Joice Wethered, Britain's leading woman golfer, was a favorite to retain her title, with Glenna Collett and Miss Leitch next in favor.
