STOCKS SCORE
ON EXCHANGERecovery Is Slow From Monday, However

(Wall Street Journal Financial Review)

NEW YORK, May 26.—Although the recovery from Monday's selling movement was not particularly decisive, stocks scored some improvements today. Rallying tendencies were helped along by a number of constructive developments, including authorization of the regular Chicago and Northwestern dividend, widespread advances in gasoline prices and buoyancy in the wheat market, which carried the May option back to $2 a bushel on the Winnipeg exchange.

Pan American Gas and General Petroleum made the best responses to the advance in gasoline prices. Northwestern rails were strengthened by the elimination of uncertainty with regard to the Chicago and Northwestern payment while the steadier tone exhibited by the leading industrial furnished the groundwork for resumption of bullish activities in specialties. In the latter class, Beechnut packing, Electric power and Light and National Distillers issues were especially prominent.

The market closed higher. Closing prices included: U. S. Steel 117½, up ¼; Baldwin 114½, up ¼; Studebaker 48, up ¼; Can 188½, up ¼; General Electric 281½, up ¼; General Motors 77½, up ¼; Mack Truck 180½, up ¼; Maxwell "B" 98½, up ¾; Pan Petroleum "B" 81, up 1½; Rock Island 46½, off ½; St. Paul 8, up 1; St. Paul preferred 14, up 1½; Frisco 80½, off ½; Texas Company 48½; A. T. & T. 138½.
