"Feet of Clay" is typically DeMille, and you know what that means—luxury, gorgeousness, linked with a logical, dramatic, pictorial story. A picture with a "smash" climax, the like of which has never been seen before—a scene you'll talk about just as everyone did of the opening of the Red Sea in "The Ten Commandments." Here's a real picture!

New Men's Wear Store Is To Be Opened Next Monday

Opening of a men's wear store to be known as "Pursley's" at 844 Wall street, in the Erickson building, was announced today for next Monday by C. N. Cain, who will manage the store, which will be a branch of the P. C. Pursley store at Eugene. A full line of men's wear, and both men's and ladies' shoes will be carried.

A Los Angeles woman would divorce her husband because he took away her candy and threw her ice cream in the sink.

"Confetti counting" is the term used to designate the work performed by young women employed in the offices of the company that operates the omnibuses in London. When a check is desired on the number of tickets sold during an omnibus journey, the conductor's bell punch is opened and the tiny clippings of paper are emptied on a table. The girls sort and count the clippings, building them up in little heaps, from which it is easy to calculate how many "rides" have been sold.

In its native wilds an elephant usually moves at the rate of six miles an hour. One of the big New York hotels requires 52 miles of carpet for the corridors alone.
