

Hard Fighting Seen by Ring Fans at B. P. O. E. Smoker

THREE BOUTS FINISH 3 WAYS

Russell Miller Easy Winner on Mat

One knockout, a draw and a decision for Submarine Dean over Ed Gilbert featured the Elks' boxing card last night in the B. P. O. E. hall rooms.

The knockout was in the semi-final, with Bob Shouse and Joe Burnett fighting at 151 and 145, respectively, stepping three fast rounds and part of a fourth. The fourth ended with Joe sprawling out in a central corner, listening to the referee and counting stars.

But Shouse didn't have things his way through the match which started as a boxing exhibition and ended with a demonstration of some truly good fighting. In fact, in the third round, Joe had Bob wondering if people are under the impression that seismic disturbances are confined to the earth. Bob did part of this wondering while seated on the canvas. Meanwhile Jack Barba counted nine.

After Bob got to his corner at the end of the third round he evidently decided to get mad. At the same time Joe obviously decided to get his in the first three seconds of the final round. The result was a real round, with Bob's madness proving more effective than Joe's determination. About 40 seconds of the round yet remained when Joe gently lined in a corner.

Final Round Fast

The main bout, that between Gilbert and Dean, was nothing exceptional up to the final round, when Wallace Idaho, man waded into the ring in such a manner that he forced a decision. Through the entire fight, Gilbert fought cautiously, waiting for an opening. Dean, advancing under an effective guard, showed no fear of Gilbert. Both fighters missed frequently, not because of poor judgment, but because of the opponent's dodging ability.

In the final round, Dean, who has been in Bend for only a short time, finished his submarine attack and gave Gilbert to the ropes frequently. The local man wasn't seriously damaged by any of the attacks and retailed with several wicked right fists. Dean, by the way, has been sitting up and down the coast for a number of years. Only recently he won a match from Speck Woods.

The curtain raiser was a four round draw between Earl Stoll and Bill Lubbes. The final event of the smoker was a wrestling match between Chief Egbert and Russell Miller. Miller got three falls in the minutes of wrestling. Egbert was unable to pin his man to the mat.

GIBBONS PREDICTS HE'LL TAKE FIGHT

In Best Shape of Years for Tunney Battle

(U. P. Leased Wire to The Bend Bulletin) NEW YORK, June 3.—"I'm going out to win and naturally I think I am going to win," Tom Gibbons, St. Paul heavyweight, said here today when he eased up training for his fight against Gene Tunney which is to be staged Friday night at the Polo Grounds.

Tunney is the American light heavyweight champion, but his title is not at stake, as they are not going to make weight. Neither one is interested in the trick title and they are fighting for the place of prominence in the heavyweight class that a quick victory would give the winner.

Gibbons, who trained several weeks at Atlantic City and who finished his work today at Coney Island, looks better and is working better than he has in the last five years. He is heavier and more solid, his wind is perfect and his boxing is Gibbons' boxing and that's the best in the business.

Gibbons laughs when he hears the old man staff. Some critics said that age went down before youth when Mike McTigue was beaten by Paul Herlenbach and that the 37 year old Gibbons would have the same experience with the 27 year old Tunney.

"Gibbons looks and acts like he was about 25 years old," Mike McTigue said yesterday after watching Gibbons go through his stunts.

Peace Coolidge Plea In Annapolis Speech

(Continued from page 1.) out of the military or naval services who seek to advance the cause of preparedness by pronouncing the imminent dangers of war or by proclaiming the hostile intentions of other countries.

"The suggestion that any other people are harboring a hostile intent toward us is a very serious charge to make," he said. "We would not relish having our honorable motives and peaceful intentions questioned; others cannot relish having any of us question theirs."

"It seems to me perfectly proper for anyone upon any suitable occasion to advocate the maintenance of a navy in keeping with the greatness and dignity of our country. But as one who is responsible not only for our national defense, but likewise our friendly relations with other peoples and our title to the good opinion of the world, I feel that the occasion will very seldom arise and I know it does not now exist, when those connected with our navy are justified, either directly or by inference, in asserting that other specified powers are arming against us and by arousing national suspicion and hatred attempting to cause us to arm against them."

Obligation for All
Though stressing the peaceful aims of his administration and of this country, the president firmly declared for adequate national defense. The peaceable and prosperous conduct of every day affairs, the preservation of freedom and all material and spiritual progress, he pointed out, can only be cured by sufficient military and naval protection. Above all, he appealed for the universal interest of American citizens in their national defense.

"It is my firm conviction that the duty of national defense, like the general duty of citizenship, should be broadly extended and borne by all our people," he declared. "It is exactly because we wish to keep our standing forces small that the average citizen must give some attention to military affairs, precisely as he gives some attention to other governmental affairs, in order that he may express deliberate and informed judgment at the ballot box."

Fights and Fighters

(U. P. Leased Wire to The Bend Bulletin) SAN FRANCISCO, June 3.—Tommy Laird, sports writer for the Daily News, was selected without bickering as referee for the Jack Renault-George Godfrey fight here Saturday when the managers of the fighters met last night.

SAN JOSE, Cal., June 3.—Frankie Scholl of Buffalo, who holds the Pacific coast welterweight championship, won easily here last night from Chick Roach in ten rounds.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 3.—Frankie Farren knocked out Mearcio Villon, lightweight champion of the Orient, in the first minute of the second round of their main event fight here last night.

SEATTLE, Wash., June 3.—Ted Krache of Hoquiam, easily won the decision last night at the ball park from Dode Berot, a logger from the woods of Aberdeen. Both boys were willing but the rain that poured on during the mill made footing slippery, a favorable attribute to the winner.

LOS ANGELES, June 3.—Bud Taylor, Terre Hauts featherweight, won the decision over Jimmy Medard of every day affairs, the preservation of freedom and all material rounds of furious fighting. Joe Salas, former amateur, won a technical knockout over Young Farrell in the fifth round of the six round semi-final.

Lewis and Stecher Match For Championship Sought

(U. P. Leased Wire to The Bend Bulletin) CHICAGO, June 3.—Paddy Harmon, Chicago sports sponsor, announced he will offer $5,000 for a world's heavyweight wrestling match between "Strangler" Lewis and Joe Stecher. The promoter said he has Lewis "as good as signed."

Bend Woman Awaits Word From Sister in Shanghai

Word of her brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. Waldo E. Golden, is being anxiously awaited by Mrs. Harry Kulstad, 1107 Federal, this city, since reports of the native uprisings at Shanghai were first received. Dr. Golden is a medical officer on one of the U. S. warships off Shanghai, and Mrs. Golden, Mrs. Kulstad supposed, was until recently at least, staying in the city. Mrs. Kulstad has not heard from her sister since December.
