SATURDAY, JUNE 6, 1925

How excellent is thy loving-kindness, O God! therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of thy wings. They shall be abundantly satisfied with the fatness of thy house; and thou shalt make them drink of the river of thy pleasures.—Psalm 36:7, 8.

SANTIAM PUBLICITY

At a time when people all over western Oregon are thinking about the possibility of crossing into central Oregon by way of the McKenzie highway, two cars have actually made the trip over the Santiam route from Albany. A better publicity stunt on behalf of the Santiam could hardly be conceived. Those who made the journey agree that it was a hard one, but the point is that they made it over a road that is quite unimproved. Inevitably one compares this with the McKenzie which is improved in various ways and over which it is still impossible for an automobile to pass. It seems clear that when the Santiam is relocated and a new road built it should come to serve as the long season road to the Willamette valley.

When the Albany visitors were in Bend last fall to create interest in the Santiam they were told that they could expect no cooperation from this section until the highways still under construction were finished. Long steps toward their completion have since been taken and one can see the time coming when it will be possible to aid in the Santiam development from this side of the mountains. This would be as the new road approached the east, a time still some years, possibly, in the future but one that will be recognized as bound to come if the Albany determination to see the road built persists. We think it will.

In addition to its practical uses such a road will have a very high sentimental value because it will renew the tie between two sections of Oregon that in the past were very close. The Santiam trail was used not only by pioneers bound for western Oregon. Possibly an even greater volume of travel came over it from the valley into eastern Oregon. The older settlements in central Oregon were largely of Linn county people. It will be a pleasant thing to have the two brought together again through the medium of a modern highway.

DEAD MEN'S SHOES

My Uncle Hiram had a wad, and often I'd reflect, "When he's at rest, beneath the sod, his bundle I'll collect." 'Twas in the hazy long ago when first this dream was mine; my uncle's hair was white as snow, his age was eighty-nine; he had diseases ten or twelve and I was feeling sure the sexton soon for him would delve a grave in yonder moor. I had no use for honest toil, though I was always broke; why should I plow the stubborn soil, or chop the twisted oak? Why should I shovel loads of coal, or work with brick or stone? My Uncle Hiram had a roll that soon would be my own. I had no coin to pay the rent, no place where I could board; my thoughts were always madly bent on Uncle Hiram's hoard. "The way he hangs on is a crime," in my sad heart I said; "he lives along on borrowed time, nor wots he should be dead. He soon must crumble into dust, and sleep beneath the sward, and my long years of faith and trust will garner their reward." He's lived a hundred years and ten, and does not plan to die, and still he keeps his iron men, nor gives a reason why. Now I am old and in the hole men say it serves me right; this waiting for a dead man's roll is vicious, in their sight. I am too wretched now to work, I only sit and sigh; and as I do this, by the kirk, my uncle capers by.

Nature Treasure Hunt Held By Scoutmasters

A nature treasure hunt which made necessary the study of birds, trees, shrubs and flowers, featured the scoutmasters' meeting on Tumalo island Friday night. Eleven persons, two of whom were from Redmond, took part in the island conference.

Those attending the meeting were Rev. F. H. Ball, N. H. Coleman, Harvey Mackenzie, Bryan McDonald, E. T. Stevens, Ralph Haynie, W. B. Morse, Walter Shull and Merrill Ross of Bend, and Rev. W. T. Ford and J. E. Teator of Redmond.

The nature treasure hunt was preceded by a picnic lunch, served by the Bend council of the scouts.

This is our Father's house and all will receive a warm hearted Christian welcome. An hour spent here is an investment returning eternal revenues. Make an investment next Sunday.

How Long Will It Take?

Chiropractic has proved so efficacious in relieving the nerve pressure which is found to exist in children of tender age, that some people are prone to think that it is good for children only. This is a mistaken idea, but naturally the results would be quicker in such cases, because the relentless hand of disease has not yet fastened itself on the young patient. Children, therefore, naturally respond very speedily to Chiropractic adjustments. In adult cases, the results, it is true may be somewhat slower because the patient generally consults the chiropractor as a last resort, and at a time when disease has fastened its tentacles securely. The results are none the less sure, however, providing you place yourself unreservedly in the hands of your chiropractor, and take adjustments when he advises you. It has taken time for you to get sick—common sense should tell you that it will take time for you to get well.

AGAIN BUICK DEMONSTRATED ITS ABILITY TO GO WHERE IT IS DESIRED TO GO—

First Over the Santiam Pass in 1925 is the Distinction Attained.

The same Buick that holds the Mount Hood record after 14,000 miles of driving as a demonstrator, made the trip from Albany to Bend via Santiam Pass, carrying four passengers and luggage, through snow and mud that reached half way up the radiator, in 13 hours running time. No mechanical trouble, no excessive heating—just good reliable service under the most gruelling conditions.

Why accept or expect less in your motor car purchase?

Come in, let us show why it was possible and is possible to receive this kind of service from a Buick.
