

Handicap Tournament Announced For Bend Golf Club

OPENING ROUND PLAY ARRANGED

Partners Drawn, Week Given to Report

Immediate opening of the first annual June handicap tournament of the Bend Golf club was announced today by the directors, together with the drawing of opponents for the qualifying round.

This round will not be an elimination affair, but one in which all members' names are drawn for opponents, and those making the 22 lowest net scores will qualify for the second round.

First round matches must be played by next Tuesday evening, June 23, and the score cards, signed by both players, turned in to the caretaker.

Suitable prizes are being arranged for by the handicap committee, members of which are Tracy Patchell, A. H. Oliver and Frank R. Primos.

The first round drawings and the handicaps which have been assigned, based on scores turned in heretofore, are as follows:

SPORT TABLOIDS

CHICAGO, June 16.—Agreements are almost completed for a Harry Williams-George Godfrey fight at the East Chicago arena next month, according to Promoter Jimmy Mullins here.

ASTORIA, June 16.—Cracker Warren, Oregon City lightweight, poured everything a clever fighter has into Jack Burbank of Portland throughout their 10 round bout here last night, but could not bring Burbank down. Warren got the decision. Lou Perry of Portland won a decision from Finn Boyson of Astoria in six rounds of lightweight boxing, and Bill Peyton of Portland knocked out Ed Godin, of Warrenton in the last frame of their four rounder.

Navy Crew Is Feared By Washington Coach

(U. P. Leased Wire to The Bend Bulletin)
POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 16.—Rusty Callow, coach of Washington crews in training for the collegiate championship regatta here, shot his varsity over the course today in 21 minutes and 38 seconds.

This was the first attempt of the Huskies against the water. The boys from the far west went over the course at noon.

Central Oregon Fishing Pleases Portland Angler

"We had the greatest fishing we ever had or expect to have," writes M. Fleming, Portland business man to E. C. Eberly of Bend on returning to Portland from the Deschutes country. Fleming and his party fished in East lake. "We brought back about 30 pounds, which was all we could conveniently pack in our limited space in the car. The biggest one I caught was 26 1/2 inches and the smallest 14, so you can judge that I was well satisfied."

Says Credit For Fish Wrongly Given to Foss

A news story published last week in the Oregonian, and reprinted Monday in a local paper, has brought woe and anguish to the soul of L. S. Sillery, angler extraordinary. For the story gives to L. M. Foss of Bend credit for hooking and landing a huge Dolly Varden trout which Sillery positively identifies as one he himself captured. "The part of the story pertaining to the size of the fish, 8 1/2 pounds dressed, and Benham Falls, as the place it was caught, is quite all right with me," Sillery remarked. "That's just the size of the trout I caught, and the place I caught it. But I wish to point out that it was in Gilbert's grocery store where I had the fish on display that Mr. Foss caught it." The big fish, which was admired

You'll take to Granger right from the start
Granger has that full, rich "rounded-out" mellowness that every experienced pipe-smoker looks for in tobacco. For Granger is fine, ripe old Burley tobacco mellowed by Wellman's famous old 1870 method. And another thing, it's specially cut for pipes (rough cut, we call it) so that it burns slow and smokes sweet and cool right down to the very last flake.
