If Ye Obey:—If ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people. Exodus 19:5.

LA FOLLETTE Youth is the time of radical ideas, so it is said, and with age comes conservatism, but to Robert M. La Follette, senator from Wisconsin for 20 years, age seemed to bring an even greater press of radical thought and program than had been his in his younger days.

Liberal, progressive, radical. That was the course of La Follette's political career, with the progressivism touched with radical madness and rancor against his antagonists as when in 1912 he destroyed in a speech in Philadelphia a political situation that had been slapping itself to make him a real contender for the presidency.

La Follette was a great man of the times before he went to pieces back in 1912. He did big things and things that were good for the people. Even after that year he was to be reckoned with but his real day had passed. He will go into American history as a great progressive whose following was lost as he grew radical.

Pekin Government Not Inclined to Stop Communist Propaganda

(U. P. Licensed Wire to The Bend Bulletin) LONDON, June 19.—A Peking dispatch to the Evening News today reported a strike against the British will be inaugurated in all China on June 25. The same source said that soviet workers had sent an additional 10,000 pounds for the Chinese strike fund.

Other Peking advices said that the Chinese press is bitterly attacking England, while the situation was said to have serious features from the fact that the Chinese government was disinclined to prevent communist propaganda.
