"OVER THE TOP" WITH THE ALLIES" OPENS AT CAPITOL. Going over the top into no man's land at 4:35 a. m. Can you picture it? Of course you cannot—unless you were among those who really experienced that sensation.

Sneaking forward, toward trenches only 10 yards away, with vicious machine guns spouting death at you. Can you picture that sensation?

At the Capitol theater tonight one can see that very thing.

The doughboys were the actors with mud and blood and desperate courage for their makeup. You see handfulls of mud plastered boys sneaking toward a shell hole; you see those same boys crawl out and dart forward. Some of them go right on. Here and there you see one crumple and fall. "Over the Top With the Allies" is too big, too tragic to describe in black and white. You have to see it to realize what it really is.

Despite arduous duties as head of a family of five for whom she cooked and kept house, Mrs. Augusta Reid

McDonald, of Evanston, Ill., has completed two and a half years of work in theology and received her degree from Northwestern university.
