Powell Butte Holds Fitting Celebration

POWELL BUTTE, July 8.—Powell Butte celebrated the Fourth fittingly. The community picnic held in the Cook grove was decidedly the best ever held in Powell Butte.

The free lemonade and the ice cream booth were drawing cards for the small boy, the field sports pleased the older youths, and the big basket dinner and plenty of shade on the grass was all that the "cads" could wish.

At 2 o'clock the ball game between Powell Butte and ye Grass was called. It was hotly contested and resulted in a score of 21 to 12 in Powell Butte's favor.

In the evening the community dance was well attended.

SEEK SOLUTION TO OPIUM EVIL

Foreign Domination in China Deplored

Institute of Pacific Relations Told Orientals Must Solve Problem

(U. P. Leased Wire to The Bend Bulletin) HONOLULU, T. H., July 8.—Chinese efforts to eradicate the opium evil will be futile as long as the theory of extra-territoriality permits foreign domination of ports through which great quantities of the drug are being smuggled.

The speaker described the opposition of powerful foreign interests against the Chinese national anti-opium league, but predicted its growth in the face of the stumbling blocks placed in the way.

C. C. Batchelder explained the British opposition to the American plan presented at the Geneva opium congress. He said that while the American idea was based on speed and vigorous action, it was discredited generally throughout the world because of the "conspicuous failure of the Volstead act and anti-narcotic law enforcement" in the United States.

William Allen White, Kansas editor, and Chester Rowell, California, participated in an immigration round table talk considering educating the public through the newspapers in problems of immigration.

Dr. A. W. Taylor in an afternoon speech said American churches generally opposed the blunt method in which Japanese have been excluded from the United States.

Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur, president of Stanford university and presiding officer at the conference, lauded it as an "institute based on idealism, desiring to seek the solution to points of conflict among Pacific nations and enjoyed the Powell Butte picnic. Robert Allen of San Francisco arrived Sunday, June 28, for an extended visit with his aunt, Miss Mabel, and his uncle, Herman Allen.

Young Allen is an interesting visitor, he and his parents being among the Americans captured by Chinese brigands two years ago.

Clair Carlson of Prineville and Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds of Crooked river were outside guests at the community dance Saturday night.

Miss Lottie Mend of Redmond is visiting at the E. A. Bussett home.

Miss Margaret Still of Prineville is visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Myron Nagar.

Isaac Happer is helping in the hay harvest on the Ochoco at the George Sayton ranch.

The Powell Butte ball team won more laurels Sunday when it defeated the Prineville Grease Pushers on their own grounds, 5 to 4.

Mrs. M. H. Cook entertained her Sunday school class at her home Wednesday afternoon. The time was spent in games and music. Delightful refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hobbs and children spent the Fourth at the granite picnic on Tumalo island.

MOVIES

FILM AT GRAND HAILED AS DARING PRODUCTION A daring production, clothed in comedy and satire is "Proud Flesh," directed by King Vidor, which will be shown tonight at the Grand theater.

The novel of the same name from the pen of Lawrence Sanders was one of the year's "best sellers," and the screen version of it bids fair to surpass the sensation created by King Vidor's last picture, "Wife of the Centaur."
