WALL STREET IN DOLDRUMS

Disappointed Sell When Money Not Easier

(Wall Street Journal Financial Review) NEW YORK, July 12.—Stocks displayed remarkable indifference today to an advance in call money to 5 per cent. Most operators had expected demand money to work definitely easier after the first of July, so the stiffening of the rate might well have been proved the signal for cool disappointed selling.

It was obvious from the action of the stocks that no apprehension existed in well informed banking circles over the credit situation. The fact that no danger signals have been given by long term rate loans probably accounted for the fact that no important selling was occasioned by today's rise in demand rates. As it was, the general list moved slightly practically throughout the session with few noteworthy movements in special stocks to offset the narrowness of the price range in the main body of stocks.

The market closed irregular. Closing prices included:

(U. P. Leased Wire to The Bend Bulletin) CARSON CITY, Nev., July 12.—Two libel suits, with consolidated damages amounting to $850,000 went to trial in federal district court here today before Judge Frank Dietrich of Idaho.

George Kilborn, former publisher of the Reno Journal, is plaintiff in the actions, which have been consolidated in one for the trial. The first suit is against former United States Senator Charles Henderson for $475,000 and the second is against the Reno Gazette for $375,000.

The alleged libel appeared in Gazette advertisements inserted in reply to the Journal's attacks on Henderson in the campaign of 1920.
